Note of possibility: word is that Milton Berle and his "Jackpot Bowling" format on NBC-TV are set for a splitting of the pins in the near future.

"The Lincoln Murder Case," will be re-opened and the evidence re-examined when CBS and Channel 10 present "Show of the Month," Saturday night at 9:30. Luther Adler and Alexander Scourby have been chosen to star in this production. This "live" presentation is based on the incidents surrounding Abraham Lincoln's assassination.

It's not a musical, not an opera and it is not a ballet. "Sounds of America," will be a happy wedding of lyrics, music, dance and sounds on channel 4, Friday night at 9 p.m. NBC's Telephone Hour was filmed and taped at Disneyland against familiar backdrops. Composer Gordon Jenkins says, "it does not fit any of the common descriptions, mostly sounds; from the fizz of a soda fountain to gear changing and honking traffic, all blended in 'The Sounds of America'!"

WMNI RADIO will carry the Lenten Message of Pope John XXIII on Ash Wednesday, Apr. 15, at 12:15 p.m. The message will be delivered by Archbishop Carl J. Alter of Cincinnati, who is chairman of the Administrative Board of Catholic Welfare Conferences. This 10-minute program will also feature the music of the Pius V Choir from the school of Liturgical Music Manhattanville College of New York.

AROUND THE HOOP ON TV: Channel 6 will offer the SMU-at-Texas basketball game, 2 p.m. Saturday, and the Purdue-at-Michigan match at 4:30 . . . Channel 4 will present pro action with Los Angeles at New York, 2 p.m. Saturday.

A new time is announced for Channel 10's "This Above All" with Dr. Otis Maxfield of Arlington's First Community Church which is to be seen at 11 a.m. Thursday morning. Dr. Maxfield again will give practical application of religious principles to the problems outlined on the shod. There will be an interview with a person of religious authority and a segment devoted to church news.

"JFK—Report No. 1," a television closeup of President John F. Kennedy, his family, his associates and their impact on the nation in the first forty days of the new administration, will be presented on NBC and Channel 4, Feb. 28, 10 p.m.

The Tweenage Council further announced the initiation of the annual "cultural festival" to be held for the first time on Sunday night, Mar. 12 in the Center Auditorium. This cultural presentation, "Spring Purim Festival", will have Tween Club groups competing in a series of dramatic skits.

Parents will be invited to participate in this project.

The Council further approved and endorsed the holding of another Tween Camp for 1961.

A program committee was appointed to study and report to the Council on new program suggestions for the Tween Center program.

When You Look For Trouble You Find It

There seems to be added belief that President Kennedy is exaggerating the recession.

Emphasis has been laid on the bad spots and little credit given for the good.

The cry of "wolf" seems to be aimed at the hastening of an intense effort toward approval of a huge welfare program.

Business indicators generally point to an upturn in business about midyear.

It is sincerely hoped that Americans generally who have planned purchases, home improvements, etc., will not be scared and thus in turn add to our troubles.

If we go to looking for trouble we are sure to find it.

A man is what he thinks about all day long. — Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Abraham Lincoln's philosophy in an economic crisis was that of "Eating it up, wearing it out and making it do."

Whitehall Park Plan Critics Rebuff Idea Of Quick Acceptance

On the surface, the agenda for Whitehall's Tuesday night council meeting did not appear to contain any items that could be a possible source of friction.

On the docket were but a handful of ordinances to gain first and second readings, dealing with streets, police cruisers and a park. It was the last item, however, that of "park" that gave rise to a verbal tug-o-war. As a result, a suggested quick passage of an engineer survey was tabled for further consideration.

It was Mayor Walter Moling who last week announced that he had submitted a plan for a 24-acre park east of Hamilton-rd to the city Planning and Zoning body. The commission had returned a favorable verdict on the proposal.

Tuesday night found the measure before council and, apparently, some members of council were caught unawares of such an early submission of the plan for their approval.

"It isn't that I'm against parks," commented Dem solon Loren Mason, "it's the way that we were notified that I don't like. The first I knew of it was when I read it in the papers."

"The master plan," he continued," contains recommendations for, I believe, three parks, all more or less centrally located. There is no specific provision for a 24-acre park."

Mason decided that he wanted to wait until after the master plan meeting Saturday before studying the park proposal. "There are many other things to be done in this city. We need sewer lines, for instance — things for the community as a whole. I'm 100 per cent for parks.—It's just the method of introducing the ordinance that I don't care for.

"This council should be consulted first. We were the ones who bought a master plan."

C. Craig Wright had a few words to say on the subject. "All we are asking for is an engineer survey. So far, Mr. Mason, it hasn't cost the city one dime.

"It is foolish to put the matter off. You will have a lot of time to study the plan. If this thing is kicked around, it's going to cost the city more money and we won't be getting a park. This is the last good chance to get a decent park for this city.

"We can come back with a firm, solid proposal within two months. This is not a political issue. It's for the city of Whitehall."

Solicitor James Maxwell added that at present "we have no legal description of this land nor do we know who the property owners are. You will know these things, the price and the exact location if council will get down to business and vote on it.

"This park is located in a very critical area of the city Having a park there could bring high class developments in that area."

The vote to pass the ordinance on an emergency basis was denied by Mason and Robert

Bexley To Step-Up 'Outside Hours' Education Program

Ignorance may be bliss, but the Bexley School Board is going on the assumption that it is more blissful to be educated.

The board recently gave the go-ahead to Superintendent E. D. Jarvis to expand the education outside of school hours program, which would include summer school, the Saturday morning program and adult education.

According to Jarvis, the present program of the summer school now constitutes eight weeks and is concerned mainly with remedial reading and arithmetic on the elementary level and with typing in the high school.

Jarvis said he would like to see the program consist of foreign language instruction at both the elementary and high school levels as well as advanced math classes and maybe speed reading.

In the Saturday morning program, which now consists of only a couple of hours for advanced math, Jarvis thinks he could include science as well.

As for adult education, which is now nil, Jarvis hasn't said what would be implemented. He also pointed out that it would probably be next fall before he would be able to work on the expanded program.

More specific considerations were given the 1961-62 school calendar at the recent board session.

School is slated to begin Sept. 7; Christmas vacation will be from Dec. 22 to Jan. 2; Easter holidays from Apr. 14 to Apr. 23; commencement will be the last day of school, June 7.

Lions' 5th Oratorical Joust Set

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address will get plenty of airing Thursday night by 20 youthful orators at the fifth annual oratorical contest; sponsored by the East Columbus Lions Club.

The 20 youthful Daniel Websters from 10 east Columbus elementary schools will be competing for two large rotating trophies to be displayed at the winners' schools for one year and two personal trophies.

The contest will begin at 7 p.m. at the Desert Inn with two post-graduate students from Capital University's Speech Department doing the scoring.

Norman Landry, club secretary, is chairman for the contest and awards will be presented to the winners by club member Spook Beckman.

WHITEHALL POLICE SHOWCASE
17 Good Reasons To Quake

'Artillery' Showcase Reminder Of Vigilant Law Enforcement

The unexpected and frightening order of "stick 'em up" doesn't usually find the victim too interested in what type of weapon is being employed. Arms are thrust into the air, wallets are ransacked, and if lucky, the victim is left with but a quavering in his feet and his voice.

But the next time you step into the Whitehall police station, you might take a look at the recently installed showcase of momento weapons which police have confiscated. You'll know why you had good reason to quake.

Ranging in weapons from slingshots and crowbars to switchblade knives and sawed off shotguns, the case contains 17 pieces of civilian "artillery."

Some have been used in robberies, others in assaults, while still others have either been turned in or taken by the police for safe-keeping.

Item: .36 revolver taken in January of 1960. According to Sgt. Richard Wells, the revolver was used in a burglary attempt. The subject tried to shoot an officer, but the gun misfired three times. The probable reason: the weapon was old and rusted.

Item: .22 target pistol taken from a juvenile involved in a burglary. The weapon has never been claimed, Weber stated.

Item: .22 pistol turned into police for safekeeping. "Domestic trouble," Sgt. Wells explained.

Master Plan Financial Report In

By John Poeppelmeyer

The final report of the Whitehall master plan, the financial aspects for providing street, parks, et al, has found its way into the hands of council members.

The financial blueprint calls for implementing a long range program "with more urgent objectives in a five-year plan. According to Rackoff Associates recommendations, between now and 1965 the city should be expected to expend $3,689,000 on playgrounds, streets and other capital improvements.

"The plan," says Rackoff advisors, "at best can serve as an effective tool to fashion a systematic way to a more desirable community."

The planners did recommend that a change in the income tax law so that 50 per cent of the revenue be placed in debt retirement to meet immediate needs. Under the present law, only 45 per cent goes in the capital improvement fund after administrative costs, with another five per cent allocated for bond retirement.

"The 45 per cent limit cannot go far enough to satisfy capital needs on a pay as you go basis, nor can five per cent defray all costs of bond retirement for an ambitious capital improvement program to be fi-

Spring's coming — and that means a market for bicycles. If your child is ready to join the bike brigade—or has outgrown it—you can buy or sell his cycle easily through a Hartley Classified Ad. Mrs. Warren J. Miller, 366 N. Murray Hill-rd sold a 20-inch bike that way. You can, too. Call BR. 4-1155.

EASTMOOR, ROSEMONT TEACHERS TONE UP IN KEEPING WITH MUSKETEER TRADITION

A pair of Columbus school teachers are ready to move up into any vacancies that may be created in the ranks of the Three Musketeers.

Of course, the Musketeers are fictional, but the tutors are not and most every Monday night finds Al Foose, of Eastmoor High School, and Ron Weaver, of Rosemont High School, clanging away with sabers, foils and epees at the Central YMCA.

Actually, the purpose of the weekly sessions is to tone up their approach and fencing methods for future matches, and although both appear more relaxed than they would in a contest, their mood is of a serious nature.

Clad in white fencing togs complete with guard gloves and mask, Al, who lives at 219 S. Broadleigh-rd, and Ron, who resides along Briggs-rd, move in on each other, parrying, thrusting, and shouting "touche."

Al is the "Y" champ and Ron is a past captain of the Ohio State University fencing team as well as the instructor of the "Y" group which includes women as well as men.

Ron guides and directs the group in the methods of the saber, which is a "cutting" weapon, and the foils and the epee, which are thrusting weapons. The epee is the heaviest of the three and its target area is the entire body, while the foil is the lightest and has a smaller target area, centering around the torso.

"Weapons, not swords," Ron explained, "also have a variety of grips. Some are employed with a pistol grip, which resembles the trigger portion of a gun, and others are made with a French grip, which is the most commonly seen type."

Ron also explained the classic starting position of a fencer, the body turned slightly sideways with the un-weaponed arm bent at right angles in the air in terms of Newton's law: "For every action, there is an opposite and equal reaction."

Al mentioned that some matches are controlled under

Bexley Legion Commander Asks Vets To Back Program

Predicting continued increases in American Legion activity in the Bexley, Columbus and Whitehall areas this year, Commander Victor Funtjar, Bexley Post 430, is inviting war veterans who are residents to join the post and support the various programs.

"We feel that all veterans are interested in our program of positive Americanism, such as Boys State, the annual essay contest, junior baseball, flag gifts, sponsorship of patriotic events and helping in community events," he said. "In addition, we have regular meetings and social events at the Legion home."

The membership has been asked by Arthur J. Hersch, Legion representative in the Bex-

Linda 'Tunes In' For Learning

PUPIL LINDA WALTER
A Lesson In Staying Home . . .

Of all the "how to" projects that have come into being over the years, the most educational one appears to intone the theme of "how to stay at home and still go to school."

Linda Walter, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Walter, of 574 S. Yearling-rd, is one of the persons that has benefited from such a program.

In fact, she is the only one in Whitehall to make use of the Bell Telephone Electronic home-school intercommuncation apparatus.

Linda is a fifth grader in the room of Mrs. Fern Layman at the Etna Road Elementary school in Whitehall.

Last fall, rheumatic fever caught up to Linda. Since then she has been unable to leave the house, much less attend school. Until January Linda went without classroom instruction. Mrs. Layman would see her three times a week while helping Linda to keep up with her lessons.

Then the "teach-a-phone" system was installed, one part in Linda's bedroom, the other in the classroom. Now, all Linda has to do, for approximately four hours a day, is "tune in to teacher."

When Linda has a question, she "raises her hand" by pushing a button and her voice is heard in the classroom.

Recently she even headed a committee for poster displays via keeping in contact with classmates during an informal discussion.

Even so, Linda says that she would rather attend school. The hardest part, Linda commented, is when "Mrs. Layman writes on the blackboard."

As for tests, Mrs. Layman says that she delivers the tests in an envelope to the Walter home the day the exams are to be given. Mrs. Walter has been instructed to give the tests to Linda at the same time the class is taking it.

The papers are returned to the envelope and Mrs. Layman picks up the results at night.

Mrs. Layman also feels that the "tuning in teacher" project has aided the more timid ones in the classroom. "Before, if they were hesitant to speak up, now they do so for Linda's sake."

Linda's school day is from 9:15 to 11:15 and from 1:15 to usually 2:40. She doesn't take part in gym, art or music classes.

Linda, her teacher and her parents all feel that if she could go back to school today, she would fit right in with the classroom studies.

Rev. Harrison Will Speak To Whitehall PTA Group

Rev. Charles L. Harrison, assistant superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School, is slated to speak at the Whitehall East Main Street School Monday, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m.

The event is the East Main Street School's Parent-Teacher Association meeting and Rev. Francis McCarty, East Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

Rev. Harrison is also acting as resident Protestant Chaplain at the Industrial School. After graduation from Denison University, he attended Oberling College and the Theological Seminary of the University of Chicago.

He is nationally known as a public speaker and is an active member of such organizations as the YMCA, Kiwanis, American Legion and Forty et Eight. He is State Chaplain for the latter group.

He is also a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Aladdin Temple of the Shrine.

Mayor Refutes 'Light Charge'

Among the numerous items usually thrown out, in this and election year, has been one charging that the street lights in Whitehall are being left on too long during the daytime.

The charge has been made by a Democratic candidate for council, Charles Harcourt, who, has, in effect, stated that the light bill was running up the taxpayers cost.

But Mayor Walter Moling has now issue! a statement that having the lights on in the daytime is not an added expense. "The city pays so much per year for its light bill," the mayor has stated.

He also has pointed out that many times when the lights are on linemen are checking for bad lights and for replacements.

The program was presented by a panel which consisted of Mrs. Beinstock, Mrs. Ackerman, student teachers, and Miss Glessner who is the FTA advisor. The discussion was moderated by Sandra Hellrud and Judy Hilson.

A choral and instrumental assembly was presented to the student body on Tuesday, Feb 21. Selections were sung by the Senior Choir, Girls' Ensemble, Boys' Ensemble and the Boys' Quartet along with special members from the Senior Band. The members of the Warriorettes had a banquet, Feb. 20, to honor the senior and second year members. These girls received Warriorette pins. The entertainment for the evening was provided by the marching organization.

Item: a crowbar that resembles a truck tire iron used to "brutally beat a man in an aggravated assault" in a bar room fight, Wells said.

The showcase also contains a set of brass knuckles confiscated as a concealed weapon and a sawed off shotgun that Wells explained is "illegal except for purposes of law enforcement."

The smallest items in the showcase, but just as deadly as the rest are a number of switch blade knives, one 8 four incher, the other a 6½ incher, which Wells said, are illegal under Federal statue.

One other item, commonly seen in most barber shops, but of a type that no one would be seen shaving with — a straight razor. Only on this one, approximately one inch has been knocked from the end of the blade, leaving a wickedly jagged impression.

The showcase is a new innovation at police headquarters, Wells said, and the items will probably be changed from time to time.

Whitehall-Yearling RAM-blings

By Joanne Blaker

The leading roles for the school play were awarded to Sue Johnson, Fred Ecker, Gloria Wilson and Bob Leonard.

Remainder of the play cast is Lynda Nelson, Andrea Heineman, Dianne Arbuckle, Sally Metcalf, Skip Wiley, Patty Quigley and Ronnie Smathers.

The play, directed by the dramatics teacher, Mr. Kline, is a comedy entitled "Room for One More." It is planned for Apr. 13, 14 and 15.

Whitehall's varsity basketball team may be called the "graduating team." The team this year is made up entirely of seniors. They are Ken Merriman, captain; Bill Gornall, Bruce Bang, Bob Leonard, Ralph Sompres, Jerry Millington, Randy Welsch, Tom Patesel, Ron Neutzling and Skip Wiley. Three of the four cheerleaders who cheered the team on were also seniors. They were Nita Williams, Kathy Kirkpatrick and Sally Metcalf.

To aid the school guidance director in placing students after graduating into the field which they are most interested, the juniors were given a state vocational test on Tuesday, Feb. 13.

electrical scoring set-up. "An electrical cord stretches up the sleeve, down the back, onto a reel and is connected onto a computer."

The reason, he says, is that scoring is more accurate with an electrical device than with the eye. "Fencing is a fast and gracefully furious sport, and more often than not the hand is faster than the eye."

A match lasts four minutes and a point is scored each time fencers are touched. A match is over when a man has been touched five times and a woman four.

It would be hard to separate the folks that are all mixed up.

MORALE-BUILDER

It has been said that nothing is more rewarding as a morale builder-upper than a chic new hairdo. So, if you feel the need for shedding your winter doldrums, give the idea thought and action. There are simply countless new styles to check on. A successful hairdo is decided by the texture of your hair plus the amount of natural curl or wave it possesses. The best way is to go along with your hair "personality."

Primarily, your hairdo should be becoming, comfortable and manageable. Let us arrange such a hairdo for you. Iva's Beauty Salon, 3978 E. Broad Street, Columbus. Belmont 8-[illegible].

How a loan can help you cut your debts

A Huntington debt-consolidation loan gives you three immediate advantages:

1. It enables you to pay off your present bills and reduce your payments to just one a month, of a size you can afford to meet.

2. It saves you money, because you pay only "bank rate" interest.

3. It automatically protects you for the full amount you owe with debt-cancelling life insurance, at no added cost.

If you're looking for the economical way to get out of debt, phone us at CApital 8-5955 and tell us how much you need. Then, when you come in, your loan can be arranged in minutes, in privacy.

nanced through a long range plan," the advisors say.

The planners also suggest that the city take another look at income being earmarked for specific percentages for designated projects. "This inflexible, restrictive method should be changed to provide the administration and council greater latitude."

Some of the park projects, the planners say, should be postponed for a second five-year capital budget period.

Estimates of projects to be undertaken now and 1965:

Washburn-st Bridge, $30,000; Yearling-rd improvement (Broad to Main), $348,000; Yearling-rd, south of Main, $45,000; Bernhard-rd improvement, $45,000; Pierce-av improvement, $43,000; New City Hall, $375,000;

Service building, $30,000; Collingwood-av improvement, $300,000; Hamilton-rd resurfacing north of Broad, $50,000; Mason Run, $20,000; Blower Ditch, $10,000; Hamilton-rd improvement (four-lane), -1,084,000.

Rosemore park site and development, $145,000; Big Walnut park site and development $100,000; Mason Run park site and development, $65,000; Mason Run playfield and development and playground site and development, $91,000; Broad-st resurfacing, $50,000; Etna-rd extension to the west corporation line, $15,000; street improvements over city, $100,000.

Langley-av extension to Country Club-rd, $93,000; Etna-rd extension, east of Hamilton-rd, $275,000; Etna-rd improvement from Beechwood to Collingwood, $50,000; Beechwood to Beechcreek connector, $25,000; Rosemore Recreation center, $200,000.

ambitious projects that council has undertaken to study is a move to link Whitehall to Columbus, via streets. A number of streets are available for the action: Etna, Doney, Washburn, Elbern. If approved, Maplewood-av, in Whitehall would be connected with Napoleon-av in Columbus.

New State Farm Agent Is Named

William F. McCaffrey, 6369 Brauning-dr, Reynoldsburg has been appointed as a State Farm Agent in Franklin County. The notice of appointment was recently announced by E. J. Winderl, District Manager of the State Farm Insurance Companies for Franklin County.

A little prominence does not go to the head of a really prominent person.

ley Celebrations Association, to increase its working contribution for at least two of the four big events sponsored by the association, which the post and its auxiliary helped found.

Hersch lives at 2785 Dale-av.

Prospective members are invited to call one of the following about joining: Commander Funtjar, BE. 1-4049; Adjutant Howard Lewis, BE. 1-6248; Alfred Krauss, BE. 5-3133; M. M Carothers, BE. 1-6992, or Samuel Shenker, BE. 5-0116.

Honorably discharged veterans of the two World Wars and the Korean conflict are eligible for membership, provided they served between the dates of April 8, 1917 and Nov. 11, 1918; Dec. 7, 1941 and Sept. 2, 1945; and June 25, 1950, and July 27, 1953.

Park—

Garnon. Richard Hyatt went along with the Republican voters and even urged that an option to acquire the land be prepared "at this time."

But to the Republicans, the most confusing aspect came when council unanimously endorsed a bill for the service director to plat the entire area.

Maxwell, after the meeting, allowed as how this was a "first" for Franklin County — having the city decide the lot sizes and street patterns — since usually it is the developer who does this, sending his ideas off for council approval.

"But," said Maxwell "with the plat approved, prices could go up. Then how much will it cost us to get a park?"

A measure to permit auxiliary police to live outside the city, was reported unfavorably from committee.

"The safety committee felt," said Hyatt, "that this bill would create hard feelings. If any partiality should be shown, it should be for the paid police rather than for the auxiliary."

25 Years Of Life On Channel 4

By Stan Robinson

Actress-comedienne Peggy Cass will co-star as Sid Caesar's wife in a satirical sequence during the special anniversary program of "25 Years of Life," scheduled for 9:30 p.m. Thursday, Mar. 2, on Channel 4 and NBC-TV.

Bob Hope will be star-host of the 90 minute show which also will spotlight the seven Mercury Astronauts and and other outstanding personalities.

In the satire, Caesar as the father and Miss Cass as the mother will have two children, yet to be selected, will show the life of an average American family during the depression year of 1936 and life in 1961. Miss Cass is a frequent visitor to the Jack Paar show on 4 in Columbus.

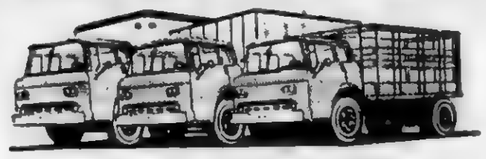
A familiar voice addition to the WTVN radio weekend schedule is that of Mike Gavin, former WMNI staffer. Mike is heard on Saturdays and Sundays under the present schedule, on WTVN radio.

Gavin along with Harv Morgan started the popular Saturday record hops at Vets' Memorial which Mike still maintains and has done so since Morgan moved to a radio station in the Detroit area. The latest report is that Morgan is doing a morning radio show in Baltimore, Md. It's good to hear the "personable Mike" from Boston on Columbus radio again.

Three new daytime game shows are on the planning board at CBS-TV as possible replacements for current afternoon soap operas, several of which are carried by Channel 10 . . . "Dr. Kildare," developed by MGM-TV from its memorable motion picture properties will be a full-hour family entertainment series co-starring Raymond Massey as Dr. Gillespie and Richard Chamberlain in the title role, now figured for NBC TV in the 61-62 season of viewing.

A deal said to involve $25 million has released 150 post-1950 motion pictures to NBC-TV for possible scheduling in prime evening time next fall. There would be uncut 20th Century Fox films to start at 9 p.m. on Saturday night. Marilyn Monroe and Danny Kaye would be two of the many star performers on film . . .

Ruth Lyons will have Phyllis Diller as her Thursday guest, this week on the 50-50 Club, noon on Channel 4 and on Friday, singer Sookie Lenson is scheduled special . . . Mort Sahl, the comedian with the sweater and the newspaper, visits on Channel 4's "Here's Hollywood," Thursday, Mar. 2, 4:30 p.m. On Friday, Mar. 3, the same show presents actress Dina Merrill, telling of her experiences as NBC commentator at the Inaugural Ball in January



"Pierre of the Plains" is the film on Channel 4's Buckeye Playhouse, 1 a.m. Feb. 24th, and Bill Brabson, well known over the past few years in radio and television, has been the commercial spokesman for the sponsoring concern.

Yesiree...this is an "old-fashioned" winter!

It's been cold! And, how!

The average temperature during December was 33½ per cent colder than the same month the year before in the area served by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

January was 23 per cent colder than a year ago.

During the 12-day period ending January 30, temperatures dropped 9 to 22 degrees below normal.

As a result, Ohio Fuel delivered a record 103 billion cubic feet of gas during December and January to keep customers' homes warm.

This means your home heating bills this winter are likely to be higher than usual. The colder the weather, the more fuel it takes to keep your house warm. But it's a comfort to know that gas is by far the least expensive fuel for heating.

With natural gas, homeowners in Ohio enjoy unmatched heating efficiency, comfort, and convenience — no matter how much colder one year is than another — at rates that continue to be among the lowest in the nation.

New Tea Named For Comments

"Constant Comment" is a tea that named itself. Created by Ruth Campbell Bigelow from early American recipes featuring a slice of orange and selected spices, the new tea packages in the orange and spice flavors in a convenient package.

Introduced at a large social gathering as a "nameless" beverage, the tea, which has become famous, named itself by the constant comment it created.

Advertising Paid For Sears Stores

This is the 75th anniversary, the Diamond Jubilee year, for Sears, Roebuck & Co., and a lot of things have happened since the days of the old Sears advertising.

Advertising has played a big part in the expansion of this great merchandising firm. The co-founders of the firm were actually brought together on April 1, 1887, when Richard W. Sears placed this want ad in the Chicago Daily News:

"Wanted Watchmaker with reference who can furnish tools. State age, experience and salary required. Address T39, Daily News."

Alvah C. Roebuck, answered the ad and Sears hired him to help with his mail order business. Their mail order catalogue was commonly referred to as the "Wish book." But as they started opening stores they started using newspaper advertising.

Today the firm has announced it will spend some $56 million in newspaper advertising in 1961.

Editor's Compensations

There is never a dull moment in this business of editing and publishing suburban and small town newspapers. We are so close to people that our every action and every word can and does come in for criticism if someone does not agree, and it is a foregone conclusion that when three or more people get together they

ENROLLMENT TO START NEXT FALL; SOME RELIEF SEEN FOR EASTMOOR

Attendance area boundaries and first-year plans for new Walnut Ridge Junior-Senior High School, 4841 E. Livingston-av, were announced this week by C. L. Dumaree, assistant superintendent of administration of Columbus Schools.

The academic wing of Walnut Ridge is scheduled for completion in time for September enrollment. The auditorium and gymnasium are planned for occupancy by the close of the first semester of the 1961-62 school year.

Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School will have some immediate relief by the transfer of students in the Shady Lane, Thunderbird Acres, Leawood Gardens and Willis Park additions to the new building.

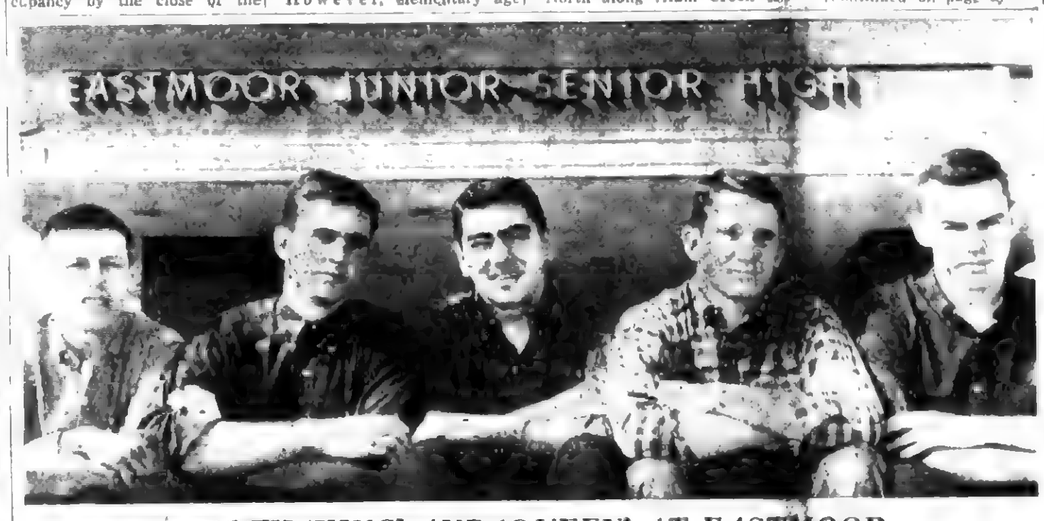
However, elementary age youngsters now living in Eastmoor's remaining district, are expected to swell the school's enrollment within a few years.

Walnut Ridge district will begin at the intersection of Big Walnut Creek and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, extend east along the Baltimore and Ohio to Columbus-Jefferson Local School district boundary line, then east, south and west along the line to Alum Creek.



North along Alum Creek to a point 100 feet north of the western extension of Petzinger-rd. east to the New York Central Railroad, northeast to the New York Central spur.

Northeast to Columbus Whitehall Schools' district boundary line and east and north along the line to point of origin.

First-Year Plan

Dumaree said that Walnut Ridge will be organized only for students in grades seven

BOTH 'KING' AND 'QUEEN' AT EASTMOOR

'Wee Hours' Parking Ban Spurs Turnout Of 100 From Bexley

Spokesmen Critical Of Law, Offer Constructive Solution

By John Poeppelmeyer

For the second time in a decade, and within four months Bexley council opened the doors of its public hearing room Tuesday night when a throng of more than 100 residents appeared to protest the recent passage of an all-night parking ban.

That the majority were in favor of rescinding the order was evident by the resounding applause that filled the chamber as one after another, opponents to the law stood to be heard on the issue.

One man simply commented "Amen," as his contribution backing up a number of previous speakers. Another noted that between the hours of 2 and 6 a.m., when the ordinance is effective, people "should be home in bed and there is no need for parking." Both were enthusiastically accorded applause from 100 pairs of hands.

The ordinance, passed a fortnight ago, does not become effective until Mar. 14. Legislators, as Council President Charles H. Kurtz, Jr., noted, deliberately planned it thus so as to hear any reaction. "We did," Kurtz added.

The law is fashioned after a similar one in Oshkosh, Wis., and was drafted by Solicitor Howard Park in answer to a recurrent number of complaints concerning all-night parking in the vicinity of Capital University. Park also showed newsmen a paragraph from a national publication mentioning that Milwaukee lawmakers forbade all-night parking without a $4 permit.

The Bexley ordinance also contains a clause providing an "out" to hardship cases who may purchase a $4 permit to be pasted onto automobile windshields. The $4 fee, Kurtz told the assembled group, was not because Bexley was in dire financial shape, but to serve rather as a "deterrant."

The main argument against the "Oshkosh" type ban came from spokesman William Born of 2773 Bellwood-av. He protested along the lines that "one isolated problem in the area of Capital University" should not be used to penalize the entire city. "We would like," he stated, "to work out with council an equitable solution for all parties."

He said that moving cars off streets and into darkened alleys would tempt thieves and molesters. He cited statements in the ordinance that, to him, were contradictory in nature. "The ordinance indicates that we have a problem. But for a $4 fee we have no problem."

But Born came not only to criticize but also to lend some constructive solutions to the problem.

He said: "Our streets were laid out years ago without the anticipation of the traffic situation we have today. We could alleviate the problem with the aid of one-way streets, by parking only along one side in the troubled area, and with the help of a sorely-needed 24-hour parking ordinance."

Most of the residents who arose to be heard were from

Suburbia Today Winners

A pair of Eastern Review readers entered a contest for "People Who Never Enter Contests," and came out winners.

This unique type of contest appeared recently in "Suburbia Today," a monthly complement to subscribers of the Eastern Review.

Winners are Richard Packard, of 4438 Allen-dr, and Ray Fenstemaker, of 4079 Mayflower-blvd. Packard's prize was an In-Sink-Erator "Gold Comet" disposer. Fenstemaker won a Voit tetherball and pole kit.

The judges, the "Suburbia Today" officials reported, were buried in a "blizzard of thousands and thousands of entries."

The Studebaker Lark station wagon was awarded to Mrs. A. L. Martin, of Wayland, Mass.

Winners of the washer-dryer combinations were Emily Ann Walton, of Clarendon Hills, Ill., and Mrs. Mignon Villency, of Great Neck, N. Y.

Winners of the Duo pianos were Betty Bottomley, of Kansas City, Mo., and Earle C. Lackey, of Birmingham, Ala.

In all, some 295 additional winners were notified of their good luck.

Whitehall Youth Recovering After Near Drowning Sunday

Three days after a narrow escape from death, two-year-old Perry Westhaus was listed in good condition Wednesday at Children's Hospital.

Perry, who lives at 4049 Beechbank-rd, was pulled from a rain-deepened creek Sunday morning when his father, Harry Westhaus, found him floating on his back in 3½-foot-deep water.

Using mouth-to-mouth respiration, Westhaus breathed life preserving air into his son's chest while carrying him back home.

The father's suspicion that something was amiss came after another son, Randy, walked into the house saying it was too cold outside.

When he saw that younger Perry wasn't tagging along behind him, Westhaus took off toward his back yard, to the 20-ft. wide creek located about 50-ft. behind the house.

Plunging into the swollen stream, he grabbed his flailing son and pulled him toward the high bank. A neighbor suggested the mouth - to - mouth breathing which Westhaus used while carrying Perry into the house.

Westhaus' wife, Carol, stripped the youngster of his drenched cold clothes and wrapped him in a blanket. He was beginning to recover as Whitehall emergency squadmen arrived.

The father surmised, after being told by the youngster that had "fell into the creek," that his son had slipped while throwing stones or sticks into the stream.

The incident occurred while the family was preparing to attend the 11 a.m. mass at Holy Spirit Church.

An inspector for the Ohio Inspection Bureau, Whithaus and his wife are the parents of three children. The other is a three-year-old girl, Rita.

The family had moved to Whitehall from upper New York State last year.

Popular Ham Contest Will Be Repeated!

Any way you slice it, a FREE Easter ham would be a mighty welcome gift, wouldn't it?

Every Hartley Newspaper reader will have a chance to win one of J. Fred Schmidt's Montrose Brand Tenderized Hams the week before Easter.

Last year 177 families licked their chops over their good luck as they lugged home free hams. No purchase is necessary — everyone over 16 is eligible to enter the Hartley Newspapers Ham Contest.

Watch for complete details and a list of cooperating merchants in a large announcement ad in this newspaper next week.

Jewish Center Teens Plan For Stunt Night

Stunt Night is the biggest teenage event in the community. This year, Stunt Night is to be held on April 15. Traditionally, Stunt Night has been written, directed, produced, staged, costumed, and put on by the teeners themselves.

This year, it was decided that this tradition will become a formal event. The clubs in TAC decided that no adult assistance of any kind will be permitted. This will be a Teen Age Spectacular.

Contrary to past years, there will be two awards this year. Drama will be the main event, with comedy holding the other award. These skits are written by the club members themselves.

On Jan. 26, there was a meeting of all the club chairmen. At that session, judges were chosen. March 15 was established as the deadline for the skits to be turned in.

An open house is scheduled after the skits.

Camp Livingston, near Cincinnati, will be the site of an inter-city weekend. The exact date has not as yet been established, but it will be in the beginning of May. TAC will send 25 representatives to this session. They will be chosen by the TAC Executive Board.

Other cities participating will be Cincinnati and Louisville.

Baptists To Dedicate New Church

Inaugural services, dedication and cornerstone laying for the new Whitehall Baptist Church, 392 Maplewood-av will be held Sunday, Mar. 5.

Rev. J. Willard Jarvis, pastor of the church, will deliver the dedication day message at the 11 a.m. service.

Rev. Hoge Hockensmith, president of the State Convention of Baptists of Ohio, and pastor of the Tri-Village Baptist Church, will be principal speaker at the dedicatory services at 3 p.m.

Completion of the last unit completes a building program started in August, 1953.

The present building in conjunction with the first unit of the program, completed in 1958, will provide facilities for 500 people at worship and 500 in Sunday School.

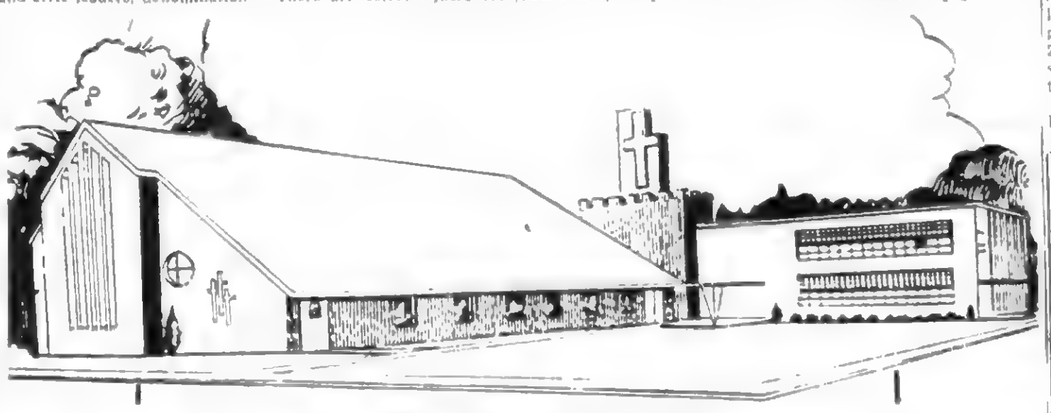
Dedication day services will begin at 11 a.m. Sunday. Rev. J. Willard Jarvis will give the dedicatory message.

The church choir under the direction of Miss Ann Cottingim will sing "Hallelujah For The Cross." Mrs. Jarvis will be the organist.

At 3 p.m., G. L. Lowery, chairman of the building committee, will lay the cornerstone and Rev. Hockensmith will be the principal speaker.

An open-house will follow this program and refreshments will be provided. Community and civic leaders, denominational leaders and pastors of other churches have been invited.

Holy Communion and baptism will be celebrated at the 7:30 p.m. service.



The total cost of the new building was $88,000. Architect was William Juhn of Waverly.

There are 10,000 square feet of floor space in the new building.

Two beginner departments, three primary departments, an intermediate assembly room with four adjacent class rooms, five adult class rooms, vestibule, suite of offices, and an auditorium, complete with new pews and pulpit furniture, controlled lighting and air conditioning are located in the new building.

Plans for the new church began in August of 1953 when, at the close of a revival meeting conducted under a tent located

AREA FOLKS TO BENEFIT

'New Columbus Park Site Is Now Under Option' Says Dietz

By MARCUS ORR

A scenic spot along Clim-rd, endowed with some of the stuff that poems are made of, has been singled out for a major park development by the city of Columbus

Ray S. Dietz, superintendent of parks and forestry, revealed to the Hartley Newspapers today that he has signed an option on 100 acres, destined as a park for south and west area residents

The land, now owned by the Marian Foundation, lies to the south of an S-curve between Georgesville and Demorest-rds

The site is enhanced by a partly-wooded ravine formed by Big Run Creek and one of its tributaries. To the south lies an open field

Anticipating growth to the southwest, the city ten years ago programmed a park for the vicinity. In recent years, Georgian Heights, Neff Addition, and Holly Hill subdivision have reached to the north side of Clime-rd.

Dietz said the Clime-rd park acquisition will be the first purchase in his department authorized by the Capital Improvements Bond issue approved by voters last fall. He said funds will be released Apr 4. Deadline on the option is Apr. 16

City Parks Commission was to view the area Wednesday afternoon, following a luncheon at Nationwide Inn. The commision some time ago authorized a realty committe to pinpoint the site.

Enthusiastic over the development, Dietz said, "eventually, this place could easily become our most scenic city park." It has the right balance of rolling terrain, streams, and places suitable for picnickers and their cars."

"For 10 years we have hoped to locate a park suitable for future generations to enjoy. It's too bad we couldn't buy it sooner."

Need for the development was brought out in the extensive Bartholomew Report on Schools, Parks and Recreation in 1954

Just Beyond City Limits

The area under option begins about one quarter of a mile east of Georgesville-rd and fronts for more than 1,000 feet on Clime-rd, ending near the terminus of Savannah-dr It is just outside the city limits Three old barns, now leased by a contractor, are the only buildings on the property. Access from Clime-rd already is provided near the barns

The terrain would lend itself to scenic driveways and paths, especially if more of the ravine to the east were purchased. City Arborist William Walton pointed out that the site is blessed with a variety of mature trees, providing good shade

No Immediate Development

The officials indicated that the park will not be opened to the public this year because improvement funds are not immediately available They pointed out however, that the spot is intended for passive recreation, not requiring major construction

The addition of open shelters toilets, and fireplaces would open the way for picnickers and day campers The field at the rear has many potentialities, Dietz said, mentioning ball diamonds, swings, new trees and more parking.

In the next few weeks the parks commission will forward its recommendation of the purchase in ordinance form for city council action.

PINPOINTED LOCATION of the proposed Clime Road Park is indicated on this map. Area to the north of the dotted line is Georgian Heights, a Columbus subdivision.

Tweens Election Slated In March

Friendly foes Mark Boster and Dianne Harnett will hit the electioneering trail between now and tween general election time, Mar. 5, for the presidency of the Tween Council of the Columbus Jewish Center.

Other candidates nominated for office by the Tween Council representatives were Kathie Sowalsky and Kim Barkin for vice-president; Mark Gorchoff and Barbara Gingold for secretary; and Debbie Greene and Ken Watman for treasurer. BUT NOBODY IMITATES THE Permaglas GUARANTEE!

There's a big difference in water heaters . . . in heating capacity, in operating economy, and especially in years of service. That's why wise homeowners insist on Permaglas . . . guaranteed for its full value, not merely "pro-rated" according to the number of years in use.

through 11 during the 1961-62 school year. First class will be graduated in June, 1963.

The student body this September will be determined as follows:

- All students in grade seven through 10 as of September, 1961, residing in the attendance area, must attend the new school.
- All 11th grade students as of September, 1961, may attend either Walnut Ridge or Eastmoor.
- All 12th grade students as of September, 1961, residing in Walnut Ridge attendance area, must attend Eastmoor Junior-Senior High School.

Students Select Subjects

Subjects offered at Walnut Ridge, in addition to those required, will be determined by the students.

Dumaree explained that whenever a sufficient number of students select a seventh, eighth, ninth, 10th or 11th grade course, that subject will be offered.

Dumaree met with students who will be attending Walnut Ridge Wednesday, outlining the selection plan. Pupils were given forms to take home and complete with their parents.

These forms must be returned to their respective schools Monday, Mar. 6.

Development of an outstanding activity program is planned for the coming school year. Performance groups in instrumental music, vocal music, dramatics and athletics will be organized.

A full activity program including inter-scholastic basketball, football and other sports, is scheduled for the 1962-63 school year. Teams organized this coming year will not participate in league play.

the north end of Bexley where numerous multiple dwelling units without garages exist.

Kurtz assured the group that council would take the arguments into consideration and would announce its decision soon.

As the people filed out, council swung into lawmaking action by:

Okaying a $13,000 appropriation from the street fund for maintenance of streets;

Approving six holidays for hourly-paid city employes (New Year's, July 4, Memorial Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas);

Increasing the salary of Health Commisisoner Don Alspaugh from $110 to $200 per month;

Authorizing commercial zoning for a 15-foot strip at College and Livingston-avs;

Noting that sidewalks were badly in need of repair along some 25 properties on E. Main-st.

New Church

at Weyant and E. Broad-st, 19 persons indicated that they wished to become part of a new Baptist Church in East Columbus.

The group, with the help of the State Convention, purchased the Faith Lutheran Church building on Maplewood-av, and began regular services on Sunday afternoons and evenings.

The new congregation called Rev. J. Willard Jarvis, a native of Hamilton and a member of the team of summer workers who had conducted the revival, to be their pastor.

Rev. Jarvis was educated in public schools of Hamilton, is a graduate of Georgetown College and was a student at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary when called to pastor the Whitehall Church.

He has served as first and only pastor of the church.

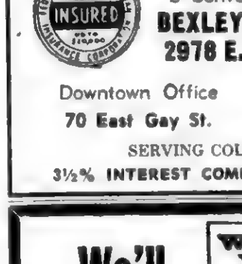
On Oct. 1, 1953, the church was constituted with 26 members, becoming the first Baptist Church affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention in the greater Columbus area.

The Whitehall Church has sponsored eight missions — Westgate Baptist Church, Tri-Village Baptist Church, North Linden Baptist Church, Newark Baptist Church, Fairwood Baptist Church, Reynoldsburg Baptist Church, Walnut Heights Chapel and Mock Road Chapel.

Five of these missions have now been constituted churches. The Whitehall Church and the churches and chapels sponsored by it had a combined membership of 1425 in 1960.

In addition to its efforts at local missions, the church has given a total of $18,125 to state, association, home and foreign missions during the last seven years.

The church began in a frame building with a cement clock education building located on the lot purchased from Faith Lutheran Church.



First step in the building program was the purchase of a building site 100 by 150 feet adjacent to church property for $3,000.

Next a two-story house with full basement and two-car garage was purchased. The house was used as a parsonage and additional education space for a growing Sunday School was provided there.

The first unit of the permanent building was dedicated in 1958.

It is a two-floor red brick building providing space for nursery, beginner, primary departments, church office, pastor's study and a temporary auditorium seating 250.

Charm Chats

Little Girls' Styling

Mothers have been known to go awry on little girls' coiffures, adopting swirls and curls that are definitely grownup styles.

There are simple yet charming arrangements that can give your child distinction. We realize fully that the subteener has now become as hair and coiffure conscious as big sister and mother. However, in nine cases out of ten, a simple style is most appealing.

Speaking of Beauty

VIC PAUL

TIME FOR A NEW HAIRSTYLE!
What can a new hairstyle do for you? Just about everything! It can raise a low forehead . . . lengthen a round face . . . soften a square jaw . . . widen a narrow face . . . in fact, a new hairstyle corrects most of nature's errors? At first glance, it may seem like a carefree hair-do but, behind this casual look an artist's fingers carved beauty. Carefully and artfully shaping each hair strand for the final effect. That's why our exclusive sculptured hairstyling is a creative art in every sense of the word!

PSYCHOLOGISTS REPORT!
Your hair-do is just as important to you as the food you eat. As a matter of fact, your hair and its style tell the world the kind of person you are! Leading psychologists claim that a woman's appearance is the key to her inner security or her problems. They also report that the condition of her hair not only indicates her general physical health but her emotional health as well. That's why smart women keep their weekly appointment in our salon.

THE BIG DEAL
The big deal in any coiffure's life is its permanent wave! A permanent changes the structure of your hair shafts by rearranging the hair cells within the shaft. Sounds technical? Well it is! And, it's a pretty tricky business . . . that's the best reason for allowing only a professionally trained pair of hands to do this rearranging for you!

FROM UNDER THE DRYER:
You can't prevent the birds of sorrow from flying overhead, but you can prevent them from nesting in your hair!

IDLE HOUR GUIDE . . .

OSU Basketball In Color; Major Changes At WMNI

By Stan Robinson

WLW-C will make one of its most important contributions to local television when on Saturday night, it telecasts the Ohio State-Michigan State basketball game in COLOR.

Walter E. Bartlett, general manager of WLW-C, said the telecast will mark a series of "firsts." It will be the first local origination of color on a commercial basis, first remote telecast in color, locally, and first Big Ten basketball teams to be telecast in color. Be near a color set on Mar. 4 at 8:30, for the Buckeyes in color from St. John Arena, along with Jimmy Crum and Clark Smith, Channel 4's colorful sports team.

Robinson

WMNI Program Director Bill Robinson indicates that the station soon will announce several major changes. There is to be a revision in music policy, leaning to the "soothing side," and several new voices for the staff. Present ABC news coverage will be maintained but other shows, some quite familiar, may be replaced on "Mighty 92".

"MARINELAND CIRCUS" an aquatic spectacle, will star Lloyd Bridges and Buster Crabbe on an Easter Sunday color special on NBC-TV at 8 p.m., April 2. Bridges, famous skin diver (Channel 4, Monday, "Sea Hunt") will be seen in a huge exhibition tank, maneuvering among tiger sharks, swordfish, sea turtles and barracudas. Crabbe, the former Olympic swim champ, will give a show in the pool and be in a water ballet with aquamaids. Several highly-trained porpoises will demonstrate their athletic prowess in a third pool from this Florida tourist site.

Channel 6 News Director Joe Harper has started a 20-minute informal interview program entitled "Viewpoint"—features discussions with local and national dignitaries. Regulars in addition to Harper are Governor DiSalle and Doctor Leake, chairman of the board of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. This show is arranged to look at the Governor's weekly work rather than as a politician and Dr. Leake reports on weekly scientific progress. "Viewpoint" is seen Sunday afternoons at 3:30.

On Sunday, Channel 10 — CBS Sunday Sports spectacular presents "Army-Navy Weekend," a visit to West Point, New York and Annapolis, during the annual winter sports competition between the two service schools. This is a regular Sunday WBNS-TV feature from CBS at 2:30 p.m.

Shirley Temple will bring to life a beloved Hans Christian Andersen fairy - tale heroine when she stars Sunday at 7 p.m. in "The Little Mermaid," on Channel 4 and NBC. This is the poignant children's classic about a mermaid who yearns to become human for the love of a prince. Donald Harron is the prince.

FIGHT OF THE WEEK: Saturday at 10 p.m. will see Gene Fullmer, world middleweight champion, take on Sugar Ray Robinson for the fourth time. This boxing bout is on channel 6.

The expanded WBNS-TV public affairs programming moves into spring with telementaries ranging from Broadway to poliwogs. On Mar. 9, "Columbus to Broadway," it's a film visit with various Ohioans who have found fame and fortune in New York. Joe Holbrook and Chet Long chat with Pat Wilson, Eileen Hekart and Columnist Earl Wilson. "Polliwogs to Whales" will mark the beginning of the swimming season June 1 with a fantasy about an angel and the Red Cross learn-to-swim program . . . 10:30 to 11 p.m. will be the time slot.

Arthur Godfrey made it known this past week that he would quit as host of the "Candid Camera" show on Sunday nights, which is now considered one of the network's top-rated programs. Godfrey said, "I want to be free to do my own programs and am studying several projects." He is scheduled for CBS specials Apr. 20 and May 19. Godfrey has been embroiled recently with Allen Funt, creator of the program in a series of disputes, but little emphasis has been placed on this factor as to Godfrey's decision in the whole matter.

FUTURE POSSIBILITIES: The popular "Sing Along With Mitch" series on NBC and Channel 4, may be that network's competition for "The Untouchables" next fall . . . Shows currently not making it in the rating battle include "Hong Kong," "Gunslinger" and "Peter Loves Mary." "Person to Person" with Charles Cillingwood as host may turn up as a Friday night summer show with all new taped interviews.

Patricia Neal and Lynn Loring will star in "Mother and Daughter," a dramatic documentary about the problems of parents coping with adolescent children Thursday, Mar. 9. It is the NBC "Purex Special For Women" which will be seen locally on Channel 4 from 4 to 5 p.m.

Good Skate

When the service station where Lou Russo worked ended with ice following a storm, Charlotte, N.C., became coat-he strapped skates to his feet and ice skated back and forth from his duties. "I had to do something," said Russo. "My feet kept getting wet."

Sherwood-rd Man Almost Tossed Away Spectacular Brook Trout

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

A record brook trout that has gained international attention was almost thrown back by ardent angler Walter R. Souder, 2667 Sherwood-rd.

Souder was fishing God's River in Manitoba last June and explains it this way: "We were trying for really large lake trout and were taking some up to 17 pounds, and when I netted the six and one half-pound brookie it didn't seem like much of a fish. Just as I unhooked him and was about to slip the fish into the water the guide yelled, 'Don't throw him back — I haven't seen one as large for about seven years'."

Because of the alert guide, Souder now has a Certificate of Award from Field and Stream magazine and two handsome medals commemorating the trophy catch. The trout has been mounted and holds top priority in Souders fishing and hunting experiences, which span many years.

In addition to the Field and Stream certificate and medal, the Province of Manitoba awarded Souder its Master Angler Award for catching the largest brook trout in the province last year.

"The trip to God's Lake and God's River would have been a success," Souder says, "even if the big trout hadn't been caught. This area offers the best fresh-water fishing I've ever had. Something is always hitting, if not brook and lake trout then huge northern pike."

Walter Souder should know whereof he speaks, for his trips into the north country have been many and varied. He has been to God's Lake twice, and no doubt will return again. There is still ice floating around up there in June, but the fishing is hot.

Casting or spinning is the order of the day in June. Trolling for the giant lakers comes later, but to Walter Souder and many other anglers this is rather dull sport. By casting artificial lures early in the season, you get rapid-fire action along with aerial jumps and other water sloshing tactics. Your nerovus system really doesn't get much rest, Souder reports.

The fish do not seem to be sophisticated, and a great variety of lures is not needed. Doll flies, weighted jig-type lures, were used mostly for the trout. Black seemed to be the best producer. The northern pike were taken on large spoons.

Dr. John Schott, 1371 Haddon-rd, accompanied Souder last June and participated in the fishing whing-ding.

One of the things most enjoyable about Souder's fishing, is that he brings back movies about his exploits. His films on God's Lake will make any angler's mouth water, as you can well imagine. But after you see this spectacular footage, he can also show you a reel just as eye-popping taken just last month on the blue waters off Mazatalan, Mexico. The target in this exotic spot was striped marlin.

Robert Slatzer, 4800 Sawmill-rd, was the fishing partner on this jaunt, and in Mazatalan they met George Stuart, 746 Bevis-rd.

While the scenery, climate and angling obviously were superb down in the bull-fight country, you sort of get the impression that master fisherman Souder's thought keep returning to the cool, clear white-water of God's River where the trout are fat and willing to strike. And I don't blame him.

FISH STORY—Walter R. Souder traveled to central Manitoba, about 1,500 miles, to try for a trophy lake trout, and came back with a record brook trout. Such are the "trials" of a fisherman.

Maybe there is a little compensation in the thought contained in the bit of verse we have clipped from a Nebraska paper, as follows:

An editor knocked at the Pearly Gates,
His face was scarred and cold;
He stood before the man of fate
For admission to the fold.

"What have you done," St.
Peter asked,
"To gain admission here?"
"I've been an editor, sir," he said,
"For many and many a year."

"The pearly gates swung open wide,
St. Peter touched the bell,
"Come in," he said, and choose your harp,
You've had your share of hell."

Whitehall Weighs Advisory Study Of Impending Gas Rate Increase

Penny And A Half Hike Sought In August

Like most everything else, the price of gas is on the increase. And like a number of other towns, Whitehall will soon start a search for a competent gas rate advisor.

When an Ohio Fuel Gas Company representative appeared in council chambers this week to report that it will be necessary to raise the price of gas to consumers a penny and a half, council neatly sidestepped a request to give the ordinance a first reading by referring the measure to committee for further study.

Mayor Walter Moling pointed out that the gas company's contract with the city expires in August.

Immediately afterward, council introduced a piece of legislation of its own to allow Solicitor James Maxwell to negotiate for the services of a gas rate expert.

The ordinance, in no uncertain terms, states that "council is not sufficiently advised as to the right of the gas company to a rate increase nor is council sufficiently advised as to the fairness of the present gas rates."

Ohio Fuel Gas Company spokesman Richard C. Harder noted that at the present Whitehall is being charged $2.55 for the first 1,000 cubic feet with a charge of 65½ cents per following thousand cubic feet.

His company is requesting a 1½ cent rate per thousand for two years, to be followed by another 1½ cent boost with the $2.55 rate staying the same.

In comparison, Harder explained that the Columbus rate starts at $1.40 per thousand cubic feet.

The oft-put-off bill calling for licensing of door-to-door salesmen came in for another delay when council tabled the matter for 60 days to "clear up a few points."

Council President Walter Siemer urged the legislators to "have something" by then as the "summer and salesmen season" is fast approaching.

Maxwell, in turn, reminded council that Whitehall was a "wide-open" city as far as solicitations were concerned since there are no laws regulating salesmen.

In all, however, the Whitehall solons moved along at a brisk pace, triggered by the fact that two were absent, making it legally impossible for any emergency legislation to be passed.

The ambitious project of connecting Maplewood-av to Napoleon-av in Columbus via a side street did get endorsed, however. Streets under consideration for the project are either Elbern, Washburn, Doney or Etna.

Also passed were measures providing sick leave compensation for police and firefighters and a bill setting salaries for members of the civil service commission.

Mayor Moling's 24-acre municipal park project successfully passed a first reading, then was forwarded to committees for further study.

Also coming in for a first reading was a measure for improvements along Shady Lane-rd.

Bexley Celebrations Association Already In A July 4th Mood

It is already July 4th in the minds of officials of the Bexley Celebrations Association.

At least, Howard Mauger, president of the association, reports that plans are already in the making for the annual summer event in Bexley.

At the present time Mauger is interested in having all groups and organizations in Bexley entering a float or some other entry, "even if it is nothing more than a decorated convertible."

Mauger suggests that individuals get together with neighbors and plan a neighborhood entry.

Theme of this year"s parade will be "Democracy in Action." Trophies for the best entries will be awarded to be kept for one year by the winning group.

A First Federal Savings and Loan trophy will be presented to the best organizational entry. A Dollar Federal Savings and Loan trophy will go to the best neighborhood entry. Bexley Lions Club awards a trophy to the best youth group entry.

"Last year's parade was a very successful event," Mauger stated," and we expect an even better one this year."

The Bexley Celebrations Association is made of Bexley social and civic clubs cooperating in the promotion of holiday celebrations. According to James Henley, association financial chairman, the BCA is planning to enlarge the program it has been developing during the past ten years.

The group meets at Jeffrey Mansion the first Thursday of each month at 8 p.m.

To prove that the group is already thinking about the July 4th observance, the parade route has been outlined.

It will start at the Maryland Avenue School at 9:30 a.m., proceed east on Maryland to Roose-

It Is Nice To Be Wanted

On a recent Kiwanis trip one of the men related a most pleasant experience.

He had lived some eight months in a community made up largely of Amish folks. In this time they had stayed to themselves and the new family had made but few acquaintances. This was a strange feeling

But one evening recently came a knock at the front door and here were some 20 or more of the Amish neighbors calling on the family to let them know they were welcome to the community. They brought home made ice cream and cookies and a very fine pleasant evening followed.

"It is great to know you are wanted," commented Max Hiler, of the welcomed new family.

'Digital Linguists' At St. Mary Prepare For Teaching Of Deaf

By John Poeppelmeyer

Know the best way to stop an argument?

Just close your eyes.

At least that is what students of St. Mary's College of the Spring have found to be true as they pursue the subject of sign language.

The reason for the course, offered after school hours once a week by Father Bernard McClary, is so that some of the interested young ladies will have at their command the necessary tools to instruct the deaf.

Father McClary, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Victory, has taught the deaf and is successfully imparting his knowledge to his pupils.

An interesting, and significant fact was brought out by the priest: dialectic differences occur to the language of the signs in different parts of the country.

For instance, evening in the northern part of the country usually refers to that time when the sun dips below the horizon, while in the south, evening is usually any time after the noon hour.

"It is much the same way in sign language," Father McClary reports. But in spite of the varied local differences, there are certain generally accepted signs that would be basic over the entire country.

Father McClary says that it would be "my guess that most of the deaf are not too well educated in the deaf schools." They are pretty much on their own when it comes to communicating, he feels.

DOZEN FAIR WINNERS NAMED

Johnson Park School Has Sundry Scientific Items In Showcase

Science students at Johnson Park Junior High School have done more than take "a leg from some old table and an arm from some old chair." They've distributed parts of the human body, in a neat array, in a science showcase that will remain for viewing for approximately a month.

Other items than those dealing with humans are also on display to signify the type of equipment available in the classroom for scientific education, summed up teacher James Altman.

"The public, I believe, has a right to know how their money is being spent in the field of science in the schools. This is our way of showing them at their own convenience."

Included in the display are such items as flasks, astronomy globes, bioscopes, tuning forks, anything for that matter that the school uses in its program to impart scientific knowledge to erstwhile youngsters.

In fact, just last weekend a science fair took place at the school under the judging of university instructors.

The Johnson Park Fair is a prelude to the Central District Science Fair at Ohio State University Apr. 15.

Thus far, Altman commented, Johnson Park has 12 possible contestants, depending upon the final qualifications for entrants.

Possible candidates and projects:

Joseph Varrina and Michael Bulger, 8th grade, human eye;

Anita Zeno, 9th grade, demonstration of flight;

Jeff Herman, 9th grade, the making of oxygen;

Judy Peer, 9th grade, poisons and

Kennedy's Bill Would Cut Aid In Half

Bexley, Whitehall Schoolmen Show Concern Over Fund Slice

A portion of President Kennedy's proposed Federal Aid to Education bill has brought the national scene closer to the home frontier.

Bexley and Whitehall school administrators have expressed concern over President Kennedy's federal aid to education bill calling for a reduction of 50 per cent in aid to impacted school areas.

Impacted school districts are those receiving federal payments for youngsters whose parents work at government facilities or are engaged in government contract work.

Bexley Superintendent Emerson Jarvis said that if approved, half of the $23,000 now being provided for some 190 pupils in the district would be lopped off.

Jarvis said that a number of parents in the Bexley area work at North American Aviation where government contract work is done.

Whitehall's Robert Crabbs said that he is "violently opposed" to the measure, adding that he has already written to Senators Young and Lausche and to Congressman Devine on the matter.

Crabbs stated that the reduction part of the federal aid to school bill should not be condoned.

At present, Whitehall schools come in for a total of $100,000 for approximately 1200 pupils whose parents work at the Columbus General Depot, North American Aviation and Lockbourne Air Force Base. If approved, Whitehall would receive in the neighborhood of $50,000 less.

Both superintendents pointed out that any cut would mean a reduction in operating monies.

Jarvis said that he was "not too worried yet," but admitted that it would mean that more taxes would have

RED CROSS SERVICES HERE NOTABLE

It's a tradition—"March is Red Cross Month." A time for reviewing the services rendered by the American Red Cross.

In the past year, the 44th for the Franklin County Chapter of American Red Cross, accomplishments were many as reported by Chapter Chairman William A. Scheurer. "Nearly 7,000 people came to the Red Cross asking for assistance, and it was given to them. More than 15,000 received blood in Franklin County Hospitals, and nearly 25,000 received free Red Cross instruction in one or more of our educational programs. These recipients represent nearly one-third of the families in our Columbus metropolitan area."

Specifically, the report outlined the activities of the seven services provided by the local chapter as follows:

Home Service assisted 4,308 families and individuals of the armed forces or veterans. Most of this assistance was financial, much of which being outright gifts.

The Columbus Regional Blood Program collected a total of 55,276 pints of blood. Residents of Franklin County donated 18,000 pints, yet they have used 23,000.

Volunteer Services had 483 faithful volunteers who gave a total of 57,069 hours of their time.

Safety Services provided training for 16,978 persons. Of this number 4,062 were in first aid, 158 in small craft safety, 12,758 in water safety.

Nursing Services gave 115 classes in "Care of the Sick and Injured" and "Mother and Baby Care" to 1,597 people.

Junior Red Cross provided programs of leadership for all students of elementary, junior high and senior high levels.

Disaster service was only involved in one-family disaster, as fortunately there were no major disasters here.

These figures are significant, but it is the thousands who give their support to Red Cross through United Appeal that makes this work possible.

REPUBLICAN WAR VETS MEET

New Fish Regulations Effective

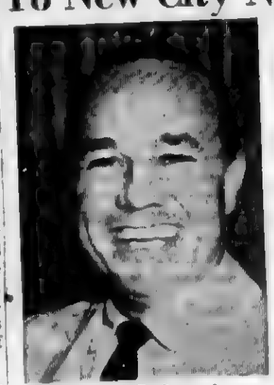
Buckeye fishermen who take advantage of the new opportunities offered during the coming year could be busier than a one-legged heron, according to Eldon Sturgeon, Wildlife District 6 law enforcement supervisor.

Each angler could, by adhering to the 1961 regulations, legally use up to 118 hooks in one stream and at the some time. This new order became effective Mar. 1.

A stream fisherman can have a 50-hook trotline or he may have several small trotlines as long as the total number of hooks do not exceed 50. He can also have 50 drop or bush lines and he can have 12 float lines as long as they are under his immediate control. All of these lines must be tagged with the name and address of the owner on waterproof tags.

"If he still has time to spare, he may operate two rods and reels, each of which may have not more than three hooks," Sturgeon commented. "This will give him a total of 118 hooks set for fish or turtles, enough to keep any man busy."

Turtle trap regulations have changed, too. A trap may be made of smaller mesh than the four-inch minimum size previously in force, if it has an eight-inch escape ring.



In addition to the foregoing liberalization, an mentioned liberalization, an angler may operate a 50-hook trotline in as many different waters where trotlining is legal as he can find time to tend. It will also be legal now to put float lines in lakes where motors are not legal.

Glick's 19% Bonus Event Should Be Best Ever

"Glick's original 19 per cent Bonus Events, which began on Monday, will offer the consumer greater values and more selections than ever before", said Robert A. Glick, president of the Glick Furniture Company.

This event, originally conceived by Glick's in 1926, marks the 54th anniversary of Central Ohio's largest furniture company. Buyers in all departments have scoured the factories of America for this event.

Purchases were made months ago to assure our many customers of the finest values anywhere. More than 150 associates have been trained to give the public the finest service possible.

"We know, without a doubt," assured Mr. Glick, "that our original 19 per cent Bonus Event is the customer's best buying opportunity of the year and its tremendous success year after year for 35 years is attested to by the consumers of Central Ohio, who regularly throng to Columbus for this event."

"We offer our customers a 19 per cent Bonus in additional free furnishings of their selections. Prices in all of our five stores are the same low prices as last month and the many months before."

Glicks Town and Country offers a complete selection of furniture, gifts and accessories, carpeting, draperies and appliances. Styles featured are Early American, Danish, French and Italian Provincial, Traditional, Contemporary and Casaul Modern.

Terms are tailored to customer's needs, with up to three years to pay. And any Columbus 30 day charge plate is good at Glick's, as well as 90 day plan without service charge.

New at Glick's is the Gallery of Gifts and accessories for the home. Here shoppers will find decorative accents that add depth and dimension . . . new brasses from the Orient, porcelains from France, glass from Italy and hand-crafted Colonial reproductions from New England add brilliant distinction to any room.

Shoppers at Glicks may take advantage of free interior decorating service to assist them in any decorating problems, large or small, with no obligation.

Another special service offered is free storage until needed, in the new general warehouse at 1800 E. Fifth-av.

Parking is no problem at any of the Glick stores. Downtown shoppers can park free for one hour, at the parking lot between the two downtown stores, and visitors to Town and Country will always find ample free parking. Purchases are delivered free in Ohio.

Glick's was selected America's Brand Name Retailer of the Year in the furniture store category, and winner of the Carpet Institute Award as outstanding carpet retailer of 1960.

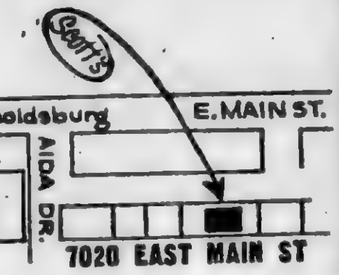
Calvary Play Due Friday At Capital

Calvary, as seen through the eyes of the "rabble" instead of the "heights," will be depicted by the Capital University dramatics department in its annual Lenten play, "Barabbas," Friday and Saturday, Mar. 10 and 11.

Allene D. Montgomery, director of dramatics, had to get permission from London, England, to present Michel De Ghelderode's passion play. There is no agency in the United States privileged to produce the play. Sale rights are held by the Dr. Jan Van Loewen, Ltd., international copyright agency in London.



Christ appears in Ghelderode's play like a ghost. In contrast with the talkative Barabbas, Christ does not speak. Miss Montgomery also chose not to show the face of Christ.

Curtain time will be 8 p.m. in Mees Hall on the college campus.

We hear a lot of talk about "discounts" nowadays, but many of the "discounts" are about as vague as saying something is "bigger and better." "Bigger and better" than what? "Discounted" from what? Many of these so-called "discount" offers show a comparative "list price" or "regular price" that never saw the light of day on a retail counter and never will! The prices marked on our merchandise during this event are not "padded" prices—They're the same low, money-saving prices you'll find every day before this sale and after this sale in your Scott Store. During this Grand Opening Sale you won't pay these prices, you will be given a discount of 20c on every dollar's worth of merchandise you select.

Army Capt. Retires After 20 Years

Captain John J. Moglia, 20th U.S. Army Corps, with duty station in Columbus as an Army Reserve Adviser, was awarded the Army Commendation Medal during retirement ceremonies in the office of Colonel Edward G. Hellier, Deputy Commander, 20th Corps. He resides at 87 N. Broadleigh-rd.

A native of Hempstead, Long Island, N.Y., Captain Moglia entered the Army in 1941. A veteran of World War II as well as Korea, Captain Moglia was granted a battlefield commission in Korea in 1950 while serving with the 38th Infantry Regiment, Second Infantry Division. During World War II, he served for four years with the 16th Infantry Regiment, First Infantry Division.

In addition to the Army Commendation Medal, Captain Moglia holds the Purple Heart with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Bronze Star Medal (Meritorious), the Combat Infantryman Badge with Star, the French Croix de Guerre with Bronze Star, the French Fourragerre (Medale Militaire), and the Belgian Fourragerre.

DOLLE SET TO RETIRE IN APRIL

S. J. Dolle, 41 N. Ardmore, who has been currently working with Greenlawn Village, will retire in April after 20-years with housing in the area.

More significant, however, is the fact that Dolle will not be in office when the Greenlawn project is completed. The village will be torn down, but not until September.

A Columbus native, Dolle holds a B.S. degree from Ohio State University. He was graduated in 1912 and spent 14 months in the army.

He first became connected with government work during the depression and worked with soil conservation from 1933 to 1941.

Active with the Boy Scout program, Dolle himself holds the God and Country award which he received last year and was instrumental in bringing a Cub Pack to Greenlawn village.

He lives with his wife, Marie, at the Bexley address. They have two sons, David of Cleveland and Judson.

"I am pleased to say that the housing situation in Columbus has eased up very much," he commented.

After he retires, Dolle plans to spend much of his time as the state representative for the Mound Mid-Way Baptist Hospital in St. Paul, Minn.

During World War II, he served for four years with the 16th Infantry Regiment, First Infantry Division.

In addition to the Army Commendation Medal, Captain Moglia holds the Purple Heart with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Bronze Star Medal (Meritorious), the Combat Infantryman Badge with Star, the French Croix de Guerre with Bronze Star, the French Fourragerre (Medale Militaire), and the Belgian Fourragerre.

DOLLE SET TO RETIRE IN APRIL

S. J. Dolle, 41 N. Ardmore, who has been currently working with Greenlawn Village, will retire in April after 20-years with housing in the area.

More significant, however, is the fact that Dolle will not be in office when the Greenlawn project is completed. The village will be torn down, but not until September.

A Columbus native, Dolle holds a B.S. degree from Ohio State University. He was graduated in 1912 and spent 14 months in the army.

He first became connected with government work during the depression and worked with soil conservation from 1933 to 1941.

Active with the Boy Scout program, Dolle himself holds the God and Country award which he received last year and was instrumental in bringing a Cub Pack to Greenlawn village.

He lives with his wife, Marie, at the Bexley address. They have two sons, David of Cleveland and Judson.

"I am pleased to say that the housing situation in Columbus has eased up very much," he commented.

After he retires, Dolle plans to spend much of his time as the state representative for the Mound Mid-Way Baptist Hospital in St. Paul, Minn.

IDLE HOUR GUIDE . . .

WMNI Has New Format; Jackson, Adkins, Hill On Staff

By Stan Robinson

"We think radio must be more specialized than in the old days and still satisfy the variety of needs today's person has."

That was part of the "new WMNI story," as related this week by William R. Mnich, president and general manager of WMNI Radio, when the station's new program format was unveiled to the press. Several staff changes were made known. Bill Andrick 10-year radio veteran, mostly in West Virginia, (recently Parkersburg), will be heard during the day along with the addition of a well known and popular voice, that of Bob Adkins, formerly of WTVN.

Robinson

Every voice is to be a "production specialist" as opposed to being an "air personality"—the latter being a much over used trade phrase. There will be up to twelve minutes of uninterrupted music with time and temperature interwoven, while the "soft sell" commercials will fit right into pauses—but still with musical background.

ABC's "Breakfast Club" from Chicago and Dick VanDyck's "Flair," are both enjoying good ratings in Columbus and will be maintained by the station along with the many popular ABC news voices. Maurice Jackson and Joe Hill will emphasize their sales efforts for the station but Hill most likely will have a chance to utilize his many years in sports on the air with Sports Director Eddie Lane. WMNI has added the Jets to their schedule this year and will emphasize sports in the future. The "new sounds" commence full scale Thursday, on 920 radio.

WBNS radio announces that ninth through 12 grade students throughout Franklin County are eligible to enter "Feature-TB," a new radio feature-writing competition on tuberculosis, sponsored by WBNS and the TB Society. The 25 top TB features will be broadcast by Dean Lewis on "Almanac," Les Spencer on "Open House," and on WBNS-FM after contest judging ends on Apr. 15. All schools have been provided with the basic contest material. Contest starts Mar. 13 and an entrant writes a feature about one-and-a-half minutes long.

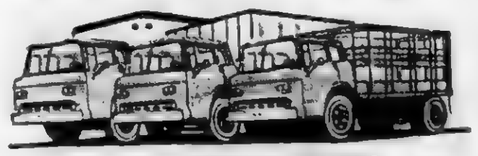
NBC-TV has designated next week, Mar. 13-17 as "Festival of Color" Week with 50 per cent of the network's daytime programs to be presented in color. Eight of the regular daytime shows on NBC, seven of which are seen on Channel 4, will be in color. "Continental Classroom," "Play Your Hunch," "The Price Is Right" and many more hours of color are in view for next week on 4.

WVKO's "Spook" Beckman is being heard at an earlier starting time as of this week on WVKO radio. "Spook" is starting daily at 7:30 and still will be on until 12 noon. We note too that WVKO sign-on time for March is 6:45 a.m.

It is interesting to note that all three local television stations have increased news coverage during the daylight hours on a regular basis. A viewer now is kept informed by choosing or watching any or all of the following capsules:

The ABC-Channel 6 Mid-Day report, 1:25, WBNS-TV has Bill Pepper at 1:25 and ther's a summary at 1:55 with personable Chuck Nuzum reporting. Channel 4 presents the NBC Day Report with White House Correspondent Ray Scherer in the 2:25 time slot. Weather is not overlooked with Tony Sands appearing on WLW-C's Ruth Lyon's 50-50 Club, trading quips and checking the "lows and highs." At 12:10 daily, Wayne Byers has a complete weather summary on Channel 10.

More than 400,000 U. S. high school students will have scripts with which to follow the NBC-TV broadcast this coming Saturday night on "Our American Heritage," 9:30 p.m. An estimated 10,000 classrooms will "act out" the play in amateur theatricals. This week, "The Secret Rebel," a dramatization of George Washington and John Honeyman, little-known hero of the revolutionary war, co-stars Hugh O'Brian as Honeyman, (who served as a spy for the Continental Army enabling it to capture Trenton, N. J., on Christmas Day, 1776) Howard St. John will play the part of Washington in this "education-through-television" efforts made possible since the entire play was published last week in the Practical English Magazine.



The Ohio State University-produced TV documentary, "Research Doctor," made its debut on the commercial air lanes Monday of last week. This is to be a Monday, University Hall feature, 7:30 a.m. through Monday, June 4. Dr. Samuel Sastaw, professor of medicine at Ohio State is narrator.

Whitehall Wrestling Squad Is 11th In State

The grapplers of Whitehall "rammed" their way to the state wrestling tournament and placed 11th among the 76 schools competing last Friday and Saturday at Ohio State University.

Three Yearlings, Mike Beery, Ted Hupp and Danny Gartner, finished with fourth places to collect 14 points.

Two of the same team members, Beery and Hupp, were the important scorers when Whitehall won the Central District crown several weeks ago.

For two consecutive years the wrestling team finished as runnerups to Worthington but this year the two squads changed places ending the latter's four-year domination of the crown.

In final rounds of the state meet Gartner was pinned in the semifinals while Beery and Hupp lost by decisions.

Yearling Coach Jim Bline reported he was well satisfied with the boys performances and was especially pleased with the large attendance.

Over 3,000 persons watched the matches with an undetermined number turned away at at the doors. Bline reports that wrestling, still a young sport in high school circles, is just now beginning to draw crowds. The coach blames the impression given by televised matches, commenting that collegiate-amateur wrestling is a real physical and mental challenge with no room for error, slow thinking or reflexes.

Little Rams Post Perfect Season

Whitehall's freshman basketball team won the suburban freshman championship by downing Pleasant View, 44-34. The Little Rams finished with a perfect season record of 11-0.

WHITEHALL (44)—Ketzmier, 6-1-13; Richardson, 1-0-2; Ford, 1-5-7; LaRue, 2-0-4; Robinson, 7-4-18. Totals: 17-10-44.

PLEASANT VIEW (34) — Bausch, 0-0-0; Neeley, 2-1-5; Cahill, 1-2-4; Warden, 2-2-4; Lamb, 9-1-19. Totals: 14-6-34.

Bexley Nine Trip To South Up In Air

Consternation on the part of some parents over a proposed spring trip on the part of Bexley High School's 24 member baseball team to the south has run the gauntlet from high school principal to the Ohio High School Athletic Association.

In a letter to W. J. McConnel, commissioner of the association, principal C. W. Jones asked for sanction of the eight day trip. Dr. Emerson Jarvis, Bexley superintendent, related that the trip would not involve school nor public funds, but would be paid for by individuals.

Some of the parents have complained because of the cost involved. The trip is scheduled to take place during spring vacation, Mar. 25.

CONNIE TAKES AIM

CONSTANCE DAMAN, 14, in the foreground, takes aim on her favorite subject, a target, as a member of the Fort Hayes Junior Rifle Club. Her father, Lt. Col. Marion Daman, organized the outfit. The club is composed of youths 10 to 19 years of age and is a part of the city-wide Buckeye Junior Rifle League. Connie just yesterday, was recipient of the Junior NRA Rifleman Award, the highest honor a member of the junior division can receive. In addition to her recent award, Connie has won a host of other trophies and medals. She has been firing since she was 12 years old.

Exploding Paradise Is Teen Topic

"Exploding Paradise — Only 90 Miles from Florida" is the title of the fourth annual Y-Teen Public Affairs Conference to be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Mar. 11, at the YWCA. Chet Long from WBNS will open the session with a talk entitled "Cuba — The Exploding Paradise."

In the afternoon the students will hear a panel moderated by Richard Boyd, social studies teacher from North High School, with two Ohio State and Dennis McAdams. These University students, Bob Fasic University students are preparing to represent the U.S. and Cuba on the floor of the coming Model UN at the campus.

On Mar. 11, they will present the U.S. and Cuban viewpoints on such questions as "Is Castro fulfilling his promises to the Cuban people?" and "Should diplomatic relations be reestablished?" (Between Cuba and U.S.)

The United Nations could become a major problem for the United States if and when the communists intimidate and buffalo enough of the new member-nations to have their own private propaganda show. This latest vote should be a warning to the major democracies of what might happen if we go too fast in the effort to force freedom and democracy on peoples who are not ready for these responsibilities."

Pirates To Play Jets Here In Exhibition Game April 27

The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates will play the Columbus Jets in an exhibition game at Jet Stadium Thursday, Apr. 27, starting at 8 p.m.

General Manager Harold Cooper of the Jets announced the Pirates will stop off here enroute to Cincinnati from Philadelphia.

Tickets to see the comeback winners over the New York Yankees in the thrilling seven game 1960 world series will go on sale the latter part of March.

Columbus fans will have an opportunity to see the National League's most valuable player and batting champion of 1960, shortstop Dick Groat, in action.

Several former Columbus players of the last few seasons will be in Pirate uniforms, including Harvey Haddix, ace southpaw pitcher of the 1950 Little World Series champions, and catcher Hal Smith, batting champion of the American Association in 1954.

Manager Danny Murtaugh of the National League champions will also be able to field such well known stars as Smoky Burgess, Roberto Clemente, Vernon Law, Elroy Face, Don Hook, Rocky Nelson, Bill Virdon, Dick Stuart, Bob Skinner and many others, for local fans' entertainment.

World-Wide Aid Funds Campaign To Close Mar. 12

The 15th annual appeal for funds to support the world-wide assistance programs conducted by Catholic Relief Services — National Catholic Welfare Conference will end Mar. 12 in parishes throughout the United States.

Minimum national goal is $5 million. It will provide the relief program which, in 1960, aided 40 million needy people in 64 countries regardless of race, color or creed.

The amount of food, clothing, medicines, medical equipment and other relief supplies shipped by the Bishop's agency since the inception of the overseas relief programs represents the largest private voluntary overseas relief program in history.

All Americans are invited to join in this drive. Contributions may be made to the nearest Catholic Church on or before Mar. 12 or to the Bishop's Relief Fund, Empire State Building, New York 1, N.Y.

50 Junior Class Students Given Scholarship Exams

On Mar. 7, approximately 50 members of the junior class were given the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. The test was to determine intellectual ability and assist students in obtaining a college education. Of the 600,000 who took the test this year, 10,000 students will be selected as semi finalists.

The top 10 students in 24 high schools subjects will be entitled to take the preliminary State Scholarship Tests Thursday, Mar. 30. From these students the top three in each subject will qualify to take the Ohio State Scholarship Tests at Ohio State University May 6.

The O of D Sock Hop on Mar. 3, sponsored by the senior class, enabled the class to get out of debt. After months of work and planning, the seniors were successful in cancelling the debt which they had accumulated for the Junior-Senior Prom last last year.

Bowling, track, a banquet, and the presentation giving of awards are on the agenda for the GAA this spring. On Mar. 6 the GAA began its second session of bowling. Then on Mar. 7, the girls met and began the formation of a girls' track team. This is a new activity for the GAA.

The GAA will hold a banquet for its members sometime in the spring. The senior members will be honored and awards will be announced. The awards, given to members who accumulated the most points and showed the most enthusiasm, will be presented at the athletic assembly.

Institute Uniform Safety Markers

A uniform system of water safety markers is being instituted this year for Ohio waters, according to James D. Wells, administrator, Division of Watercraft.

"The orange and white markers will be placed on state waters just as soon as it is physically possible," said Wells. "They will serve to protect and guide boaters and other water users."

Thre types of symbols will be used. An orange diamond on white background will indicate danger areas to be avoided by boats. A cross in the diamond will mean no boats permitted.

An orange circle on white will indicate a control marker. In the center of the circle will be printed instructions, such as speed limits, fishing zones, and the like.

A rectangle, also orange, will identify information markers. Printed on these will be directions to launching ramps and docks, and general information useful to boaters.

The Division of Watercraft is also adopting patterns that will be the responsibility of boat owners and water users to apply. Mooring buoys should be white with a blue band. Structures in the water such as ski jumps, diving platforms and swimming rafts should be white to the extent they are plainly visible.

"Tres' bon," are the words to describe the French banquet on Feb. 21. The banquet, attended by 80 French students from the school, as well as many from other Columbus schools, was held in the Ohio Union at Ohio State University. Attending the banquet was the first outside activity of the newly organized French club.

Gun Clubs Can Help Maintain Minutemen In This Space Age

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Target shooting has become patriotic — so the Department of the Army has reported to Congress.

It is with a great deal of interest, then, that we heard of the firearm training being offered by the Linden Heights Kiwanis Club. Approximately 20 members have formed the Kiwanis Safe Shooter's Club, and are learning the safe and sane handling of sporting firearms.

These adults will compose the permanent staff which will in turn train any teenagers who are interested. Each course will last six weeks and will be held at the Field and Stream Sports Center, 3833 Westerville-rd. Ten trainees will be accepted in each course. A fee of $5 covers ammunition, targets and literature. The range and guns are being furnished by the Kiwanis Club. Contact Richard Paugh at Field and Stream for further details.

Getting back to the report to Congress — a special study conducted by the Army revealed that more rifle practice by civilians, especially young people, is necessary to improve our national defense. The Senate Appropriations Committee directed the Army to look into the situation last year with these words: "It is the committee's conviction that the increased emphasis on other phases of national defense should not be permitted to obscure the importance of the final role that the rifleman will continue to play in possible future conflicts."

In short, minutemen are still needed in the space age. Evidently we are not living up to our national heritage of civilian marksmanship. If a latter day Paul Revere should ride tonight, I wonder how many of us would be effective snipers at daybreak tomorrow morning?

TARGET SHOOTING is a lot of fun. Ask Beverly Canode, "Miss Central Ohio." Not only is shooting a sport, but the Army says its our patriotic duty to improve civilian marksmanship.

'Owe Country to Squirrel Gun'

Most of the hunters who were banging away at squirrels and pheasants last fall would make fair marksmen, a few would be excellent. Historians say that we owe this country to the squirrel gun, and the man behind it. Stout-hearted men with firearms in their hands have stood us in good stead from Concord to Korea, and just because there are man-made gadgets beeping around out in space is no excuse to forget the fact.

How can interest be stimulated in shooting? One way is for fathers to take their sons into the field hunting with them. This means a boy is allowed to have his own gun when he is old enough, and after he has had extensive instruction in its safe handling.

Another way is for organizations to sponsor firearms safety schools, and to provide shooting opportunity for youngsters.

Some oriental cultures have preserved their customs and heritage for hundreds of years by word of mouth. With mass communication media at our disposal, we seem to be forgetting what we owe the hunter and his gun. May the work of the Linden Heights Kiwanis Club prosper and increase many-fold.

Does Your Lawn Have That Poor Tilthy Look?

Does your lawn have a rough, bumpy surface, does water stand in a few of the low places when it rains and is the ground hard as a rock?

T. R. Smith, soils scientist of the Ohio Division of Lands and Soil, comments that may be the result of poor tilth. Then he went on to explain that tilth is the physical condition of the soil in respect to its fitness for plant growth.

"Good tilth refers to a porous, friable structure that enables soil to absorb water, admit air and resist clodding," declared Smith. "A soil in good tilth may contain about 45 per cent mineral matter, five per cent organic matter, 25 per cent water and 25 per cent air."

Smith says that many persons roll their lawns when the soil is too wet and plastic, literally squeezing the air and water out of it.

"As for your home lawn and garden," he continued, "here's what I suggest: don't over-roll your lawn, using the roller only when the soil is dry and won't pack. A properly fertilized lawn or garden is important, so be sure to fertilize properly. You can overdo a good thing as well as under-do it. You may wish to have your soil tested and your county agricultural agent can give you details.

"As for your garden, I'd suggest that you add organic matter in the form of compost and other plant residue. But please don't roll it, don't spade it, don't plow it if the soil is too wet.'

to be asked or else a curtailment of the educational program would be in store.

Jarvis said he thinks the reduction in aid to impacted areas will be "batted around for a while yet" before any decision will be made.

Jarvis also pointed out that actually the federal government pays only 50 per cent of the total cost now and that the acutal reduction would mean that the government would provide but 25 per cent of the payments now given.

Crabbs pointed out that any reduction would see the need for a raise in operating revenue of a "little over a mill."

"In the cases of places such as Columbus General Depot," he commented, "we receive no tax money, as one governmental agency cannot impose a tax on another."

Other school districts hit by the request would be Hamilton Township, Columbus (which receives $678,000 for some 6000 pupils), Reynoldsburg and Madison.

Richard Grimm Chosen Officer

Richard W. Grimm, son of Dr. and Mrs. Hilmar Grimm, assumed the position of Administrative Officer of the Capital University Air Force Officers Training Corps here in Columbus.

This new position was the result of a change in command ceremony which occurs between semesters every year. He was previously the Flight Commander of Flight "B."

Grimm is a junior and is majoring in mathematics.

Upon graduation he will receive a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force.

'Meet Artist Exhibit'

The first in a series of "Meet the Columbus Artists Exhibits" will open on the Capital University campus Friday, Mar. 10.

The inaugural exhibit will display the work of the distinguished sculptor and ceramic artist, Chester, Nicodemus. As a retrospect show of the artist's work, the exhibit will include pieces that have circulated among galleries across the nation in the "100 Best in Ceramics" show.

Awards are being handed out by Joseph Spanovich, assistant principal at Rosemore Junior High School, to Charles Salling, of Rosemore; Jennifer Schwind and Jackie Kline, of Whitehall-Yearling; and Kendall Lewis, of Rosemore. Salling won the champ title on the world "hosiery." Jackie fell on the word "entree."

Teaching—

He points out, and his students are quick to agree, that in the language of the deaf via the hands, much is left to the imagination. "The deaf, however, can follow the context of the conversation more than the hearing.

Students are also reminded to move their lips in unison with the signs so as to encourage the deaf to speak. It no doubt also helps the students in the simultaneous translation.

A couple of examples of the shades of differences of two words that the hearing take for granted:

"Remember" is shown by cupping the hand, moving it to the forehead, then by pushing the thumbs together.

Whereas "learn" is shown by a cupped hand moving outward from the forehead implying that knowledge has been stored.

Even in the world of no sound, it can be presumed that the first monkey does not go unheeded, thanks to the digital linguists.

Two Students Watch Local Government

Two delegates from the Whitehall Chapter of the Vocational Industrial Club accompanied by their sponsor, William W. Shipe, 4276 Mayflower-blvd, studied first hand the operation of state government in Columbus last week.

The students, selected by popular vote of their club members, were Sharon Kitchen, 1162 Simpson-dr, and Don Deuschle, 4012 Virginia Circle. The highlight of the day was an address by Mrs. Clara Weisenborn, representative to the state legislature from Montgomery County.

State officers were on hand to explain the function and operation of the offices of secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general.

The day's activities were under the direction of the Vocational Industrial Club of Ohio, of which the local organization is a member.

The program was arranged to offer an opportunity for each delegate to receive an insight into what makes state government function and to have personal questions answered by the public officials.

Bexley Graduate Awarded Honor At The Citadel

Cadet Philip A. Goldslager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Goldslager, 2456 E. Livingston-av, was one of six cadets whose designation as Distinguished Air Force ROTC cadets was announced at The Citadel this week.

The announcement was made by Col. Henry L. Crouch, USAF, Deputy Commandant of Cadets and Professor of Air Science at the military college at Charleston, S. C.

This honor entitles the cadets to apply for regular rather than reserve commissions upon their graduation in June.

The selection is based on qualities of leadership, integrity, loyalty, initiative, attitude, military bearing, and character.

Those selected must be top students academically, and are required to have performed well in summer camp.

Capital Lines Up Tour Of Europe

Countries to be visited will include Holland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany and England.

Further information and a brochure of the tour may be obtained by writing to either Dr Taylor or Dr. Grimm at the university.

Family Night Set At Faith Church

A family night, sponsored by the Luther League and Lutheran Youth Fellowship of Faith Lutheran Church will be held Mar. 17, 6 p.m., in the church fellowship hall.

All members of the congregation are invited to the covered-dish supper.

Following the meal a talk will be presented by Rev. Robert Hueter, missionary to New Guinea, now home on furlough.

Save Those Old Plates For Cancer Ray Unit

Your 1960 license plates aren't worth much on your car after Mar. 31, but they can do the girls of the F. O. Schoedinger Cancer Ray unit a lot of good.

Last year the girls collected 18 tons of discarded plates and sold them for scrap. All the proceeds realized went to the Columbus Cancer Clinic for 100 per cent local use.

The old tags can be dropped in trailers which will be placed in all of the shopping centers or they can be deposited in drums at all local fire stations.

For further information about the drive, call Mrs. Tim Scannell, AM. 8-8212 or Mrs. Dolores McIlvan, AM. 7-3362.

Parade, Relief Discussed At Veteran Confab

A meeting was held recently of the National Chartered Veterans Organization of Franklin County, composed of delegates from National Chartered Organizations in Franklin County.

Vets attending were in favor of continuance of the Memorial Day Parade in Columbus and stressed the point that all Veterans of all Wars should be urged by their Veteran groups to show their interest by taking part in the Parade.

The proposal to discontinue the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission and placing the Veterans who are getting aid from it under general welfare was opposed.

The statements against the Veterans made by the American Medical Association in the newspapers was disapproved, according to Chaplain Louis Roberts.

Seven Deer Are Released

Although the Urbana Game Farm, Champaign County, is known primarily for its production of pheasants, the Wildlife installation also produces a bumper crop of other game animals.

This winter, Wildlife employes have trapped seven deer from the 600-acre area. They were taken to Pike State Forest, Pike County, where they were tagged and released. If, and when, any of these deer are taken by hunters the tags will reveal how far the deer traveled following their release, rate of growth, and other data.

Game officials also point out that the Urbana Game Farm, in addition to the crop of pheasants and deer which are produced there each year, also has one of the largest populations of cottontail rabbits in the state.

Many of the rabbits, like the deer, are trapped each year and stocked on other areas.

Cart Racing To Be Aired At CBS Club

Go-cart racing at the CBS Park Speedways in Lancaster has taken a 14-week setback, thanks to the weather. The 15th attempt at racing the little buggies will be this Sunday and everyone is invited.

In addition, a business meeting will be held at the recreation building to elect new officers, form divisions, discuss the lag in getting the new season started and other problems Friday night.

Clyde B. Seesholtz, owner of the raceway, invites everyone interested in go-cart racing to attend the meeting. Seesholtz told Hartley sports editor, Jack L. Allen, that a lot depends on the turnout Friday night as far as resurfacing the speedway is concerned.

Seesholtz indicated plans are on the drawing board to blacktop the race track if response indicates that go-cart racing will continue to grow in popularity in 1961.

Camping, Hiking Club Seeks Members For Coming Year

Wyandotte Chapter of the National Camper and Hiker Association is looking for outdoor people who are interested in camping and hiking to join in the fun of group activities for the coming season.

At the group's meeting in January the various standing committees were appointed to plan the summer's activities which include campouts twice a month, state wide campouts in May, and a national campout at the "Lake of the Ozarks" in June. There will also be an equipment show to be held in April at a location to be announced later.

The nationwide campout is the first attempt on a national level to hold such an event. Plans are being made to accommodate at least 2,500 families and possibly 3,000.

Plans are also being made to obtain admission tickets to any and all events in the area for half price. In addition to this there will be displays of many types of equipment by the manufacturers of trailers, tents, stoves, etc.

Bexley Repeals Parking Ban, May Pursue Permanent Plan

New Apartment Plan Substituted At Proposed Senior Citizens Site

Cars remained parked along Bexley streets early Wednesday morning. But they may not be able to do so for long.

Just four hours prior to the time it was to go into effect, the 2 to 6 a.m. parking ban was lifted, "but not permanently" council gave the folks present to understand.

The "Oshkosh" ordinance, so called because a city in Wisconsin had imposed the same restrictions upon its residents, was thrown out by solons in lieu of one they asked Solicitor Howard Park to draft.

The new bill hints that at some future date an over-all permanent plan will be adopted after an engineering survey study.

In part, the measure states that such a plan is needed because of the increase of cars in some sections, it may be necessary to weigh various factors before adopting a permanent plan.

Park stated that council had requested, for the time being, that the 2 to 6 a.m. ban be postponed, but "this does not mean it is a permanent repeal."

The postponement came about as a result of more than 100 residents appearing before council a fortnight ago to protest the impending action. Many appealed that a parking problem in one part of the city (near Capital University) should not have to reflect on other sectors.

Solon J. Roth Crabb stated Tuesday that "we are right back where we started."

He told the audience that "we have to conduct a traffic survey as we still have traffic and parking problems."

He added that "people should realize that many of your arguments at the previous session were based upon false premises, that of municipalities having to give citizens no-limit parking.

"The time is coming," Crabb continued, "when street and highway construction will not be able to keep up with the traffic and people will not be able to park anywhere, indiscriminately."

Council itself learned that a substitute plan was being requested for the proposed Senior Livingston, College-avs.

PLAN FOR EASING TRAFFIC TIE-UP GIVEN BY MEIER

The rush-hour traffic congestion at the five-point intersection of E. Livingston and College-avs may soon be alleviated under the recommendations of a plan by former chairman of the Columbus Traffic Commission Otto Meier.

The plan was reported to the commission this week and received the group's endorsement to be forwarded to the Columbus Safety Director.

Meier also states that the plan will aid in easing the flow of traffic along E. Livingston between College and Nelson-rd that at times has been lined up back to Fairwood-av during rush hours.

Meier recommended that traffic along Berwick-blvd be a one-way street from College to Castlegate. "This move would eliminate the traffic signal at the intersection of College and Berwick," Meier stated.

He continued that the traffic signal facing Berwick-blvd is on each change 17 seconds at the present time.

Under the new plan, with the elimination of the signal, Meier says that the time can be applied to the signal facing Livingston-av making it possible for approximately 32 additional cars to flow through at each light change.

"Anyone driving west along Berwick," Meier says, "will be able to reach Livingston by turning west on Castlegate to College, then to Livingston."

Meier also recommended that left hand turns be banned at Nelson-rd and Livingston to permit two continuous east bound lanes of traffic flow, "where at present, traffic has been known to back up to Fairwood-av."

If approved by the safety director, Meier says that the plan would go into effect on a six-months trial basis.

Davis' 'Clean-Up' Bill Goes Before Whitehall Council Tuesday Night

The "Clean-Up-The-Strip" ordinance sponsored by Orton Davis will be headed for Whitehall Council Tuesday night.

With but one exception, the city planning and zoning commission this week gave a favorable endorsement to the measure.

The exception: Restricting the number of new motels that could be constructed along E. Broad-st.

Mayor Walter Moling stated that if some future plan came along, "such as on the order of Nationwide Inn," it would not be feasible for the city to turn it away.

The Davis plan, sure to be a banner during the upcoming political campaign, calls for elimination of "undesirable" places, such as bars and motels.

That measure however, was one of the few to get by Tuesday night as planning commission members evidently were in a "turn-down" mood.

A request for a trampoline court in the Fairport Shopping area failed to make it past the commission. Moling reported that "there was quite a bit of opposition to it."

Also turned down, by the com-

Do You Have The Grasshopper Complex?

An appropriate message is contained in Daniel Russell's "Meditations for Men" . . . so much so we want to pass it along as follows:

When Moses sent his scouts to look over the land of Canaan they came back with widely different reports. There were those who said, "Let us go up and possess the land. We can do it." Others said, "It can't be done. The people there are giants. By comparison we are no more than grasshoppers."

There are things at work today which tend to make us cowardly, weak characters instead of sturdy men.

Once we believed that failure and defeat were largely the fault of the individual. Now we are told it is society's fault. Once we believed that a boy who murdered his sweetheart was a bad boy. Now we are told he is a sick boy, something wrong probably with his endocrine glands. Once we held shiftlessness in ill repute and upbraided it. Now we are told the slack-twisted individual is the victim of the economic system, a cog in a machine which can only be kept running by the tinkering of politicians.

Once we believed that the citizen, as a patriot, must take care of his government, insisting that government must interfere with him as little as possible. Now the slogan of millions is: "Let government take care of me. Never mind the interference of government with my liberties. Give me doles or give me death."

These are disgusting, degrading, disintegrating, grasshopper concepts corrupting the soul of a once individualistic, resourceful, personally responsible people.

The controlling thought of Jesus was the possibilities of the individual. He would pull us from any flowery bed of ease on which we may be riding, to build our own roads for our own feet.

One boy says, "Oh yes, success could have been won once by almost anybody, now no one can do it at all. Another boy says, "If anybody ever did it, I can do it."

Never see yourself as an insect.

Whitehall Track Team Started By Local Girl's Health Essay

BY JOHN AUBLE, JR.

Lithe, lovely Linda Blair handed in a health class theme at Whitehall-Yearling High School a few months ago. Near the end of the essay was an intriguing sentence. It read:

"My future plans call for participation in the 1964 Olympic games."

Wistful thinking? Maybe. But Linda's health instructor Marty Ingram took it a little more seriously. In fact, it was the start of a Girls' Athletic Association project which is setting the pace in the Central Buckeye League.

Mrs. Ingram, who has admittedly "always wanted girls to get as much athletic recognition as boys," is currently in the process of starting a girl's track team at Whitehall.

Miss Blair has generated enough interest in the project among the other girls and, along with Junior Barbara Dragoo, plan to have the team in operation this year.

"I did a lot of reading about women track stars," Miss Blair said. "I got real interested in the idea."

She got so interested, in fact, that the 17-year-old lass entered the Junior Olympics last year in the 60-yd. low hurdles and the high jump.

Her aspirations were brightened last month when Jerry Fedderson of the City Recreation Department visited Whitehall and showed films on women runners.

"The GGA here sponsors all activities that have enough enthusiasm," Mrs. Ingram said. This includes everything from bowling to volleyball.

The new track squad will run under the Ohio High School Athletic Assn. rules which allows them to compete in eight interscholastic events.

The group will not be considered a track "club," such as the Women's Ohio Track Club coached by James Lorimer. The Whitehall girls will meet the Ohio Track Club girls in their first dual meet at Hartley Field on May 13.

Some 75 Whitehall young ladies came out for the first try-outs in the new endeavor but, as Mrs. Ingram said, "if we can keep 40 who are really interested we'll be lucky."

Carolyn Harsch, the girls physical education instructor at Whitehall, is helping Mrs. Ingram in getting the project underway.

The only other team in the Central Buckeye League which has shown an interest in such a thing is Urbana. According to Mrs. Ingram, West High School has the only other girls' track team in the area.

Unlike the Ohio Track Club, the ultimate aim of the Whitehall group is not Olympic development but, rather, physical fitness.

Mrs. Ingram is a Fairmont State Col-

Whitehall May Get New Parks

Hot on the tail of a recent announcement that a 24-acre park site is under contemplation on Whitehall's east side, comes a proposed plan for three possible recreational park locations in the Beechwood area.

Recreation Director George Chamblin said that at last week's meeting, the "possibility" of several recreational parks with fireplaces and picnic tables were under consideration.

Chamblin said he expects that the parks could be finished before summer if the plan goes through.

He added that the general location of the parks would be in the vicinity of the Beechwood area.

Each would consist of more than an acre, he said.

Chamblin also reported that the recent weekend plane rides, available to Whitehall youngsters, was a "great success."

He estimated that over 500 children took part in the 15-minute air tours over Whitehall and Eastern Columbus, "in spite of the bad weather we had two Saturdays ago."

Chamblin expects to make the event an annual one.

WITH A SHILLELAGH AND A SMILE

WHAT BETTER place for an Irishman at St. Patrick's time than on the front page of the Green Sheet? We couldn't think of a better place either, so here he is—Gilbert O'Shaughnessy of 746 S. Yearling-rd, all decked out and strutting his stuff for the one day of the year that all Irishmen have revered for 1500 years, since the death of the patron saint. O'Shaughnessy, it needn't be said, is also a member in good standing of the Shamrock Club.

Maxwell Sends DiSalle Letter Over Garnon's 'Other Post'

By John Poeppelmeyer

Whitehall City Solicitor James Maxwell has notified the governor, via a letter, that he is protesting the appointment of Councilman Robert Garnon, who is also a Democratic mayoralty candidate, as temporary deputy registrar of motor vehicles in Whitehall.

Maxwell, in his letter, contends that Garnon is violating a section of the state code by accepting the appointment.

The solicitor said that, according to the code, a councilman may hold no other public office or employment except as a notary public or as a member of the state militia.

Maxwell referred to Garnon's public statement "to the effect that your (the Governor's) signature is on the appointment and that this gives him the right to violate the law of Ohio."

"He (Garnon) is using your name rather freely to support his position."

"I feel," Maxwell continued, "that a complete disregard of law by a councilman and by an appointee of yours is of sufficient import to bring to your attention by means of this letter."

Of his action, Maxwell said that he wondered if the Governor was aware of Garnon's using the Governor's name to protect his position.

Garnon has rebutted that the job is an appointed one and not one of employment. He said that profits from the operation of issuing new licenses, at 35 cents per license is being turned over to the Whitehall Democratic Club.

Last year, he said he held the same post, when he was not on council.

He said that he turned $800 over to the Democratic Club last year of which they made $330 after deducting expenses.

Garnon said that his appointment was signed by three men, "one of which is Gov. DiSalle's signature."

Maxwell has said that turning the money over to the Whitehall Democratic Club is a misuse of taxpayers' money."

The solicitor said that in previous cases of this type, when a public official takes another public job, the other employment has been voided.

In his letter, Maxwell noted that "one of our councilmen has taken such a post without resigning his city office.

Garnon, however, reports that "business has never been busier" at the registrar's office at 917 S. Hamilton-rd.

Town & Country All Set For Early Spring And Easter

The 85 stores and services comprising the Town and Country Shopping Center, Broad-st at Whitehall, have preened themselves to greet that first "Feel of Spring" and to make ready for an exceptionally early Easter, Apr. 2, according to Charles Collins, president of Town and Country Business Assn.

For weeks they have delved into the wholesale marts selecting better buys, appealing to every taste and every budget. Now the shops are bulging with fresh new styles, new creations — new everything, he said.

Whether it be spring apparel — clothes, shoes, accessories — whether it be for the home, the garden, for sports, for the table or any of the dozens of desirable services, they are all available at Town and Country, in great abundance.

"The small fry will be delighted when the Easter Bunny and her court of playmates 'arrives' at Town and Country at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Mar. 25. She will dispense free candy Easter eggs to all youngsters, from then 'til Easter," Collins said.

An Easter Egg Hunt will be sponsored jointly by the Town and Country merchants, the Firemen's Auxiliary Association of Whitehall, and the Boy Scout Troop No. 390. The event will be staged in the field south of Eavey's Market at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, Apr. 1. Some 3000 candy-filled plastic Easter Eggs will be hidden in the field and $100.00 worth of prizes will be awarded to those who find "special" eggs.

Citizens apartment center along Sheridan-av.

Starling Hanford, developer, requested a permit for eight, four family type apartments. He added that "this is an entirely different concept than before." The new apartment would be known as Frontenac Village.

Hanford said that he requested the change as the new proposal "would be more compatible with the neighborhood."

His announcement came just after Councilman William Hunt had mentioned that his committee would postpone any decision on the Senior Citizens apartment and the Woodyard Funeral Home zoning until the next meeting.

Solon Harrison Sayres, also who is also a member of the Regional Planning commission, told the legislators that the commission had adopted a new set of by-laws that would increase the cost of Bexley's contribution to the organization.

He explained that last year Bexley paid in $500 to the Regional group. This year, he said, the cost would rise to 12 cents per capita for a total of $1718.28.

Mayor William Schneider called attention to the fact that "Bexley is hemmed in, and would not benefit directly." Sayres said that it would benefit overall plan

Davis—

(Continued from mission tabling the matter indefinitely, was a request for a go-kart track in the vicinity of Town and Country. Moling said that the people who asked for the zoning requested that the plan be tabled.

Swim-Land, too, found that a request for a junior training swimming pool was rejected. Moling said that some people felt that the beginners pool would be too close to neighboring back yards.

An asked for zoning at E. Broad-st and Fairway-blvd for a filling station was rejected.

Only other item, in addition to the Davis ordinance, to be submitted to council was a variance for a zoning for a beauty shop at 482 S. Yearling-rd.

Man Freed InDogThreat Episode

Robert C. Slatzer, 35, 1537 Franklin-av, was found not guilty of making menacing threats against two policemen.

The verdict was returned after one hour of deliberation by the jury.

Patrolman Richard Shaw and Auxiliary Patrolman Ernest Mackey said that Slatzer threatened to turn his dog loose on them when they entered his home Feb. 4 with Michael Slatzer, 12.

The patrolmen said that they wanted to talk with the boy's parents after they found him throwing snowballs at autos. The boy testified that he had been brushed by a car.

Shaw testified that upon entering he found Slatzer holding a large German Shepherd dog by the collar.

Slatzer contended he only asked the policeman to step outside until he could get the dog under control.

The policeman contended that Slatzer had made two threats that he would have the dog tear out Shaw's throat if he were to take another step.

Slatzer claimed that Shaw had reached for his gun upon spotting the dog.

Shaw countered that he had instinctively reached for the gun, but that he did not draw it.

WWI Veteran Claims 'They're' Trying To Destroy Relief Benefit

They're at it again, trying to destroy the soldiers and sailors' relief.

Because a very few counties do a poor job and some counties do only a good job, those counties (who are in the majority) who do an outstanding job for the veterans and their families will be sold down the drain by the present administration.

There is no doubt that there should be a few changes made in the present laws, but the administration is attempting to place all of these funds in the hands of the general welfare.

You would then be placed in the same group with war dodgers, slackers and those persons who did not see fit to take up arms in time of war and would like now for the veteran to forget he did.

It would seem that the county welfare and the American Medical Association think only in terms of what can be taken away from veterans.

Bills H. R. 445 by Rep. Ray Hilderbrand (Lucas County) and William Carney (Mahoning) and Senate Bill 176 by Lowell Fess of Yellow Springs are bills that should be favorable to all veterans and would help to keep the present S. and S. Relief laws although changes would be made.

We approve of these two bills, H. R. 445 and S. B. 176. Write your representative and senator at Columbus now.

Write him now and tell him you do not approve of H. B. 131.

This bill would place the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Xenia under the Adjutant Generals.

There is very little doubt that in due time this would become a political spot for feather bedding.

We do not approve Bill H. R. 131. Let's let our representative know about how we feel about these grabs from veterans' rights.

Eastmoor High School's

Warriors' Spear-It

By Marcia Topcik

23 Seniors Elected To Honor Society

Twenty-three of Eastmoor's 260 seniors were elected to National Honor Society. These students will be recognized at an honor assembly Mar. 22.

Students receiving this award must maintain a 3.2 average throughout high school, and they must excel in scholarship, leadership, character and service.

Barbara Snyder, an eighth grader, will represent Eastmoor at the City-Wide Spelling Bee Mar. 18. Barbara was chosen at a spelldown of room champions. She won her victory by correctly spelling "gubernatorial" and "homogenized." Second place winner in the contest was Joyce Finke.

The district band contest will be at Whitehall-Yearling High School Mar. 18. If the band receives a superior rating, it will be able to compete in the state band contest Apr. 22.

A Sadie Hawkins Backwards Ball will be presented by the Warriorettes Apr. 15, in the cafeteria. In true Dogpatch tradition, the girls will present the boys of their choice with home-made vegetable corsages.

Tickets to the dance will be in the form of a marriage certificate presented to the blue-jean-clad couples at the door by Marryin' Sam.

Theme for the 1961 Junior-Senior Prom was selected by the senior class. From a list of five titles, "Gay Paree" was chosen.

Last Friday, the senior math test was administered to all juniors. This test will determine which of next year's seniors will have to take a course in senior math.

Mr. Mayer was a guest at Johnson Park Junior High School Monday to speak with the ninth graders who will be coming to Eastmoor. This fall will be the first time that a group of students will be entering as a sophomore class.

The PTA will sponsor a spaghetti dinner and dance Saturday, 5-7 p.m. There will be a record hop in the gym, a bake sale and cartoons in the auditorium. The tickets are priced at 75 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Evans, Youngstown University, treasurer. Dr. Theodore Myers of Capital University is the host chairman.

Regular gallery hours are weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9. The gallery is located in Huber Hall on Mound-st.

EIGHT RECEIVE CONTEST AWARDS

Eight of the 13 Whitehall participants in the vocal and instrumental solos and ensembles district contest received a rating of "Excellent."

The contest was held Mar. 4 at Capital University.

The following ensembles entered and received "I" ratings:

The girls' ensemble, consisting of Karen Sutphen, Peggy Snider, Deryl Deal, Sally Metcalf, Jan Greene, Alice Nixon, Pat Trees, Becky Roberts and Florence Cotterman; the woodwind quintet, composed of Dianne Arbuckle, Sue Johnson, Gay Clark, Jeannie Jackson and Florence Cotterman; the clarinet quartet, made up of Donnie Smathers, Carol Fleener, Sandra Sambrook and Ann Molay; the trumpet quartet of Ronnie Smathers, Marvin Lackett, Dean Gram and Wes Orr; and the trumpet trio, composed of Wes Orr, Dean Gram and Ronnie Smathers.

Among the eight solos, three finished with an "Excellent" rating. For their clarinet solos, Donnie Smathers and Carol Fleener each was awarded an "I." Wes Orr "blew" his way to an "I" rating for his trumpet solo. Rated "II or Good," were Dan Clark, Ann Molay, Larry Schmidt and Florence Cotterman. Teddy Hopkins, freshman, received an "III" rating for his flute solo.

It seems that WYHS moves from one competition to another. The girls' track team, which was formed Tuesday, Mar. 7, is now well under way. The first meet has been scheduled for May 13 with the Ohio Track Club. In the meantime the girls are practicing Tuesday and Thursday each week.

From the size of the crowd, disc jockey Gene Fullen made a big hit at the Student Council sock hop Friday, Mar. 10. The sock hop was a mixture of dance contests, awards, and, of course, some crazy antics of Faison.

Pelkey Most Valuable Player At Capital For Second Year

Ranked fifth in Ohio's Coach of the Year balloting, Capital University's Harold Regan was joined by Ohio State's Fred Taylor in presenting the season awards to Cap's 1960-61 basketball squad Mar. 7.

Voted the most valuable player award for the second straight season was Duane Pelkey, senior forward and co-captain from Worthington. Pelkey finished second in the Ohio Conference in rebounding and gave outstanding leadership to the squad throughout the past two seasons. Pelkey has played varsity ball for four years.

Elected as co-captains for the 61-62 season were Joel "Big Bud" Dill from St. Marys, and Bob Holliday, 6'1" guard from Lancaster. Dill was also awarded the "most valuable player" medal as the 6'5" center led the team in scoring, with a 16 points per game average. Holliday, plagued this season with three pulled thigh muscles, still managed to play all but two ball games, averaging 7.7 points per game.

Honored as the outstanding free throw leader, percentage wise, was another senior, playmaker guard Skip Mullaney, a native of Raymond. Mullaney hit on 94 of 118 attempts for an 80 per cent average for the season.

Other seniors honored were co-captain Mark Fenton and first line substitute Ramon Shealy. Fenton is from Salem, while Shealy hails from Bucyrus.

Capital finished the season with a 19-5 record, and an undisputed second place finish in the tough 14 team Ohio Athletic Conference. The Lutherans conference mark was 13-3, while they went on to win two and lose one in the OAC tournament.

Tryouts For WBBA To Be Held Apr. 1

By Jack Allen
Sports Editor

Things are humming all over in the baseball world as the national past-time gains momentum from Arizona and Florida to Whitehall.

President of the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association, Harold Fleck, reports tryouts for the teams will be at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Apr. 1, at the WBBA Park.

Fleck passes along as a tip to all boys planning to tryout, look alive. Coaches will be looking for boys who hustle, avoid griping and fussing and show plenty of effort regardless of their proficiency.

It has taken plenty of meetings to prepare for this year's WBBA activities. The rules committee has been meeting weekly to rewrite and adopt playing regulations and only recently the board met to review the schedules, define the team boundaries and adopt a new WBBA emblem.

The league is short on a few coaches and assistants and umpires are badly needed. Those interested in coaching should call Fleck at BE. 1-7236.

Dick Wells will be head umpire this year and a school will be conducted for those interested in putting on the black suit of authority.

The ladies have been giving a helping hand also and have produced 800 rule books, 150 sets of the constitution and by-laws, 500 schedules for the major, minor and Babe Ruth leagues, 700 four-section registration cards, 150 forms for team rosters, 100 forms for equipment records and 500 territory maps.

It has taken a lot of work for a lot of fun and the adults and sponsors backing the WBBA are looking for a good season and will be watching the tryouts Apr. 1 with mixed emotions.

So to all the little Mantles and Pinsons keep the big day in mind, loosen up the arm, get the feel of the glove and bat and make a good showing for everyone, and be a good sport.

Feathered Friends Arriving Among First Hints Of Spring

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

As the warming days of March lessen winter's hold upon the land, there is a stirring among all wildlife.

Mammals rouse from hibernation and myriads of newly-hatched insects fill the air. From the southern tip of South America northward, birds are on the move winging their way toward favorite nesting grounds. In their flight north, numerous species will pause to rest and feed about lawns and gardens in central Ohio, and some will be content to stay and nest if they can find the three essentials for their survival — cover, food and water

Most birds travel at night, reserving the daylight hours to replenish their energy. Leading the northbound migrants is the male red-winged blackbird, which arrived in this area about a month ago. The females followed in approximately two weeks, and now the large flocks are disbanding as pairs of redwings seek and defend a favorite nesting site.

East of the Appalachian Mountains and northward through New England, redwings still favor the cattails, reeds, low shrubs and sturdy weeds surrounding ponds, marshes and swamps as their favorite nesting habitat. Here in Ohio, where there are many more redwings than in eastern states, the species nests abundantly in hayfields, pasturelands and along roadside borders. In some areas, usually north of Columbus, redwings are so numerous that they cause considerable damage in corn fields.

The first song of the robin and the first caroling of the bluebird are often looked upon as a true sign of spring. Both species are largely migratory. While a number of robins and bluebirds usually spend the winter in these parts, they shift northward about the beginning of March. The birds we see nesting in the spring, have spent the winter to the south of us.

Bluebirds Nesting Now

Bluebirds often start their first nest building along about now, so boxes intended for their use should be cleaned and ready for occupancy by Mar. 1. Robins, too, will nest early — even before the first leaves appear, if they can find a dense evergreen affording protection.

The phoebe is an early arrival — the first of the flycatcher family. Its movements northward coincide with the early hatching of spring insects — look for it to arrive in about a week. Building a nest of moss, the phoebe finds its natural home along ledges, cliffs and overhanging stream banks. Man-made devices, such as bridges and porches are now favorite nesting sites.

Our largest sparrow, the large, rusty-colored fox sparrow, is also an early migrant. Fair weather toward the end of February will mark the arrival of this bird. A sudden snow storm will bring them to feeding stations — a real treat for bird watchers.

March is the time when the cry of the first killdeer is heard high overhead, the time of grackles, meadowlarks and field sparrows. It is the time when the first wood ducks are noticed on Central Ohio ponds, the time when V's of wild geese split the sky in their long flights to the north country. It is a time, too, when man shakes himself of winter and prepares for spring.

Tickets On Sale For Jets

Box seats are now on sale for the Columbus Jets' opening game with the Syracuse Chiefs on Tuesday night, Apr. 18th, at Jet Stadium.

Reservations may be made by calling the stadium ticket office, CA. 4-1175. Tickets will be mailed on receipt of a $2. check or money order. It should be made payable to the Columbus Baseball Club.

Shortstop Ed Sada, right handed pitcher Jim Stoll and outfielder Johnny Powers are the latest Jets to sign their 1961 contracts, bringing to 30 the number of players who have agreed to terms for the 1961 season.

Trott-A-Rama Custom Cars Exhibit Slated

Fourth annual Trott-A-Rama, a competitive exhibition of specially designed and built cars, will be held at the Youth Center, Ohio State Fairgrounds, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Mar. 24, 25 and 26.

Show hours for the three-day event, sponsored by the Columbus Trotters Hot Rod Club, will be 6 p.m. to midnight on Friday, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. Saturday and, on Sunday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Over 200 show cars from a 15-state area will participate in the National Hot Rod and Mid-Ohio Timing Associations sanctioned event.

Last year over 20,000 people viewed the show.

Technically, a hot rod is any vehicle which has been individually designed and built, or one that is remade or revamped for display purposes only.

The term "hot rod," popularly used to denote today's teenager's souped up cars, is erroneous.

Hot rods include sports cars, strip cars, pick-ups, customs, antiques, go-karts, cycles, racers, TQ's and motorcycles.

Seldom seen on the streets, many boast such special features as TV, running hot and cold water, cooking stoves, fur-lined interiors and exteriors, jet engines, tailored trunks, hand-tailored leather upholstery and numerous other unique features.

One car boasts a safety measure not yet seen in its commercial counterpart — a collapsible middle. Upon impact the car compresses like an accordian and then readjusts to contour.

Many of these hobby cars are valued and insured for as much as $100,000. They are the polished products of the mechanically-minded of all ages from 15 to 75, hobbyists who run the gamut from school boys to clerics.

Among highlights of the exhibition will be the continuous showing of the world's greatest auto races. Films of Le Mans, Grand Prix, Daytona and many others will be shown.

Tickets may be purchased at the door and will not be sold in advance. Uniformed Scouts and Campfire members will be admitted free as will children under 12 accompanied by an adult

Accommodations for those wishing to stay for the entire three-day show are available at the Youth Center Dormitories.

Those from Hartley Newspapers area competing in the exhibition include Phil Mahoney, 321 Brinker-av; James F. Nichles, 90 Cullman-rd; Dome Seller, 48 Lenox-av, Hilliards.

Dana Georges, 111 Sadler-dr, Whitehall; Bruce Bertens, 593 Miller-av; and W. O. Timmens, 32 Vernon-rd.

DISPROVING THE old theory that a girl must be a female Georgeous George to participate in athletics are these Whitehall-Yearling High School young ladies Linda Blair, left, and Barbara Dregeo. Both of these girls are "founding fathers" in the WYHS girls' track and field project.

The girls' squad will not be limited to GGA members, she said, and ninth graders will be eligible to compete.

Gene Slaughter Named Head Coach Of Capital University

Gene Slaughter, Ohio prep coach-of-the-year in 1957 and a member of the Ohio State grid staff, has been named head football coach at Capital University. Slaughter replaces Jack Landrum, who resigned after piloting the Lutheran gridders for the past 10 seasons.

In announcing the appointment of Slaughter, President H. L. Yochum said Landrum had requested that he be relieved of his responsibilities as head football coach in order to devtoe full time to his duties as head track coach and aid in the total physical education program. Landrum will also be on hand to assist Slaughter in football.

The 34-year-old Slaughter will assume his new job at Capital Mar. 20. Along with his duties as head football coach, he will also coach tennis and instruct in the university's physical education department.

A graduate of Capital in 1950, Slaughter's gridiron teams have amassed an amazing record of 84 wins, 16 losses and three ties.

At Jackson, from 1952-56; Slaughter coached four undefeated teams and chalked up a 30-game winning streak. He was named Ohio prep coach-of-the-year in 1957 after placing second in 1954, third in 1955 and fourth in 1956.

At Capital, Slaughter was an outstanding defensive center and quarterback on Coach Dale Rose's grid team. He was also a baseball pitcher for two years and coached freshman baseball teams for two years. He earned a master's degree from Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., in 1956.

With his resignation, Landrum closed out 27 years of football coaching. His career started in Centerburg, O., 1934.

In the past decade, Landrum's Capital teams suffered only two losing seasons.

In all, the Lutherans won 43 games, lost 32 and tied four under the coaching of Landrum.

Following the close of the 1960 year, Landrum said he had suggested to the university administration that it consider hiring a man as his assistant with the idea of taking over the head coaching duties in a couple of years or hiring a new coach next season.

"I'm more than willing to continue as a member of the Capital coaching staff and will contribute in any way I'm able to better the situation here," said Landrum. "I feel the university is fortunate in getting Gene."

Chosen by Woody Hayes to coach the Ohio State offensive backfield last season, Slaughter said he was happy to return to Capital as head football coach.

"I've always held a strong attachment to Capital," said Slaughter. "I feel the new job will give me an opportunity to progress in coaching."

A native of Ironton,O., Slaughter is a World War II combat veteran. He is married and the father of a four-year-old daughter, Gwendolyn Ann. The Slaughters are expecting a second child any day.

Long-Billed Game Bird Back

Woodcock have arrived back in Ohio, according to Phil McGinnis, Division of Wildlife employe. He was working on the Tranquility Wildlife Area on Feb. 28 when he flushed six woodcock.

The following day he flushed two more of the long-billed game birds.

Woodcock normally return early to nest. Even now the males are performing their flight song at dusk and dawn.

Game men census the birds during the time they are giving this courtship performance to get an index on the trend of breeding populations.

Boat Owners Urged To Get Fuel From Licensed Dealers

All boat owners again have been urged to purchase their fuel only from licensed marine dealers and to inform station operators and attendants that it is for use of a pleasure craft. This request was made by members of the Waterways Safety Commission at their quarterly meeting.

In order that the seven-cents-a-gallon state tax may be used for boating improvements, it is necessary that the money be returned to the credit of the Waterways Safety Fund.

Under an amended law, the tax will be collected at the same rate as that imposed upon fuel used in motor vehicles and credited to the fund by the Division of Sales Excise and Highway Taxes. By law, this Waterways Safety Fund must be expended for refuge and small boat harbor facilities for watercraft operated upon the waters of the state.

Boats from which this fuel tax will be collected include all of those using motors for main and auxiliary power, except those used entirely for commercial purposes or which are engaged in an activity constituting the owner's chief means of livelihood.

Henry J. Watterson, Rocky River, acting commission chairman, emphasized that if boat owners do not specify that their fuel is for pleasure craft, the tax money will be channeled into the State Department of Highway Funds and used for roads.

Heart Council Meets

The executive board of the Franklin County Heart Council will meet for lunch and meeting at the Gloria Restaurant, Mar. 16, at 12:30 p.m.

The Jr. Congregation meets at 10 a.m., services are led by Mr. Bernard Solomon. Mincha, followed by Sholosh Suedos and Maariu 6:15 p.m.

EASTERN SERTOMA CLUB ORGANIZED

A new service organization, the Eastern Sertoma Club, has been organized in the Eastern Columbus area. Comprised of business and professional men the club meets each Tuesday for luncheon at the Desert Inn.

New members include Dr. Robert Shaw, Bexley dentist; Joseph Rosati of Rosati Super Duper Markets; Robert Stokes, Realtor; Ned Eller, architect of Design Associates; Joseph J. Murphy, Whitehall attorney, and Ken Foemaugh of Holiday Swimming Pools.

On March 14 a joint "Kick-off Meeting" was held with the Downtown Certoma Club as the guests. Unlike the typical guest the Downtown Sertomans brought a program with them featuring Dr. Homer R. Cotterman, nationally known professor of Capital University.

The club will host the Tri-Village Sertoma Club Mar. 21, and on March 28 will elect its officers and adopt its constitution and by-laws.

Give your children real security . . .

We don't mean the nicest house in the best neighborhood . . . the newest, sleekest car . . . the right schools, the right camps.

We're talking about the kind of security they can't do without . . . the kind that comes from inside.

Faith. In God, in life, in themselves.

For life is no game for spiritual sissies. Only Faith . . . the armor of the spirit . . . will give them the stamina to meet it courageously, no matter what it brings.

You can show your children where to find faith . . . how to build it day by day, if you make praying a family affair.

He restoreth your soul . . . Worship together this week remember how great Radio used to sound?

WRFD STILL DOES!

Remember the great music radio used to bring you . . . all the big bands and all the star vocalists, playing and singing easy-to-listen-to music. WRFD still does, in sparkling new arrangements and recordings.

Remember, too, the great newscasters . . . the men and women who gave you all the news . . . when it happened. The news you could depend on, whether it was an announcement of the end of a war, or what was going on at City Hall. This is the kind of news service WRFD still brings you. News of Columbus people and their activities, State Capital news from their studio just off Broad and High. National and world news from the many WRFD correspondents on the scene where news is made. WRFD newsmen are full-time specialists. WRFD News is accurate, dependable, complete.

We would like to have you meet some of the people at WRFD who are continuing great radio in Columbus.

Bill Arthurs

Bill Arthurs is the WRFD News Director. Bill's intensive travels have given him a wider insight into the background of world news. He has visited England, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey, and Egypt. Because he is an important news representative of Columbus, he is often invited to observe air, sea, and land military exercises. Bill Arthurs is Columbus' only radio member of the Radio and Television News Directors' Association.

Dave Collins

Dave Collins is WRFD's Afternoon News Editor. Travels throughout western and central Europe, including Germany, France, Luxembourg, and Belgium have given Dave his background for understanding these news reports he receives each day. On the local scene, Dave is well known, both for his news broadcasts and for his coverage of sports events, including Ohio State University football games.

Bill Hamilton

Bill Hamilton is WRFD's Saturday News Editor. Bill edits and broadcasts all Saturday newscasts after 8:00 A.M. As with all of WRFD's news programs, Bill's originates from the State Capital Newsroom, just off Broad and High. The Saturday news programs are backed up with all of the news gathering facilities of WRFD.

Marianne Tomlinson

Each day at 10:30 Marianne covers the modern feminine world from every angle . . . fashion, interviews, decorating, and menu and party planning. Marianne has become a popular addition to the program of any club meeting. Drop her a card if you'd like to have Marianne talk to your group. She likes to, and you'll like having her. Marianne lives in Worthington with her husband, Bob, and their two teen-age daughters.

Johnny Martin

Johnny Martin's "Sundial" Show is a delightful combination of good music, light humor, and start-the-day-right information features that painlessly pries open your sleepy eyes every morning from 7:35 to 10:30 A.M., Monday through Friday. Johnny's unusual "Smile Drivers Club" is the headquarters for entertainment and road information for Columbus drivers. Write Johnny Martin at WRFD for your membership card and car window decal.

Al Riggs

Al Riggs brings you music from the years 1915 to 1950 every day at 11:15 A.M. on his "Memories in Music." Here in high fidelity is all the great popular music from these wonderful years of music at its best. Let Al know what songs you would like to hear. He wants to play all your favorites.

Bill Collins

Variety is the spice of life and the programming ingredient for WRFD's unique musical spectacular, "The PM Show," heard Monday through Friday at 1:15 to 5:00 P.M. Soft-spoken Bill Collins is the host. He combines warmth, intelligence, and timeliness with a dash of whimsy to give you a thoroughly enjoyable listening experience. Bill's "PM Show" has that wonderful ingredient — continuity — for a well-planned program that takes the place of the hap-hazard playing of records from the "top forty." "The PM Show" is designed for your best entertainment.

Ken Keller

Ken Keller's two shows complete the WRFD daily program of great radio music. His first show is "Music for Motion" at 5:15 to 5:45 P.M. This is music for the bumper-to-bumper shift of so many drivers on their way home. It has also become a listening habit with the family at home as it prepares for dinner. Ken is also your host for "Lamplighter" beginning at 6:00 P.M., a program of music selected to provide a pleasant transition from daylight till dark.

You can win one of five transistor radios! Remember how great radio used to sound? Send us a letter telling us in 100 words or less, how you think WRFD is still bringing you great radio programming. We will award five transistor radios to the writers of the five best letters. Judges' decisions are final. All entries become the property of WRFD. Contest closes Saturday midnight, March 25, 1961. WRFD Holds Distinguished Spot After 14 Years On Airwaves

WRFD radio is one of the six radio [illegible] television stations operated by the Peoples Broadcasting Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Nationwide Insurance Co.

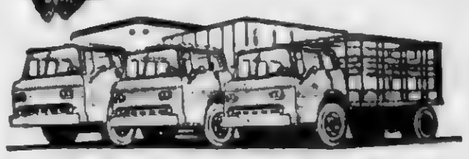
Since its inception, WRFD has always been an independent station and creates all its own programs designed to meet the needs of various segments of the listening audience within its coverage area. WRFD's music policy is described as one of variety with the station always attempting to respect the intelligence of its listeners with this diversified schedule: Johnny Martin's "Sundial," 7:40-10:30 a.m. daily; Al Rigg's "Memories In Music," 11:15 to 11:50 a.m. daily; Bill Collin's "The PM Show," 1:15 to 5 p.m. daily; Ken Keller's "Music For Motion" 5:15 to 5:45 p.m. daily; Ken Keller's "Lamplighter", 6 to 8 p.m. daily.

WRFD states a belief in balanced programming directed to the music listener, the sports fan, the news-conscious listener and the farmer. WRFD also presents occasional documentary programs concerning world events.

Firmly established contacts assure WRFD listeners of complete national, local and regional news coverage. At the head of WRFD's news department, is Bill Arthurs. Dave Collins is afternoon news editor and Bill Hamilton is Sautrday news editor. Arthurs and Collins have traveled extensively throughout many foreign countries, giving them a strong insight into the background of world news.

The ladies around WRFD "listening land", look forward to the daily radio visits with Marianne Tomlinson, heard every morning at 10:30 a.m. Marianne visits many area women's groups in person through out the year.

WRFD expects its new WRFD-FM station to be on the air about May 1. The FM station will operate on a frequency of 97.9 megacycles with an effective radiated power of 186,000 watts from the tallest FM antenna in Central Ohio. Programming will continue to be of the type that is now well received daily in thousands of Ohio homes. WRFD-FM will operate from 6 a.m. to 1 a.m. daily.



WRFD-AM is licensed to operate from local sunrise to sunset hours with a power of 5,000 watts on a clear channel frequency of 880 kc. The station's primary coverage area reaching 72 of the 88 Ohio counties. There is actually secondary coverage reaching into Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana and Michigan, station officials said.

THE WRFD STUDIO today is rated one of the finest and best equipped in the Midwest. The building, of Williamsburg architecture, is located on Rt. 23, five miles north of Worthington. This familiar structure has been visited by many an Ohioan as well as people from out of the state and out of country.

IDLE HOUR GUIDE

Network Radio Choir To Be Here Channels 10, 34 To Co-op Ideas

By Stan Robinson

WBNS-TV will exchange programs and talent with WOSU-TV in an unusual co-operative television venture

John Haldi, Channel 10 program director, stated that to the best of his knowledge this is the first instance that the supposedly unbridgeable gap between commercial and educational television has been spanned.

Robinson

"Play of The Week" will be the first Channel 10 program to be featured weekly on Channel 34 beginning in late March or early April. "University Hall," Channel 10, 7:30 a.m., is one of the first university programs to be on WBNS-TV.

Richard B. Hull, director of the Ohio State University Telecommunications Center, summed up the project: "The new co-operative association between WBNS-TV and the television broadcasting facilities of the university has great potential." Jean Hoover of "TV Kindergarten" will be among the first of Channel 10 talent staff to appear on 34.

One of America's top collegiate choirs which performs every week on the Mutual Network's "The Back to God Hour," will appear in a special concert at the Overbrook Presbyterian Church at 8 a.m. Tuesday, Mar. 28. Sponsored here by the Olentangy Christian Reformed Church, the 65-voice choir is composed of students at Calvin College in Grand Rapids.

"Sing Alonog With Mitch," will return to the NBC-TV net on a weekly basis starting Sept. 28, as part of the fall lineup. Mitch Miller's program of familiar, singable tunes, was first presented as a single broadcast on NBC-TV's "Ford Startime," in the spring of 1960. Public response was overwhelmingly favorable and the net promptly signed up the "Sing Along Gang" for a series of additional programs on the current alternating Friday night schedule on Channel 4.

The "Ingrid Bergman Special" presents "Twenty-Four Hours In a Woman's Life," starring Ingrid Bergman, Rip Torn, John Williams and others. The story to be seen Monday at 9 p.m. on 10, concerns a respectable English widow who falls in love with a young American in Monte Carlo and pays his gambling debts on the condition that he will give up gambling forever . . . also of interest will be the "Secret Life of James Thurber" with Orson Bean and Adolph Menjou on the June Allyson show Monday night at 10:30. Unable to concentrate in his suburban Connecticut home, a cartoonist opens an office in New York City . . .

Kippers at breakfast, bowlers at noon and Piccadilly circus at night are among the many customs of London that Jack Paar will re-live when he makes his second trip to England. Portions of four shows will be presented on tape, Mar. 21, through 24 on Channel 4. Peggy Cass will be the only "regular," accompanying the program to London to appear on the guest panel. A "best of Paar" program, taped from a previous show will be seen Monday night. Following the London originations, Paar and family will vacation in the Middle East.

NOTES OF INTEREST: Repeats of "Playhouse 90," productions are to serve as summer replacements for CBS-TV's "Red Skelton Show" and the "Gary Moore Show," probably to commence July 4 on Channel 10 . . . Bill Cullen fans take note: "Price Is Right' and "I've Got a Secret" now likely for Monday night time periods next fall.

The "Omnibus" presentation on NBC-TV, for Apr. 16, will examine the Monroe Doctrine and the current situation in Latin and South America . . . George Fenneman, announcer on the Groucho Marx show, will emcee the new game show on CBS-TV, "Surprise Package" seen on 10 . . . Because the United States and Mexico have elected new Presidents since last year, the repeat showing of that little league epic, "How Tall Is a Giant?" will have an undated narration by host Ernie Ford. It is slated for Channel 4 and NBS Thursday, Mar. 23.

Louis G. Cowan, creator of "The $64,000 Question" and former president of CBS-TV, will be named Dean of Brandeis University's newly-created school of communications . . . "Lucy on Broadway," a one-hour special that will be filmed on the spring is now set for CBS-TV Dec. 3 . . . Art Carney has signed for "Young At Heart," a one-hour salute-to-spring that will star singer Jane Powell, NBC-TV, Apr. 28.

Have you entered the "Spring Low" and "Spring High" contests being conducted on Channel 4, WLW-C? The deadline is Friday midnight (the 17th). Channel 4's weather shows in the morning at 7:25 and 10:25 Jack Davis host of Jack's house, daily at 9 a.m., have details.

Your 1961 Easter seal contribution is needed and will go a long way in buying equipment and services.

'Best Citizen' Accolade To Ollie Oelgoetz

BERWICK MAN RECEIVES TOP EASTERN REVIEW HONOR

BEST CITIZEN OLLIE OELGOETZ
At the Top of the "Outstanding" List

Ollie Oelgoetz, this year's "Best Citizen," is a man of many organizations.

Oelgoetz, of 1280 Medford-rd in Berwick, was selected for the honor by a team of impartial judges after nominations were received by the Eastern Review.

His selection is based upon "outstanding community service" during the past year.

The "Best Citizen" award was initiated a year ago by the Hartley Newspapers to give public recognition to persons who have proved themselves as citizens of the community in which they live.

Nominated were Scout leaders, a mailman, teachers, and engineer, clergyman, housewives, politicians . . . and even one little girl who praised her mother in two hand-scrawled pages.

Oelgoetz will be presented an appropriate certificate at a public meeting in his community sometime in the near future.

The phrase "oustanding community service" must have been invented for Oelgoetz. He belongs to a multitude of organizations that range from aiding children to promoting wrestling to counseling politicians.

A look at the list of the organizations to which he belongs will support his recognition as this year's "Best Citizen."

He spends a considerable amount of time toward the improvement of the Columbus Recreation Department, serving this year as president of the Recreation Commission. He forsees a great need for development of parks and recreation sites on the East Side of Columbus.

He is active in United Appeals Drives, chairman of the boxing and wrestling commission, for 13 years was chairman of a local draft board, a past president of the Columbus Zooligans, an organization that aids the Columbus Zoo financially and gives aid to the Boys Club.

And that's not all: He is a life member of the National Athletic Union and has served as national committeeman. He is also on the Board of Trustees of Veterans Memorial and is active in work with Franklin Village.

He is a past president of the Agonis Club, the Ace of Clubs, a World War I veteran, who served in the Marine Corps, past president of the Central Ohio Amateur Athletic Union. He is a member of the Ohio American Softball Association and has maintained an interest in baseball for over 25 years.

In fact, he has recently accepted a position as a director of the Board of Directors of the Columbus Jets, and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Franklin County Democrat organization, "has been for 20 years."

More includes memberships in the Columbus Auto Club, the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, and others too numerous to list.

He was instrumental in helping the courthouse annex be built and was chairman of the building committee for Franklin County.

His interest in sports goes back 40 years ago, Oelgoetz recalls, to the South Side when his team won the first softball championship in 1921. Along with his post on the Jets, he is president of the Home Plate Club.

For the past 28 years, he has been associated with the

Tax Paying Is Made Entirely Too Simple

It has often been observed that tax withholding by the employer dulls the tax bite so that the average citizen gets the mistaken idea he is getting something for nothing when the federal government spends money for various projects.

We have long contended that tax paying is made entirely too simple. Our easy pay system caused many employes to think in terms of their "take home pay" only.

Out in a Minnesota town an employer paid his employes their full week's wages and took all the withholding and other taxes out of the last week's pay in the month. A man earning $100 per week had a check that week of but $23.60.

Needless to say the complaints against the government were loud and furious when the employees came face to face with facts. We all need some kind of similar

Republicans Move Into Majority As Gorrell Replaces Al Kirchner

A series of swift events at the start of Whitehall council session this week found 3rd Ward Democrat A. C. Kirchner resigning, Republican Donald Gorrell succeeding Kirchner and Robert Garnon resigning as president pro-tem.

The councilmanie exchange leaves the Republicans in control by a 4 to 3 margin, with a Republican council president.

Kirchner, who was on the scene a scant three minutes at the start of the session, submitted his resignation with the statement "Due to a deep and sincere sense of responsibility to the community, and hampered by many perplexing problems of the city as a whole, I am submitting my resignation effective as of this date."

Republicans hopped on the resignation by inserting Gorrell's name for nomination. The three remaining Democrats on council, Loren Mason, Richard Hyatt and Garnon went along with the Republicans.

Kirchner's resignation was not completely unexpected. Some time ago, the 3rd Ward Democrat submitted his resignation, but retrieved it before it reached council floor.

Gorrel, 37, of 4482 Chandler-dr, is also vying for the 3rd Ward post in the coming Republican primary.

Garnon had no comment to make as to why he resigned as president pro-tem. He also asked to be relieved as a member of the police pension fund, stating that the "meeting time was not satisfactory."

With Gorrel sworn in and seated, solons took up the subject of a 24-acre park site proposed east of Hamilton-rd. Mason reported that his service committee had presented a diverse number of attitudes.

Mason said that he would like to have more time to study an ordinance requesting that an engineering survey and appraisal be approved.

He felt, he said, that "it would be ridiculous to put this much money into one park," although he recognized the need for more recreational sites in the city.

Orton Davis replied that "we are 5 to 10 years behind the park situation right now. If we have to wait a few months, we may be too late. We need a large park with a good central location."

Mason rebutted that he was "not opposed to a park, but I am opposed to spending such a large sum of money for one park. Too many other things are needed." He then said that he might be forced to call a public hearing "as service committee chairman."

J. Craig Wright, safety director, noted that "this ordinance authorizes the solicitor to retain an appraiser and to get an engineer survey." He told newsmen that the cost of the park will be approximately $40,000 to $45,000.

Mayor Walter Moling stated that "Mason's request is not out of line. If I were on council, I'd vote to give Mason's committee more time."

Wright rejoined "that we have sat on this thing for six weeks now. We cannot give it an intelligent study until we get an appraisal."

Graduates' Service To Be At Night

Traditional afternoon baccalaureate service at Whitehall High School will not take place this year.

Instead, the school board has gone along with a recommendation, after consulting the local ministerial association, to have the service at 8 p.m.

Superintendent Robert Crabbs feels that "in this way, it will be more of a community service." Baccalaureate will take place on the athletic field, weather permitting.

The reason for the change is that the board feels that afternoon services impose too much of a rush on people returning from church to ready themselves for baccalaureate.

At last week's meeting, the Whitehall board also hired Dan A. Carmichael as architect for the proposed new elementary building. Carmichael has done the work on the Beechwood and Rosemore buildings. As yet, Crabbs related, no name has been chosen for the new building. Whether or not the new

ETNA ROAD PRINCIPAL JACK BROWN
From Japan, An Art Exhibit

Japanese Youngsters Pictures On Display

Pictures from Japan adorn the inside entrance at the Etna Road Elementary School in Whitehall. It's all part of an educational-cultural exchange coordinated by Stelios M. Stelson, a civilian employe at the Columbus General Depot.

According to Etna Road Principal Jack Brown, Stelson lived in Japan after the war and "personally knows over 100 Japanese school principals."

This program, Brown explained, has the backing of the Japanese Board of Education. "Stelson would like to get more schools interested in participating in the exchange program," Brown noted.

"He has," the principal stated, "more pictures coming from Japan than there are American schools participating."

Brown said that the current display is tabbed with the name, age and sex of the youngster that created it. Brown thinks that the program could lead into a "pen-pal" club.

One of the subtle differences noted between Japanese youngsters' pictures and that of American grade schoolers is that those from the Oriental land are completely "filled" in with color or background drawings.

"Some of the four-year-old pictures are truly mature and

New City School Planned

Columbus School Board took steps Tuesday to assure housing by next September for an expected increase of 4000 in the city student population.

A new elementary school in the area and a planned addition to an existing elementary will add 18 and possibly 22 classrooms to Eastern Columbus schools.

The new, 12 or 14-classroom Woodcrest School will be constructed at 5321 E. Livingston-av, and six or eight classrooms will be added to Scottwood School, 3392 Scottwood-rd.

Woodcrest's location will make it the farthcrest east school in the city system.

The board approved construction plans for Woodcrest, and set an Apr. 27 deadline for bids.

Bids are requested for a 12-classroom building with an alternate bid for two additional classrooms. Cost of the project will determine size of the building.

Drawings and specifications for the addition to Scottwood were also okayed Tuesday. Deadline for bids on six classrooms with an alternate bid for eight classrooms, was set for Apr. 28.

5th Avenue EUB Church Dates Cantata

The Chancel Choir of the Fifth Avenue EUB Church, 25 W. Fifth-av, will present a cantata "The Seven Last Words" by Dubois on Maundy Thursday, Mar. 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Assisting the choir as soloists in the presentation will be two music majors from Capital University, soprano, Margaret Lautenbach, and tenor, Richard Mathey. Larry Leay, from Otterbein College, will sing the baritone solos. This choir is directed by Lawrence J. Gillum. Mrs. Lawrence J. Gillum presides at the organ console.

A preludial recital of organ music will begin at 7:15 p.m. Following the cantata, Holy Communion will be served by Dr. C. M. Bowman, pastor of the church.

Cars In Demand

Spring, good weather and fresh rising streams all mean people are looking for that second car for fishing. H. R. Hodges, 1638 W. Mound-st, found this out when he advertised his 1953 Pontiac in the classified section of the Hartley Newspapers. The car was sold quickly with many calls, as can be yours if you call BR. 4-1155.

Maxwell To Push Garnon Case Through Court

SOLICITOR CLAIMS COUNCILMAN IN VIOLATION OF STATE LAW

By John Poeppelmeyer

The Republican City Solicitor of Whitehall will begin his move to oust the 2nd Ward Democratic councilman within a few days.

James Maxwell has asserted that Robert Garnon is "holding two public offices which is in violation of the state code. He plans, he says, to bring the matter before the court and expects a decision within 30 days.

Garnon, on the other hand, states that he has had no words with Maxwell over the impending matter. "I really have no comment," Garnon said.

"I have no defense to offer," and as for his part, "I do not intend to get into the matter. After all, Mr. Maxwell has been the only one to have anything to say about it."

Last week Maxwell shot off a letter to Gov. DiSalle stating that Garnon had a "complete disregard" for the law and noted that Garnon was using the governor's name to protect his position.

Maxwell, in his letter, also stated that "Garnon has said in effect that your name on his appointment gives him the right to violate the law of Ohio."

Wednesday, DiSalle's reply reached Maxwell.

In his letter, DiSalle mentioned that "an attorney general's opinion in 1932 states that a councilman may hold no other public office except as a notary public or as a member of the state militia."

At that time "this was construed to mean that he could not serve as a deputy registrar of motor vehicles. However," the governor's letter noted, "the statute has since been changed, eliminating the term 'public employee'."

"This is now interpreted to indicate that there are no such restrictions on a councilman and that he may serve as a deputy registras of motor vehicles."

The governor went on to state that he had not heard any of the statements by Garnon that Maxwell had referred to.

DiSalle suggested that "as city solicitor, if you feel that Mr. Garnon is in violation of the law, you might bring a quo warranto action questioning his authority to serve as a councilman."

Replying to the governor's statement, Maxwell said that "Mr. DiSalle's interpretation that a deputy registrar is public employment is incorrect, it is a public office."

Maxwell said that he will attack the validity of Garnon remaining on council on the grounds that as deputy registrar his actions are not subject to direct supervision and control of any official of the state.

"Garnon hires his own employes and rents his own offices to perform his duty as deputy registrar. It is," Maxwell asserts, "a basic law of agency."

In order to bring the case to court, Maxwell has been appointed as a special assistant prosecuting attorney by Franklin County prosecutor Earl W. Allison.

Maxwell contends, as of now, Garnon's council seat is vacant and has also stated that "this is not a political thing, but a test of a point of law."

Garnon, meanwhile, has stated that he "does not rent his office, nor has he any employes. Mr. Maxwell is pursuing his own course through his own judgment."

Garnon, who is also running as a Democratic candidate for mayor, does not feel that this recent issue "will have any effect on my candidacy."

GOP 4; Dems 3, But Siemer 'Non-Partisan'

New Atmosphere Prevails In Whitehall's Chambers

By John Poeppelmeyer

With the accepted resignation of A. C. Kirchner this week from council, the entire complexion of the Whitehall council has changed from the one the voters sent to office over a year ago.

In January of 1960, the tally stood at five Democrats and two Republicans with a Democratic council president. Since that time, Democrats have been falling by the wayside.

With the swearing in of Donald Gorrell as Kirchner's replacement this week, the score stands at four Republicans and three Democrats under a Republican council president.

And too, as the Democrats have left, so has the "inter" and "intra" party squabbling, at least it is the appearance that council presents to the public.

Some Democratic eyebrows were raised this week when the three remaining Dem solons made no move to oppose the installation of a Republican in Kirchner's place. But as Loren Mason noted, "We should run council not as a Democrat or as a Republican but from the standpoint of what is good for the city."

Republican leader Ray Shipley, an old hand at watching councilmen come and go, also noted that "we have no disagreement with the Democrats on this matter."

On the other hand, some Republicans, notably those on the outside trying to get in, have grumbled that "Mayor Moling now has his own council."

But on the whole, council is more serene, more domesticated, more mature, more dedicated to the work at hand. Democrats and Republicans alike have been heard to voice the opinion that "much of it is due to Council President Walter Siemer's handling of the situation."

Siemer allows no folly to impede the handling of bills. He is quick to clamp down when a "lively" debate is likely to erupt.

His attitude is that of trying to maintain a non-partisan role as council president and he expects the members of council to behave in the same manner. At times, he has been known to call a fast recess when a subject or discussion is about to get out of hand.

In his council appointments to various committees, Siemer has tried to split any political faction right down the middle expanding some committees to include four men, two from each party instead of the traditional three men to a committee.

As one top level Democrat said, "I have a feeling that the people are tired of all the notoriety that has emanated from the Whitehall council chambers. It's time we started thinking of the city and of the people first."

Under the new atmosphere that prevails in Whitehall council chambers, even the most partisan member of the Republican party would have to go along with that.

Crabbs also said that he will recommend to the board that they pay a smaller amount to the County Welfare Board for aid to retarded children than the $200 per child rate requested.

Crabbs said he will ask the board to pay an amount equal to that received from local taxes for each child. The amuont he said would be approximately $160.

The board took a tour of the language laboratory and were "impressed with the operation," Crabbs said. He added that six new units will be available next September.

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

Sweeper Company Growth Reviewed

Recipe for success: Learn a specialty trade well. Join the Coast Guard. Save your money. Go into business for yourself when you return to civilian life. Work like the devil, using your special skills.

That formula has worked well for Richard Thompson who, at 38, is the sole owner of the largest plant in the Midwest that rebuilds vacuum sweepers.

Latest step up the ladder of success for Thompson was moving to 1124 Parsons-av. at Cline st, from 133 Thurman-av. The new combination plant and sales room gives him twice as much space as before.

Thompson is proud of the fact that his company is authorized to sell and service Hoover sweepers, floor washers, floor polishers and rug shampooers.

"Working for us are the oldest Hoover factory-trained mechanics in Columbus, including Eddie Bolin, who has had 24 years' experience on Hoover appliances," Thompson said.

He is equally proud of his eight other mechanics.

When Thompson was 15 he began learning his trade at Vacuum Cleaner Repair, 112 E. Long-st. His uncle, Herbert Bolin, broke him in. Now the uncle — with 32 years' experience in repairing and rebuilding vacuum sweepers — works for Thompson. He lives at 1626 S. Eighth-st.

Thompson's brother, George, with 16 years' experience, is service manager. George Thompson lives at 4080 Broadview-rd, Gahanna. Richard Thompson lives at 1421 Millerdale-rd, Berwick.

Young Richard Thompson had five years' experience in sweeper service when he joined the Coast Guard in January, 1943. He saved his money so when he was discharged in February, 1946, he could start in business in a little green building across the street from his present address. Growth of the business necessitated a move to 133 Thurman-av, in November, 1951.

"We can service any make of vacuum sweeper and we have parts in stock for all makes," Richard Thompson says. "Our shop, completely remodeled, can turn out 200 rebuilt sweepers and service 60 to 80 others in a week."

Central Sweeper Exchange, which has advertised in all the Hartley Newspapers for years, guarantees rebuilt sweepers for one year. It has a free pickup and delivery service for Columbus.

The firm has four salesmen, who sell rebuilt sweepers to dealers as far away as Texas.

The remodeled building formerly housed a public library. Later, Buckeye News was located there.

Thompson and his wife, Carma Lee, have two children, Pamela, 15, and Timothy Richard, three.

"Already Tim has started to fool around with the vacuum sweepers," Thompson said with a twinkle in his eye. "Wonder what he'll grow up to be."

Eastmoor High School's
Warriors' Spear-It

By Martha Braskett

Representatives Picked For Girls', Boys' State

Janice Moltenberry and Barry Hilton have been chosen as the Eastmoor representatives to this year's Buckeye Girls' and Boys' State. The conventions are sponsored by the American Legion.

During the 10 days of the conventions, the participants will learn more about the functions of the government.

The "Youth Reports" series on the Chet Long Show featured a film about school life at Eastmoor Tuesday at 7 p.m. Heide Kreutzer, a foreign student from Germany who is studying at Eastmoor, narrated the film written by the radio speech class. The film is part of a contest between radio speech classes in the area, with a $500 prize for the best.

The preliminary district state scholarship tests will be given Wednesday. Tests will be given in English, mathematics, social studies, science and foreign languages. Most students are permitted to take tests in two subjects. Seniors may take three tests.

Majorette tryouts for next year will be held Apr. 11 after school. Only girls who are in instrumental music activities may try out.

Members of the Speech and Debate Club participated in extemporaneous speaking at their last club meeting. Each member selected a topic one day before the meeting and prepared a three to five minute speech on it.

Club plans for the future include interpretative readings, dramatic declamations, humorous declamations, and oratorical speaking.

Eastmoor's track team participated in the Greater Columbus indoor track meet Saturday at the French field house on the Ohio State campus. Nineteen teams participated. Linden placed first with 37 points and Eastmoor scored four points.

Saturday the band, choir and girls' glee club competed in district competition at Whitehall Yearling High School. The choir and girls' glee club received a rating of II. The band received a rating of I, which is considered superior.

Karen Wilkins, Linda Schaedel, Paul Turner and Sue Minner have had their art work accepted for the annual all-city art exhibit at the Fine Arts Gallery.

Spelling Contest Winners Will Be Honored At Dinner

Seven of the 84 students who entered the NOMA spelling contest from Whitehall received perfect scores on both the tests. They will be recognized at a dinner on Apr. 25 at the Ohio Union and will be presented certificates for proficiency.

Seven other students who made perfect scores on one of the tests will be given certificates.

Students who scored 100 per cent in both tests include James King, Ron Rose, Carol Snyder, Bob Walker, Sue Barnhill, Karen Sutphen and Phyllis Levine. Those who made scores of perfect in one test were Bev Taylor, Sue Johnson, Roberta Gloyd, Ray Harper, Susan Skuller, Paula Long and Carol Smith.

The contest, sponsored by the National Office Management Association, was administered in schools throughout central Ohio on Mar. 9 and 14.

The general aptitude test battery was given to 80 juniors and seniors enrolled in the cooperative education course, on Mar. 14, 15 and 16.

The test is sponsored by the Ohio Employment Service to help graduating students find employment for which they are most suited, after graduation.

The fourth annual PTA Talent Show for Whitehall Yearling is planned for Mar. 24. The theme of the talent show will be "A Little Bit of Broadway." The 24 acts include the Dixieland band Ramettes, girls' ensemble and boys' ensemble. Mrs. Raymond Wilson is in charge of the entire program.

Because of the recent illness of Director Kline, dates for "Room for One More," the school play, have been advanced. The play was originally scheduled for April but will now be presented May 11, 12 and 13. Rehearsals began this week. There has been a change in the cast. Bob Hutchinson will replace Fred Ecker as Poppy.

The district band and chorus contest was held at Whitehall on Saturday. The testing began at 8 o'clock and lasted until late afternoon. Those bands and choruses which received "I" ratings will enter state competition on Apr. 29.

Mrs. Osborne should be given credit for the refreshments served recently at the faculty meetings. The treats were prepared by the boys' and girls' cooking classes.

Seniors Honored

Two seniors at Bishop Hartley High School were honored for academic excellence with scholarships to St. Mary of the Springs College beginning in September.

Lucy Ryan has been awarded a four-year scholarship renewable each year upon maintenance of honor standing. Virginia Kastl, another Hartley senior, was awarded a two-year scholarship to St. Mary of the Springs.

Bishop Hartley High Awarded Safety Plaque

An engraved bronze plaque was presented to the faculty of Bishop Hartley High School for encouragement of student participation in the All-Ohio School Safety Poster Contest.

The plaque is an honor school award given by the Ohio Department of Education and The Industrial Commission of Ohio, Division of Safety and Hygiene. The only other school in the southeast Ohio area to receive this award was Aquinas High School.

Outstanding student participant in the poster contest was Mary Jo Enderle, a Hartley senior, who received honorable mention for her art work in furthering the project.

Walk in—life looks better when you walk out

Follow the leader . . . In the ever-mounting bustle of modern living it is increasingly difficult for many families to set aside even a few minutes each day when they can all be together—conscious of each other as a family. We are living in the "pressure decade"—where some children are "orphaned" from Monday to Friday by demands on their parents' time . . . and home becomes just a place to get telephone messages.

Some growing families are facing both busy, diverging schedules and the first stirrings of teen-age independence; they have discovered unity is almost a forgotten word, as they drift off their separate ways.

Who sets the pattern in your family? Won't you show the members of your family how to find new time to be with each other? Help them discover the powerful new experience of Faith . . . and the new strength and unity that Faith can bring. Help them discover the rewards of regular worship at your Church or Synagogue.

Nine Lettermen Return For Baseball Season

The Rams of Whitehall are looking forward to a top baseball season this spring with returning lettermen to support their building program.

Coach Ted Georgeff reports his two top pitchers of last season will be returning, along with Bill Compton, returning to the Whitehall diamond after a year's absence while in another school district.

Sophomore pitchers Bill Dildine and Tom Smith are expected to give the boost which the relatively young squad will need to get off to a good start.

The two hurlers performed well last year even in the face of a poor season and Georgeff expressed hopes the squad will pick up the spirit and determination of the two youthful pitchers.

Other returning lettermen are Bill Gornall, catcher, Bob Leonard, second base, Randy Welsch, outfield, southpaw first sacker Bob Walker, Ralph Sompress, shortstop, Howie Bailey, third base, and Larry Wolfe in the outfield.

Top newcomers in addition to Compton are Dave Millington, outfield, and Sam Maxwell, first base. Woody Robinson and Bill Sherman are the managers and Shook Moreland will assist Georgeff with the coaching duties.

Honor All High Athletes, College Coaches Of Year

The Columbus Dispatch held its Seventh Annual Major Sports Banquet at the Ohio Union Mar. 20, honoring members of the All-High Basketball and Football teams.

Columbus sportswriter Lou Berliner served as toastmaster and Paul Hornung, Dispatch and John Thompson, Hamilton Sports Editor, presented the Ohio College Coaches of Year awards. Recipients this year were William Hess, Ohio University, Football Coach of the Year, and Jim Snyder, Ohio University, Basketball Coach of the Year.

Guest speaker of the evening was Buckeye cage boss Fred Taylor, who praised the boys on their athletic accomplishments and urged them to remember, that in college as in high school, academic matters must receive first consideration and sports second.

The coach of the OSU champs reminded the honor group to live clean lives on and off the field of sports, pointing out the notoriety of athletes in trouble.

Dayle Frazier, Sr., executive managing editor, presented Dispatch All High Awards to the following boys in the Hartley Newspapers circulation areas.

COACH DOES DOUBLE JOB

WRESTLING AWARDS were presented by Ted Georgeff to his grapplers at the winter sports convocation, held recently at Capital University. Georgeff is shown on the left, giving instructions to John Trautman, center, and Paul Wrobbell. The Capital University wrestling team finished the season with a 4-3 record, and placed 11th in the Ohio Conference Match. Georgeff is the head baseball, and assistant football coach at Whitehall High School. This year he handled the wrestling team at Capital, his alma mater. Georgeff graduated from Capital in 1956, and while at Capital lettered four years in varsity football. Wrobbel is a sophomore at Capital, and this year lettered in the mat sport by participating in the 157 pound weight class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wrobbel of 755 Bernhard-dr, and is a graduate of Whitehall Yearling High School where he lettered one year on wrestling. Trautman, who wrestles in the 123 lb. weight class, is from Circleville.

Rams Show Early Signs Of Success

Whitehall's trackmen demonstrated some of their top-notch ability at the recent Indoor Meet at Ohio State by walking off with several seconds and an impressive first place in pole vaulting to get the season rolling.

Robbie Neutzling led the team attack with a 12'3" pole vault to capture first place and sophomore Don Smith ran second in his first appearance in the mile race.

Team captain Jerry Millington did his share in getting the cindermen off to a good start by taking second place in both hurdle events.

The Rams will have 10 lettermen to get things rolling with this year and several promising newcomers. High in contention for a starting booth among the new men is Mike Short, discus thrower.

Other returning lettermen are Bob Ranke, 100-yard dash and 220; Jack Hout, one mile relay; Danny Gartner, 880 and one mile relay; Bob Densham, high jump and second place winner in the Junior Olympics; Clark Fuller, hurdle and relay runner; Mike Beery, pole vaulter; and Don Justice, shot put.

Pat McMillin is track coach and Jim Bline is assistant.

Eisenstein: He Must Play All Parts

By JOHN POEPPELMEYER

He shouts like a dock hand, gestures like a politician, worries like a newspaperman at deadline time, counsels like a minister and at times has to walk like a woman.

Yet he is none of these.

"He" refered to is Harold Eisenstein, a top-notch professional director in theatrical circuits that have ranged from Hollywood to tv-land and to the Gallery Players' roost at the Columbus Jewish Center, where he is currently in the throes of presenting "A View From the Bridge."

All of the above antics took place long before the "show hit the road" as the saying goes, during rehearsal.

Interspersed in his comings and goings are other comings and goings of stage men, relaxing actresses and actors, time outs for coffee, asides to his pert secretary, Mrs. Eisenstein, for notes for future references to his cast.

A couple of notes: "Beatrice came in too fast . . . don't be afraid to laugh at the kiss . . . keep looking at food . . . aim at the motorcycle, at the audience . . . what happened to the snap of the fingers and the clap of the hands . . . time out for a pix . . ."

Also included in Director Eisenstein's repertoire is the need to know where certain stage props are to be located at specific times:

"That black chair was never removed . . . keep it as far down as possible . . . look up yesterday's notes . . ."

Along with the obvious, to a director, come such exclamations as a disgruntled "Oh, No!" "Smile," he says in a side whisper, and he smiles.

Along with the rehearsal the confusion that will blend into a creditable, orderly performance, with entrances coming on time, cues being given loudly, came the news, some weeks ago, that his top stage hand had quit. Another one "who has done a magnificent job," took over.

A break and conferences take over with both player and director exchanging advice. "You'll have to be better tomorrow night. I couldn't believe your part just now." "I know. I'll have it down." "You missed that one line. It should have had a laugh." "I'm sorry."

Suddenly breaking from the discussion to mimic the way an actress should come on stage, darting a glance at his wife's notes, then forgetting what they mean.

But the performance, as usual, under Harold Eisenstein, with actor and actresses clipping along with marionette quality guided by the unseen hands that have pulled the strings week after week until he can do no more than what he has done, is of the best.

For Harold Eisenstein, a man who plays all the parts, then depends upon the stage puppets playing theirs, the thing is "the director must go on."

DIRECTOR EISENSTEIN AND WIFE-SECRETARY AT "VIEW" REHEARSAL
The Thing Is, The Director Must Go on.

THREE WITH leads in the Gallery Players production at the Jewish Center of "A View From the Bridge," at the Jewish Center Thursday, Saturday and Sunday are Edith Mendelson, Ray Stawiarsky and Judith Moss. The play is directed by Harold Eisenstein.

intelligent," Brown noted.

Pictures are drawn or painted with chalk, water colors, and paper art.

As to be expected, a number of the Japanese creations include butterflies. But others, in which people are depicted, show the figures in western garb.

The pictures are from schools in Tokyo. Brown says that his school sent pictures created by youngsters from grades one through five.

Heer Printing Company.

Ask Oelgoetz when he has time to take care of everything and he will reply that he is on the "go" most of the time.

As for his reaction to being named "Best Citizen," Oelgoetz considers it a "very, very fine honor to be considered among the outstanding men in the East end.

This year, Mr. Oelgoetz, the Eastern Review considers you at the top of the outstanding list.

All past commanders and presidents of the two groups present also will be recognized, along with the many district, county council and visiting post and auxiliary leaders who have been invited. A buffet lunch will be served following the program.

Commander Blair is a 35-year-old Jackson veteran of Air Force service during World War II, during which he was a bombardier with the rank of lieutenant. He and Mrs. Blair have five children, the oldest of whom was 14 when Blair was elected head of the Ohio organization of more than 100,000 Legionnaires. He is employed with the Goodyear Atomic Corp. at Piketon.

The outcome: all voted for the survey and appraisal.

Another division came up on the question of allowing the American Cancer Crusade to solicit for funds. Garmon, Masan and Hyatt voted against the request.

Hyatt stated that he would like a "slowing-down" of solicitations in the city. Ken McIntosh replied that "since other organizations have already been allowed to solicit, we should allow this one too. "Besides," he added, "we have no ordinance against it."

Davis' "clean-up" ordinance, to restrict "undesirable' businesses from coming into the community came in for a second reading and a public hearing was set on the matter for Apr. 4.

A resolution directing Service Director Robert Mickey to instruct the engineer to prepare plans for the improvement of Shady Lane-rd was approved. As yet, not enough signatures appear on a petition requesting sanitary sewer facilities. Davis has asked for time to acquire more. Hyatt feels that a definite "sanitary problem exists in the area."

Solicitor James Maxwell got a go-ahead on a second reading to negotiate for the services of a gas rate expert. The question was broached a fortnight ago when council learned that an increase in gas rates was being readied by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company.

Council also passed a resolution of necessity for the improvement of Yearling-rd from Broad to Main-st and will include a paved street, sewage lines, sidewalks and driveways.

Food For Thought

The following bit, picked up from an exchange gives us some food for thought:

"Has it ever occurred to you that in our social system the politician is enabled to reach a position of responsibility without having any training? He serves no apprenticeship. He masters no course of study. He need pass no examination as to his ability. He receives neither a diploma nor a license to practice. The veterinarian who doctors our dogs and cats is required to show more careful preparation for his calling than is the politician who seeks to direct not only our industrial but much of personal life."

Worth Repeating

The highest obedience in the spiritual life is to be able to always, and in all things, to say, "Not my will but thine be done."—Tyron Edwards.

Trapper Finds White Muskrat In Wood County

The 1950 trapping season will long be remembered by a Rudolph resident. Division of Wildlife field men were impressed, too.

Richard Lugabal was surprised one morning when running his traps to find he had caught a white muskrat. He reported his unusual catch to Ted Reigel, Wood County game protector.

Some time later, Lugabel announced he had taken another white muskrat, within 50 feet of the spot where the first was caught. He is having both animals mounted.

Game officials point out that since the two fur-bearers were taken within such close proximity, there is a strong possibility they may have come from the same litter.

UNDERGROUND STORAGE helps Ohio Fuel serve you better!

Huge, natural rock formations — thousands of feet underground in Ohio — are used by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company to store tremendous volumes of natural gas you need to heat your home in winter. These underground storage areas once contained supplies of "native" gas. This gas was used up several years ago. Now, gas piped to Ohio from Texas and Louisiana is pumped into the underground storage areas during summer. In winter it is withdrawn as needed to heat homes. On cold days as much as 55 per cent of the gas you use may come from storage. Nine out of every 10 Ohio Fuel customers have gas for heating their homes today because of underground storage — another step in Ohio Fuel's constant program of progress to serve you.

Extensive Radio, TV Coverage In OSU, High School Finals

By Stan Robinson

The stage is set for an exciting weekend of basketball on local radio and television stations with two main points of origination — St. John Arena in Columbus and Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo.

Robinson

Ohio State Buckeye action will be seen on Channel 6 and heard on WMNI and WTVN radio starting Friday night. WLW-C will cover the Ohio High School Tournament with two games on Friday night and the finale Saturday night. Jimmy Crum and Clark Smith will describe the play-by-play and the color of Ohio's top rated high school teams.

WMNI radio plans to present the Saturday night encounter in high school ball either direct or by delayed broadcast, depending on the outcome of the NCAA games involving Ohio State, but WMNI will offer the Bucks both nights either way.

The Ohio High School class A tourney on Friday and Saturday afternoons will be handled by WRFD radio and the popular voices of Bill and Dave Collins respectively. This is on the WRFD schedule for 1:15 Friday and 1:45 Saturday. This makes eight consecutive years for Dave Collins on the play-by-play. He is well known for his "Sports Final," five nights petr week at 5:45 p.m.

It seems a little confusing with so many starting times and numerous teams involved for the wrap-up of basketball in Ohio, but I'm sure most of us feel that the respective sponsors, stations and sportscasters are to be commended for the expansive "on the spot" reports to listeners and viewers, starting Friday afternoon.

Jonathan Winters, Dayton native and at one time a member of the Channel 10 staff, has accepted the honorary chairmanship of the 1961 Ohio Mental Health Association, Inc., Mental Health Week observance. It will be Apr. 30-May 6. Winters, first in five generations of his family not to enter the banking business, is now best known for his national television appearances and great comedy routines in leading supper clubs across the country. Jonathan got his first start by winning a prize in an amateur contest then on to WING Dayton, WBNS-TV in Columbus and thet. the start of things in New York.

A five-week series of programs on "Infant Care" is being seen on WLW-C Channel 4 every Wednesday at 10:10 a.m. as part of the continuing series, "Let's Live," produced in cooperation with the Columbus Department of Health. Mothers with their babies are guests on the "live" shows. A course on "Pre-Natal Care" was just completed on the series. Later in the season, another series on "Child Care," dealing with the older child will be seen. Betty Shepherd, public service director, Channel 4, reports that much mail has been received at the station showing appreciation for this series.

It was mentioned last week that the Collegiate Choir from the "Back To God Hour" would appear in a special concert Mar. 28 at the Overbrook Presbyterian Church and it is interesting to know that these "voices" are heard on WMNI radio Sunday mornings at 9:30. The 65-voice choir is composed of students at Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Gospel Wave Hour with Rev. Grayson Ferguson as radio pastor is now heard on WVKO radio along with the Harmony Crusaders Quartet Sunday evenings at 6. Dial 1580 for this inspirational half hour each week.

"Five Star Jubilee," a country music series on NBC-TV is the replacement for "One Happy Family" on Channel 4 Friday night at 8 p.m. This show will be seen the next four weeks with various hosts including Tex Ritter, Rex Allen, Jimmy Wakely and Carl Smith. Betty Johnson of the Paar show will make a couple of guest appearances on the series. It is originating "live" from the Landerson Theater in Springfield, Mo.

A Friday note for the ladies: "Appointment With Ann Reidder" will present the food editor of the Dispatch, Mary Pegg, as special guest for Ann's program at 12:15 p.m. Mar. 25 on Channel 10. . . CBS-TV's "Face The Nation" on Channel 10 will have an hour-long presentation in the form of a debate Thursday at 10 p.m. Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador to the United Nations, and Lord Robert Boothby, member of the British House of Lords meet to debate, "Should Red China Be Admitted To The U.N. Now?" Howard K. Smith will be chairman of the debate.

"The Way Of The Cross," a special award-winning Easter-time color program retracing the route Jesus took as he walked to his crucifixion on Calvary, will be repeated next Tuesday night on Channel 4 and NBC-TV, 10 p.m.

It was first shown last year and this time will have a new lead as given by newsman Frank McGee and filmed at the Riverside Church in New York City.

The program was filmed in the Holy Land without actors. It employs new documentary techniques to show scenes of Jesus' life as He might have seen them, starting with His birthplace in Bethlehem and culminating in the route He took during His last moments on earth as He bore the cross through Jerusalem. The cameras serve as the "eyes of Jesus" in this production.

Dr. Ollie M. Goodloe, city health commissioner, and Dr. Harold I. Humphrey, director of Benjamin Franklin (TB) Hospital, will represent the Tuberculosis Society in question-and-answer periods for eighth grade public school health classes following a 25-minute telecast on tuberculosis Tuesday, Mar. 28. WOSU-TV will beam the program on tuberculosis, sponsored by the Columbus Board of Education, to 37 classrooms.

HITTING THE BULLSEYE with your plug is necessary to bring bass out from stumps and other cover.

Casting Practice Can Make Big Difference In Catches

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Imagine yourself fishing in famed Lake Ouachita, near Hot Springs, Ark. You are casting for bass and crappies in the "dead timber" areas of the lake —acres of pine snags killed by lake waters and still standing. Casting room is limited, and your targets are wash tub-sized pockets in the brush.

Your casting accuracy, under adverse conditions, will mean the difference between catching fish, or merely losing lures.

Or, say you're wading Alum Creek and using artificials for smallmouth bass. You are casting around brushpiles and snags, fallen trees and rocks. Behind or beneath each one is a likely spot for bass, or several rock bass. Here again, accurate casting will yield a heavier stringer than a hit-and-miss technique.

Pin-point accuracy is not necessary, of course, to catch fish. But the man who can lay a plug in a "peephole" in the weeds, or bounce a lure off a stump in the water, or plop one down beside a submerged log, is the man who is going to have his picture taken when he gets to the dock.

If you can cast and drop practice plugs consistently into a bucket from the length of your backyard, then you are ready to do some bass fishing. However if you don't know within a radius of three feet where your plug is going to land, you'd better take time out for practice.

Hitting a fish on the head with a plug is not the recommended way of catching him. Instead, cast just beyond where you think a big one is waiting. Slowly work the lure just past his hideout, bringing him out with a splash as he sees a free meal struggling by. This system is particularly effective around weed beds and growths of cattails, favorite lurking places for a lunker largemouth specimen. And it works like a charm when the plug is cast accurately.

Camping Limited Park Chief Says

"Contrary to reports being circulated around the state, camping is not being eliminated at Kiser Lake State Park, Champaign County," V. W. Flickinger, chief of the Ohio Division of Parks, reported to the Natural Resources Commission.

"Camping at the east end of the lake is being prohibited until sanitary facilities can be installed to comply with health regulations."

JOHNSON PARK STUDENT DELVES INTO COMPUTER LOGIC

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Rita's Number 'Magic' Based Upon Science

"Take a number," goes the oft heard cant of the magician.

But, if one wants to keep up with the jargon of Rita Snyder, one had better be sure of the number.

Rita is a ninth grader at Johnson Park Junior High, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Snyder, of 3005 Templeton-rd.

Under the number systems delved into by this bright lass, one would be heard counting up to four—and no farther.

As part of a science fair project in the school, Rita did research into various type numerical systems, not usually undertaken in the classroom but in effect in electronic computers.

Her investigation took her back to the time when there were no numbers. As she stated in her report to the judges, "Before people began counting, they had but a visual sense of numbers.

"Eventually," she went on, "logic dictated that numbers be placed in small groups. Later, those groups became notches on a stick.

"Still later, it became apparent that in mathematics, words and symbols follow a pattern. For instance, 148 stands for ten tens, plus four tens, plus eight units."

Such a realization became the basis of the various type of number systems.

If one were to look around today, although most number work is related to money, which is based upon the decimal system of ten, there are other number systems in use.

When telling time for instance, one is using the base of the '60' number system. There is no need for saying "61 seconds." Counting stops at 59. Even the number 60 is referred to as 1, either minute or hour.

When using a ruler, one is using a number system based upon 12.

Rita, who plans on pursuing a science major when she reaches college, dug into the systems based upon the symbols 5 and 7.

"I bothered Mr. Garvey, my math teacher, at every opportunity. He is a wonderful advisor."

She also received help from IBM who sent to her pamphlets on the operation of computers as well as books concerning the history of mathematics.

Rita started her investigation with the symbol 5, since it is half of the base ten which we normally use, it is easier to understand.

"To begin," Rita explained, "it must be understood that in the '5' system, there is no digit higher than 4, such as in our base 10 system, there is no digit higher than 9.

"Thus, you would count: 1, 2, 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 20. . ."

In adding two numbers, for instance 7 and 10, in our system, the answer would be 17, but in the base 5 system, the answer would be 32; since 7 is equivalent 12, and 10 equivalent to 20.

It's not as easy as all that, but that one example should do for a starter.

Rita has worked out problems subtracting, multiplying and dividing. She also has worked on a base 7 system and has delved into using the 12 system. "You need more numbers, or symbols for that, however," she said, "since 10 and 11 are two digit symbols."

Although under these various systems, common, everyday

Bexley To Take Fresh Look At Traffic Woes

Lawmakers Reject Senior Citizens Site

"We must, said Roy Stage, during the latter stages of the Bexley council meeting, "do something about the parking situation."

Two weeks ago, solons turned thumbs down on a 2 to 6 a.m. ban. Stage "suspicioned" that council heard nothing but those opposed. Now I'm getting reaction from the 'proposed' side.

"I would say," he commented, "that there are six proponents to every one against."

Council President Charles Kurtz agreed: "The opposition all centered in one spot." He added that "we made one mistake."

"Some of the people would have been compelled to expend a considerable amount of money to provide off-street parking. We should have given them more time."

Stage feels council was "not wrong in principle, but in timing." The measure allowed only 30 days for people to prepare for the new law.

J. Roth Crabbe suggested an expert be hired, but Mayor William Schneider said, "It's not a question of a survey. We have all the information we need."

Crabbe said he is not convinced that "the ordinance was a solution to the problem. We need someone with a fresh point of view. Parking is just a part of our overall traffic situation."

Harrison Sayres agreed with the latter part of Crabbe's statement. He also pointed out that some of those at the hearing had some good ideas: One-way streets; no need for a blanket ordinance, make it applicable where needed.

Kurtz appointed Stage and Crabbe along with Solicitor Howard Park, to study the matter.

On the matter of the proposed Senior Citizens apartment site of Sheridan-av, Doyt Bell reported that the Engineering and Plats Committee denied the request of Hanford Associates for the site. Council accepted Bell's report, in effect rejecting the proposal.

A "fifth zoning" classification, that of "office" was approved.

The action, Park pointed out, does not provide for the establishment of any specific type of business. All plans, he said, must come before council, and council, likewise, can ask for a recommendation by the planning committee.

Bell's committee did report "favorably" on the Woodyard request for a funeral home at Francis and Livingston, but council took no action.

The "fifth zoning" move, however, does pave the way for the establishment of the funeral home, if council feels so inclined.

A number of residents between Main and Broad-sts will be out repairing sidewalks soon. At the request of Building Inspector W. A. Montgomery, council okayed the repair of "seven pages of sidewalks," as Park put it.

If the residents do not "correct" the sidewalks, Park said, the city will charge the homeowners. "If they do not pay, they will be assessed."

Legislators also agreed to eliminate the traffic signal at the corner of Mound and Montrose in favor of a four-way stop sign arrangement. The signs will go into effect in mid-June.

Like, Man, This Is It!

During the discussion over the proposed "fifth zoning classification," Monday night, and its bearing upon the establishment of a funeral home, J. Roth Crabbe was heard to ask, "What is an office?"

To which Charles Kurtz, Jr., countered, "What is a funeral home?"

W. O. Schoedinger retorted, "It's the end, that's what it is."

Kindergarten To Churches Next Year

Whitehall Faces Need For More Teachers, Classrooms

More teachers and more classroom space will be needed in Whitehall schools next September.

Part of the teacher allotlotment required in the 1961-62 school year was fulfilled Wednesday night with the hiring of a dozen new ones, Superintendent Robert Crabbs reported.

"But, overall," he related, "the district needs eight more teachers plus six more to replace those who are resigning" for one reason or another.

A majority of those needed are required at the elementary level, Crabbs said.

The reason for the instructor boost: an expected increased enrollment of approximately 300 youngsters over and above the number enrolled this year "making a total 'in excess of 5200," Crabbs said.

Ironically, Crabbs noted, along with the need for more teachers is the bleak fact that the district does not have eight more rooms to open up. He said it will be the "first year in a long time that this situation has existed.

It looks, he continued, "as if we will be sending the kindergarten youngsters into classrooms in churches. At the present time, he related four kindergarten classes are being conducted in churches. Next year, he said, six to eight will be there.

In addition to the kindergarten reassignments, music rooms will be utilized for classrooms.

Crabbs also said that the teacher replacement figure would be at the 10 per cent mark, which is less than it has been in the past, and that overall, the number needed would bring a 5 per cent increase.

In other board action Wednesday, it was agreed to con-

Eggs Will Abound Saturday

"The Eggs and Us" — an unexpected hundreds of "usses" — will be taking part in the traditional Easter Egg hunts in three sectors of the Eastern Review area Saturday.

At Whitehall, at Bexley and at Krumm Park, youngsters by the droves have been invited to participate in the annual event.

The Whitehall activity will take place in the field south of Eavey's Supermarket at 9:30 a.m.

Bexley's egg-spree will be at Jeffrey Mansion, between 3 and 4 p.m.

The Krumm Park hunt is scheduled to begin at 9 a.m.

Many of the events will have prizes galore for the lucky egg-finders.

Sponsors of the Whitehall hunt are Town and Country merchants, the Whitehall Police and Fire Departments and Boy Scout Troop 390. Some 3,000 eggs have been hidden over the field.

In addition to eggs, Bexley will have "Boonie" the clown-magician on hand with his tricks.

The hunt has been divided into age categories: Pre-school, kindergarten, first and second graders; third and fourth graders; fifth and sixth graders.

"All Bexley youngsters are invited," stated Paul Betz, head of the egg hunt committee. The event is under the auspices of the Bexley Celebrations Association.

Krumm Park age categories are divided into kindergarten and under, grades one through three, and four through six.

The eggs are being hidden by the East Columbus Recreation Department and the East Columbus Lions Club.

Wanted – 100 Men As Umpires

One hundred men are wanted—by the Whitehall Boys Baseball Association as umpires for the forthcoming season.

The diamond season is set to get under way. Registration for team try-outs takes place this Saturday, Apr. 1, at 9:30 a.m. at the WBBA Park on Kae-av.

But still needed, according to John A. Bishop, are men able to devote two hours per week to the game. "No experience is needed," Bishop outlined.

Age limit: 18 to 80. The only requirement is that the men must live in Whitehall.

Chief umpire is Dick Wells. President is Harold Fleck. Wells can be reached at BE. 5-0134. Fleck can be contacted at BE. 1-7236.

On Saturday, along with registration, young aspirants will be assigned to teams by the districts in which they live. They will meet their coaches and be informed as to practice hours.

MASTER PLAN ZONING RECOMMENDATIONS MADE

Zoning — usually a source of conflict within a community — has been approached with caution and foresight in the Whitehall Master Plan.

Rackoff and Associates, consultants for the over-all city plan, have critiqued "spot" zoning and have laid out, what they feel, is a "better balance" of residential areas to commercial and industrial sectors.

Even though, in their report, the planners noted that "the present zoning code has many of the required regulations pertaining to conditions and phases of community life necessary for orderly growth, and with consideration to the general welfare to promote the high standards of the community's economic and social status," they amend it with the statement that "the present maps were drawn up without thorough conditional study.

"Investigation shows that the present map appears to have been an outgrowth of restrictions based upon existing conditions and of trends of locality at the time of enactment."

"The master plan" map, they go on, "indicates a better balance of residential to commercial and industrial that is desirable of strategically located commercial sections to surrounding areas as compared to the present restrictions allowing commercial strip zoning to bisect, or nearly completely surround and isolate residential areas."

The planners call for larger medium and high cost single family and multiple dwelling districts.

They also urge establishing "continuity for present districts not fully developed and encouraging a higher caliber of building in underdeveloped areas." The Rackoff planners also commented that "some of the present residences do not meet modern zoning standards."

Among the many zoning recommendations made in the master plan, the consultants suggested that the classification of "farm district" be deleted and be considered "non-conforming."

They noted that the best single family housing should have a minimum lot area of 20,000 square feet; that the classification 'A-5-A' (720 square feet) should be deleted, as "this class has become predominate in Whitehall and is not of proper proportion with the overall use of land pattern."

"Restrictions on motors is unnecessary and should be deleted or rewritten as in the present form, even air-conditioning, heating devices and elevators would fall into this category."

Finally the planners note that they have created "a high density residential district coupled with limited office and local commercial application in a land use plan for a new apartment-residential-office district."

Shulman, Travel, Photography All Coming Your Way

Max Shulman, one of America's best-known humorists (Rally Round The Flag, Boys The Tender Trap; I Was A Teen-Age Dwarf; Barefoot Boy With Cheek) tells how, beginning with scrawling verses at the age of four, he had to "write or bust," in the April issue of Suburbia Today, which will come to subscribers wrapped in the Eastern Review next week.

If your going to Europe this summer, will you need a travel agent? Should you take a car? Can you use your own checks? Veteran travelers Luis and Jo Villalon offer 12 tips on how to enjoy your trip and find home, on your return, as secure as it was when you left.

Photography is fine art and belongs in museums as much as painting or sculpture, says Ivan Dmitri, director of a project called Photography In The Fine Arts. In the April issue of Suburbia Today he describes some of the recent controversy surrounding the subject, and shows striking photographs to prove his point.

Principal T. H. Mayer has been notified that Joyce Bachman of 305 S. Virginia Lee-rd, will receive Carnegie and Ford Foundation scholarships for further study.

Joyce

Joyce is a 1959 graduate of Eastmoor. "She was," Mayer said, "an excellent student, maintaining a 3.86 average."

She also did well, he noted, on the National Merit Qualification examinations.

Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bachman.

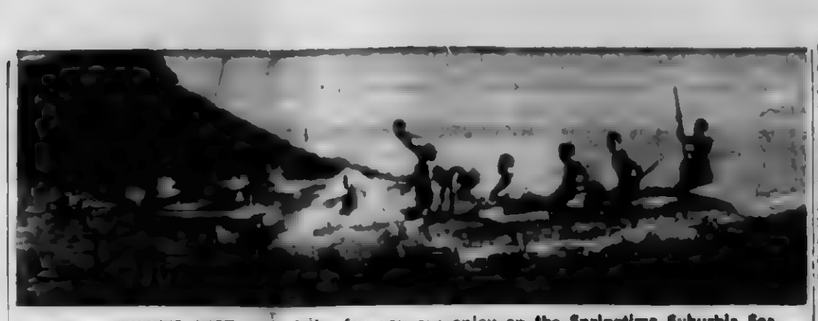
Sertoma Club Plans Party



The Eastern Sertoma club has made final arrangements for the club's charter party. Scheduled for Apr. 7, at 6:30 p.m., the party will feature a dinner and dance for charter members and other Sertomans, according to Joseph Murphy, the club's publicity director.

Joseph Rosati is in charge of arrangements for the dinner and tables while Woodrow latzer and Brad Salt are arranging for the orchestra. Corsages for the ladies will be furnished by the club.

The club membership voted for a nominating committee made up of Downtown and Tri-Village Sertoma Club members to present a suggested slate of candidates for election to offices in the club at the meeting of Tuesday, Apr. 4, when the indoctrination of new members will also take place, under the direction of District Governor Jim Burchfield and Past-President Fred Wright, both of the Downtown Sertoma Club.

Membership is open to business and professional men living or working in the Eastern Columbus area.

HERE'S JUST part of the fun you can enjoy on the Springtime Suburbia Sea Party in Hawaii, via the Matson Lines. See ad in today's Eastern Review for information regarding cruise.

CHILDREN AT SEA CAN HAVE WONDERFUL TIME

Thought of taking a cruise on an ocean liner, but putting it off "until the children get older?"

Go now—before they grow up—suggests Matson Lines, whose luxury liners, the SS Lurline and Matsonia, will be host to the "Suburbia Sea Party" to Hawaii this spring, being organized by the Eastern Review.

Taking children along on ship trips is a bargain, both for the pocketbook, and for parents' peace of mind, Matson Lines officials say.

Babies, up to a year old, get to travel for nothing. Children up to the age of three sail for one-fourth the fare of a parent. Youngsters up to the age of 12 go for half fare.

Children on a ship are something special to the officers—most of whom are family men. You often see deck stewards enlisting the "help" of some delighted youngster to put away the horses after the horse racing games, or to collect paper cups and plates after a picnic lunch.

The Matson liners provide playrooms, with supervised attendance by motherly stewardesses during certain hours each day at sea. Games are as abundant in these floating playrooms, as in any toy store ashore.

All deck sports, with the exception of trapshooting, are open to children. They probably have the most fun with shuffleboard, a game most seem to find hilarious, since the pushers are often twice their height.

If enough children are aboard, the ship's chef draws up special children's menus. (Otherwise, junior portions of the regular adult menu are served).

A typical recent Matson menu "keikis" (Hawaiian for children) started with a "pirate's cocktail" (orange and pineapple juice with a cherry on top, gave for a choice of entrees a "Farmer in the dell plate" (chopped sirloin steak), "big wolf's dinner" (lamb chops), "sitting bull on a board" (a hamburger), "dog house" (hot dog), or "sea chicken" (scrambled eggs with tuna fish), with either "Georgie Porgie pudding" (custard) or "fairy food" (ice cream) for dessert.

Travel by sea is education, too. Children usually pick up the salty jargon of the sea (foc'sle, bulkhead, etc.) sooner than their parents. Tours to the navigating bridge are open to youngsters. And sometimes they're invited to visit the galley, as well — a special treat since the pastry chef will usually pass out samples of his freshly-baked cookies.

Children also are welcome to join Matson's seagoing hula school.

A trip on an ocean liner is an enlighting and educational experience for a child. Seagulls, gooney birds, flying fish and porpoises will become like old friends.

YOU TOO can be in this picture on this ship when it sails for Hawaii, just by clipping the coupon on page 2 of today's Eastern Review.

WESTERN ELECTRIC IN NEW PRODUCTION LEVELS

Western Electric Company, the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell Telephone System, achieved record production levels in 1960, the company's annual report has disclosed.

Total sales for the year were $2,641,000,000 — an increase of about 14 per cent over 1959 sales and about six per cent more than the previous sales record set in 1957.

About 70 per cent of the total sales, or $1,850,000,000, were to Bell System companies. Twenty-seven per cent, or $724,000,000, was to the U. S. government, consisting of products and services for national defense and space activities.

Earnings for the company last year were $124,490,000, or $6.60 per share, compared with 1959 earnings of $102,188,000, or $5.92 per share.

H. I. Romnes, Western Electric president, reported that better products and faster services highlighted the company's 1960 performance. He noted that the Bell System team — American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Western Electric, Bell Telephone Laboratories and the Bell operating companies — is constantly reducing the time between laboratory idea and service reality.

To aid in this effort, for example, Bell Laboratories units, resident at W. E. factories, have been strengthened to assist on design and development problems. Basic research on production processes is being carried on by W.E. employees at the company's engineering research center in Hopewell, N.J., and new telephone products are being developed through a task force approach by the Bell System team, he said.

The company, through its purchasing and traffic division, did a billion-and-a-quarter dollar buying job for the Bell System from nearly 40,000 U.S. firms, about 90 per cent of which were small companies with fewer than 500 employees.

The number of people employed by W.E. increased to 143,352 at year's end, compared with 134,867 employed at the end of 1959.

There were a number of new developments in apparatus and equipment during 1960:

TH microwave — a high-capacity radio relay system for telephone and TV transmission. Electronic central office — a test installation at Morris, Ill., which will perform extremely fast switching functions and make feasible many new telephone services not possible with existing switching systems.

TASI — a highly sophisticated switching system called "Time Assignment Speech Interpolation," which has doubled the conversation capacity of trans-Atlantic telephone cables. The 1A Line concentrator — a compact switching system to help expand service quickly and economically in fast-growing areas.

Other new products introduced or under development during the year included a new Home Interphone system; telephones with dials in the handset rather than on the housing, with pushbuttons in place of dials, and with equipment for automatically dialing frequently-called numbers.

New equipment introduced during 1960 accounted for about $105,000,000 of the sales to Bell System companies, Romnes said.

Western Electric continued to play an important role in major defense and space projects. As one of the major contractors for Project Mercury, America's manned space flight program, it led an industrial team in the construction of a global tracking, communications and data network now nearing completion.

It manufactured for the Air Force the Titan ICBM guidance equipment, used in a number of successful test firings at Cape Canaveral. Similar guidance equipment was used in successful launchings for the National Aeronautic and Space Administration projects — Echo 1, a communications satellite, and Tiros 1 and II, the experimental weather satellites.

Western Electric continued as prime contractor for the Army's Nike missile system, including the Nike Hercules, capable of detecting, intercepting and destroying advanced types of military aircraft; and the Nike Zeus, the only missile system presently under development for defending the nation from attack by ICBMs.

During September, Western Electric placed in operation for the Air Force the first complete route of a communications system that ultimately will link the forward detection stations of the Ballistic Missile Early Warning System (BMEWS) with the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo. The first route extends more than 6,000 miles from Thule, Greenland. Others will link NORAD to stations in England and Alaska.

Scheduled for completion this year is DEW-East, a series of radar detection and communication stations extending the DEW (Distant Early Warning) Line eastward from Baffin Island across Greenland to Iceland. Western Electric is prime contractor for the eastward extension, as it was for the main DEW Line project.

HARTLEY HIGH SCHOOL'S HAWK Lines

By Cathy Singer

The week of Mar. 19 was observed as vocation week at Hartley.

Each day the students were asked to pray for vocations to different religious fields.

At an afternoon assembly on Monday, Father George Fulcher, Editor of The Catholic Times, gave a talk on vocations to the student body. As a conclusion to the week's activities, a vocation assembly was held. Sister Julianna, of the Sisters of Notre Dame, Brother Michael, of the Good Shepherd Brothers, and Father James Cooney, of St. Charles Seminary, were guest speakers.

As winners of the Science Fair Mar. 12, in the gymnasium, the following students will enter projects in the district fair at Ohio State University Apr. 1: Howard Distelzwieg, Philip Feldmeier, Patricia Kusan, and Marian Schilling in the field of chemistry; John Dooley, Jim Fairbanks, Bill Federer, Tim Wagner, and Robert Lehnert in zoology; Jeff Nelson, Rick Jacobs, and Ann Spencer in botany; Janet Van Balen, Ann Wuellner, Tim Wagner, Kathy Ritchey in mathematics; Leland Diacich in crystalography; and Harry Hoskins in physics.

Tryouts for the senior play were held during the past week and practice has begun.

The girls' marching team selected 14 new members to replace the varsity group that will graduate in June. The varsity headed the half time entertainment provided at most of the home games this year.

A girls' track team has been begun for the first time this year. Mrs. De Long, physical education teacher, is the coach.

The Ohio State Scholarship Tests wil be administered to the students Mar. 29, in the fields of history, mathematics, science, and languages.

Career Day was Mar. 16. The keynote speech was given by Monsignor Paul O'Dea.

The boys had a general session on their military duties of the future. The girls heard speakers in the areas of homemaking and home economics. The student body attended three talks on three different careers of their choice. After the talks they returned to their homerooms for an evaluation period and were then dismissed.

The staff of the Hartley Hawk-Eye is planning a dance for the benefit of a final Senior Edition of the paper. It will be a closed dance Friday evening, Apr. 7.

Subdivision Is Denied

Requests made Mar. 22 by two industrial subdivisions in the Hamilton-rd, area have been turned down by the City Planning Commission.

The requests submitted by Karl Slabaugh, and the Davis Investment Co., consist of provisions for access from proposed subdivisions onto Hamilton-rd.

The City Commissioners decided the plans placed the access roads too near to the planned interchange of the Hamilton-East Freeway, and to the point where a New York Central overpass is to be constructed.

Slabaugh and the Davis Co. said they are being landlocked by the railroad, freeway, and Big Walnut Creek.

The Commission did speak in terms of a possible railroad underpass to provide the needed access.

STATE ANIMAL INDUSTRY FACILITIES TO BE EXPANDED
35,000 AUTOPSIES TAX PRESENT LABORATORY

State To Build $180,000 Pathology Laboratory In County Area Soon

By JACK L. ALLEN

A new $180,000 Pathology Laboratary will be added to the facilities of the Division of Animal Industry of the State Department of Agriculture at Reynoldsburg early next year.

Dr. Harry E. Goldstein, assistant chief of the Division of Animal Industry and head of the Reynoldsburg laboratories, reports the new building will be used primarily for post mortem and live-isolation study.

Dr. Goldstein said the present facilities were heavily taxed by last year's animal-service program which included 10,000 service cases and better than 35,000 individual animal autopsies.

The Reynoldsburg laboratories provided services in the fields of post mortem, Bacteriology, Histopathology, Serology, Taxicology, Virology and Parasitology.

In each of the fields there are veterinarians and technicians holding Master of Science and Ph. D. degrees. A staff of 33 persons along with five veterinarians are presently employed.

The new building will be 133 feet in length and from 40 to 70 feet in width with three major work areas. One will be for the complete isolation of animals with communicable diseases, a second will be for pathological study, and the center section will be for post mortem work.

In addition, the new building will provide office space, a reception area, classroom space for senior student veterinarians, along with facilities to destroy post mortem remains, thus avoiding the spread of any diseases.

Presently the main function of the laboratory is to provide services for farmers and veterinarians, examine blood samples and prescribe treatment for diseases discovered in animals through tissue and blood examination.

One of the most important of these studies being control of Bovine Tuberculosis and Brucellosis, both serious diseases in cattle that can directly affect man.

The Animal Industry division is also concerned with the licensing of livestock dealers, auction markets, buying stations, and weighers; the inspection of livestock being imported into Ohio; and the quarantining of animals affected with any dangerously contagious or infectious disease.

Spring Safety Check Needed For Auto Tires And Brakes

Does spring in the air turn your thoughts to the annual vacation trip or a weekend drive through the countryside? Better make sure there's spring in your tires, too.

That's the advice of Ray Ramsey, manager of the Goodyear service store at 917 S. Hamilton-rd.

A long hard winter of hitting chuckholes and bouncing off curbs along slippery streets, said Ramsey, can leave a tire unfit for the hotter and faster driving of spring and summer.

He said each tire should be checked for cuts, bruises or other damage that could cause failure at high speeds.

Ramsey also pointed out that relatives and baggage packed into a car at vacation time put an extra load on tires. He said this calls for putting a few extra pounds of air in the rear tires to prevent excessive sidewall flexing and overheating.

He gave this example:

For a sedan with a normal tire inflation of 24 pounds, inflate to 28 pounds if the load is heavy; to 30 pounds if the load is heavy and the speed is to be fast.

He said the inflation checks should be made while the tires are cool, not hot.

Besides tires, the wise motorist will have its brake, wheel alignment and exhaust system checked before that first big trip of spring or summer.

Sucker Fishing Is Like A Spring Tonic

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Sucker fishing is good for everybody but suckers, as P. T Barnum found out many years ago.

The same principle holds true today, and spring and sucker fishing are synonymous. Best bait for suckers (the piscatorial variety now — no more bad puns today) is the common earthworm. Throughout the ages, the inventive mind of man has not been able to improve on the fishing worm to entice a sucker to hook.

This is probably all for the good. Sucker fishing has remained simple fishing, and that's what you yearn for this time of year. All you need is a pleasant stretch of stream where the current sings a lazy song accompanied by a chorus of spring peepers. You sit down and inhale the fragrance of warm sunshine on a pregnant earth. For a few moments you are a boy again catching suckers on fishin' worms.

A sucker's bugle - shaped mouth is small, so use a small hook barely covered with a piece of worm. Use a sinker just large enough to keep your bait nudging the bottom. Cast your terminal tackle at the foot of a riffle and let it slowly roll into the pool below. Give the fish time to munch the bait a little before you set the hook. A few misses will tell you when.

In the spring, suckers are sweet-meated and very good when fried. But you must use the same slow pace to eat them that was so much fun in catching them. If suckers for famous for anything more than a spring fishing tonic, it is for the un-numbered bones they contain.

Cooking Suggestion Given

There are ways of elimination of most of the troublesome sucker bones. One method is to score the fish on both sides, that is cut fine cross-hatches in the meat with a razor blade, and deep fry them. This cooks the fine hair-like bones and you do not notice them when eating.

Some anglers grind the fish and make "sucker burgers." Another way is to pressure-cook them first and then fry.

When Ohio fishing laws were liberalized a few years back, gigging and shooting suckers with bow and arrow became legal. It is necessary to find the fish in shallow water to follow these sports. Suckers swim up into riffles at night, and they are easy to shine with a light. They are not so easy to hit however, and after the water is roiled a little they are apt to leave.

Cap Basketball Star To Be Guest Speaker

Capital University junior Joel Dill, outstanding basketball and baseball star for the Lutherans, will be the guest speaker at the Southeast Church League awards parties Apr. 4 and 10.

Dill, named the most improved player for the recently concluded season, and voted co-captain of the 1961-62 basketball team, will present the sportsmanship trophies to the junior league winners.

John Deason, president of the Southeast Athletic Council, will present the league and tournament championship trophies and Bill Kuhn, athletic director at Brookwood Presbyterian Church, will be the toastmaster.

The awards presentation will be made at Scottwood Community Church Apr. 4, and Brookwood Presbyterian Church Apr. 10.

Recreation Center Plans Open House

East Columbus Recreation Center is planning its annual open house program for Thursday and Friday, April 6 and 7. Special events to be included in the program will be a two-day track and field meet, a chess tournament, marble shooting tournament, model car, plane and boat show, rope jumping contest, pot luck dinner, ballet recital and a play about space people. The two-day program will start at 3:30 each afternoon.

Boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 18 interested in competing in the open house track meet Apr. 6 and 7, contact Jack Blackburn at the Recreation Center any afternoon. The events will include the softball throw, 8 and 12 pound shot put, discus, 50-yard dash, mile and a half run, high jump and the standing broad jump. Members of junior and senior high school track teams are not eligible.

John E. Gillman, of Marietta, Ohio, performed the first operation in which X-rays were used.

JUNIOR JET BADGE SALESMEN

ALLEN BERLINER, 10, 603 Collingwood, of the Jewish Center, demonstrates the proper way to bunt to Linda Hill, 9, of 1042 S. Hampton-rd, a member of the Girl Scouts. Both children will be selling Junior Jet Badges when the sale begins Apr. 1.

To Sell Jet Badges Central Ohio Youth

Youthful baseball fans of the Columbus Jets, for the seventh consecutive season, can buy Junior Jet badges for the price of 50 cents per badge.

Badge sales begin Saturday, Apr. 1, and continue until May 1.

Badges entitle wearers to see most of the Jets' home games free, except for Opening Day, Sundays, Holidays and other special occasions.

Badges can be purchased from any member of the following youth groups: Boy Scouts, The Boys' Club, Catholic Youth Organization, The Jewish Center and the YMCA and Girl Scouts.

Money made from the sale of badges goes to these youth groups to support activities within their groups.

The Junior Jet badge campaign was started in 1955 when a group of civic minded individuals bought the Jets. That year, 9,000 badges were sold. In the five years since 1955, more than 140,000 badges have been sold to boys and girls of Columbus.

Last year, 30,000 badges were sold. Sales this year are expected to surpass that figure.

Chairman Dick Hahn again heads the badge committee.

Each coupon, in turn, may be redeemed beginning Monday, Apr. 10, for one opening night ticket to Jet Stadium. The coupons must be redeemed at one of the Big Bear supermarkets.

Sixteen Students Are Rated As Superior

Many Whitehall students apparently are going along with the fact that the science field is becoming more and more important each day. Sixteen students were awarded "superior" for their individual projects on Wednesday, Mar. 23, at the Whitehall School science fair.

On Apr. 1, the following 16 students and their projects will proceed to the district science fair: Bill Evans, seismic sea waves; Eric Ford, salt water desalting plant; Patty Matchett, cellulose and the making of rayon; Robert Ray, the care and breeding of hamsters; Gary Stein, volcanos; Phillip Marks, effects of radiation on human beings; Alan Rosenblum, Paleontology; Gloria Wilson, Babylonian mathematics; Frances Hoyda, Bakelite; Suzanne Slenk, genetics; Larry Samson, solid rockets propellant; Ed Burchfield, digital computer; Leslie Gorman, rate of reaction as determined by a strong and weak electrolyte; Russell Smith, entro viruses and plague technique; Jon McInnis, crystalization; and John Mercer, Enzyme chemistry.

Suzanne Slenk, entering two projects, one on crystalization and another on genetics, received "superior" for both. The project on genetics brought her 84 out of a possible 85 points. Suzanne will be entering only one project in order to give another student a chance to enter district competition.

Mr. Faust, at present an eighth grade teacher at Yearling, is now using his experience as a former dancing instructor. Each Monday night from 7 to 8:30, Mr. Faust is instructing approximately 50 students in social dancing. The lessons are to teach students the proper way to dance and to inform them that there are dances other than the "pony."

Thursday, Mar. 30, Tri-Hi-Y will conduct an Easter assembly. A guest will speak, and the school choir will sing several numbers.

State scholarship tests are scheduled for Thursday, Mar 30. Top 10 students in each of 21 different subjects will be given the tests. The three who receive the highest scores will go to Ohio State University early in May to compete in the state competition.

Bexley To Hold Seasonal Rites

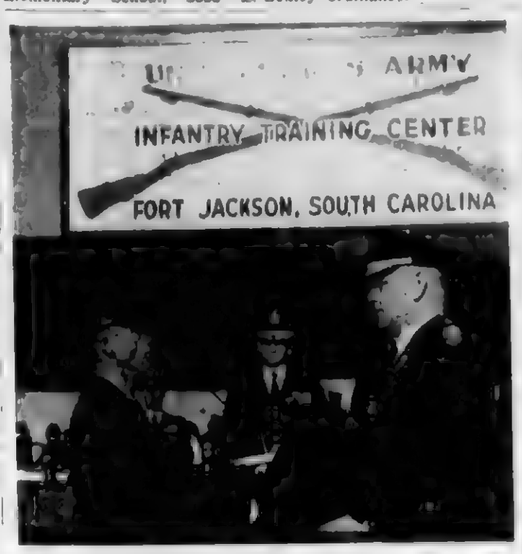
Free Tuberculin Test Announced For Bexley First-Grade Students

The Tuberculosis Society has announced that first-graders in Bexley schools will receive free, Christmas seal tuberculin tests for the first time, Wednesday, Apr. 12. TB tests detect the presence of tuberculosis germs in the body.

The Mantoux needle-type tests are scheduled at Montrose Elementary School, 2555 E. Bexley Main-st; Cassingham, 260 S. Cassingham-rd; and Maryland, N. Cassingham-rd and Maryland-av

In addition, approximately 100 senior high school students who work in school cafeterias will be tested so that they may qualify for food handler permits, in compliance with a new Bexley ordinance.



The tuberculin test consists of injecting one-tenth c.c. of purified protein derivative between the first two layers of skin on the forearm. Although harmless in itself, P.P.D. exhibits an allergic reaction to TB germs in the form of a raised, red welt at the point of injection

Any welt measuring five millimeters or more after testing is considered a "positive" reaction, indicating tuberculosis infection but not necessarily active disease.

All positive reactors and their close family contacts, over age 15, will be cheat X-rayed. Those under 15 will be tuberculin tested

TB tests will be administered and read by local pediatricians.

The Tuberculosis Society recently completed tuberculin testing of first-graders in 30 Columbus public schools and five Upper Arlington schools. Next fall the Society plans to include all first, seventh and 11th-graders in its tuberculin testing program.

Livingston-av Improvement Okayed

"Just as quick as possible," Columbus Service Director Ernest Stork said this week, "we'll begin the widening and improvement of Livingston-av" between James and Hamilton-rds

He said he would like to see it finished this year, "but that depends upon the weather."

City council Monday authorized taking bids for the improvements despite protests by residents over assessments.

Come to Church on EASTER Sunday

There is something very special about Easter Sunday that sets it off from every other day of the year. As father, mother and the children attend Easter Services, each in his or her own way feels deeply the transcendent joy of the occason. None is too young to delight in the radiant beauty of the flowers, to respond to the note of triumph that rings out in the beloved Easter hymns, to experience the shining wonder of the Easter story. None is too old to be inspired anew by the promise of spiritual rebirth, so gloriously expressed in the miracle of Easter . . . so beautifully reaffirmed each year on Easter Sunday. For one and all, old and young, this is indeed the happiest day of the year!

To know the true joy of Easter . . . to experience all the glory of its message . . . attend Easter services in the church of your choice. Bring your family . . . join your friends.

Doan Named Cancer Gruop Chairman

Dr. Charles A. Doan, 4935 Olentangy-blvd, medical research director at the University Health Center, was named Saturday as Crusade chairman for the American Cancer Society's Franklin County Unit.

Dr. Doan, one of the world's leading leukemia researchers and founder of the Franklin County Unit when it was chartered in 1947, had this to say upon accepting the appointment; "The Cancer Crusade in April implies, first of all, health-education, and that, in turn, must lead inevitably to the financial support of the great national cancer program."

"With what we know about cancer right now, one half of those who develop cancer today can be saved if they will only seek the advice of their physician in time."

The appointment of Dr. Doan was announced by Dr. William B. Schwartz, M.D., president of the Franklin County Unit, which has its offices at 2300 W. Mound-st.

Care Urged For Easter Animals

Thomas C. Justice, general manager of the Humane Society of the City of Columbus, passes on his annual warning to all parents planning to purchase live bunnies, chicks and ducklings for their children at Easter.

"These animals are not toys. They must have proper care and food, otherwise they will die from unsuitable conditions or harsh treatment," he said.

"Many animals will be purchased for Easter Sunday, Apr. 2. However, they are not suitable household pets, and within a week after Easter many will be suffering from cruelty," he continued.

"They need proper food, regular feedings and comfortable living conditions. Special food and fresh water must be supplied at proper times. They must be kept clean and and handled gently because their bone structure is very delicate, and they are very easily injured."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Says Armed Forces Training Could Fill Unemployed Gap

To the Editor:

I know the voice of organized labor is so much louder than mine that I might as well keep still. It can bring in many votes while I control only one, but I have talked to quite a few people who think as I do, so I believe I should speak my mind.

I am definitely opposed to extending unemployment compensation. It is much too long now. I think one or two weeks would be plenty long enough since the unemployed very seldom look for work until the covered period expires.

This country will continue to have unemployment as long as folks are paid to be unemployed.

It is absolutely ridiculous to pay unemployment compensation to people who quit their jobs at the slightest provocation or go out on strike against their employer, or are fired for good reason. Pregnancy is no reason to draw unemployment compensation either.

Some folks say why worry about the huge sums paid out to the unemployed for this helps the unemployed for this try as a whole. This burden is borne by the government with tax money collected from the public, together with the employer, who in turn adds it to the cost of his product or service, and again it comes out of the pocket of the public.

So the only way you can figure it is that folks who are working and buying and paying taxes are keeping a host of people who are not working.

The only true economy can be attained by the working force being fully employed and I am anxious to see this come about before other countries out-produce us.

There is a shortage of skilled labor and the majority of the unemployed are not skilled in any trade, yet consider themselves too good to perform common labor, and prefer to draw unemployment compensation rather than become skilled in a trade.

If it could be even rumored that unemployment compensation payments would be limited to one or two weeks and at the end of that time those still unemployed would be taken into some branch of the armed services where they would be further educated and taught a useful trade of their choosing, you would see an early end of our unemployment problems.

The armed services are all set up to train young people and did a wonderful job along that line during the press of war and I cannot see why they cannot do the same thing in peace time.

If such a plan could be put into effect, our unemployment troubles would be ended for all time. I think it is worth a try.

BIBLE COMMENT

Bible Tells Story Of Man And Of God

The Bible is the book of man, even as it is man's book of God.

The universality of the Bible is emphasized in a deeper and more important way in the life and teaching of Jesus.

The locality, the scene, the local manners or customs, may give color to an incident, but they do not affect the heart of the truth. Truth applies equally to every time and place.

This is seen particularly in the Parables of Jesus. The woman searching for a lost piece of silver (Luke 15) might be any woman, anywhere; the Samaritan helping a victim of thieves on the road to Jericho might be a driver of today stopping to aid the victim of a highway accident, while others, like the priest and the Levite, hasten by.

Jesus is for all the truth, because His life and truth were for all the world.

He was not a Galilean provincial, but a Teacher and Savior, with a world mission sending forth His disciples to make disciples of all nations.

Slected Audience

The local engineers union of Wolverhampton, England announced it will buy a $280 piece of sculpture, but only psid-up union members will be permitted to see it.

Long Stretch Seen

Police in Chambiee, Ga., are looking for a thief who stole 2,000 25-dollar girdles from a warehouse in town.

Whitehall Solons Tread Through Sea Of Measures

Defer Contracting For Sewage; Table Hiring Gas Rate Authority

Bill To 'Clean Up City' Okayed

In a gregarious mood Tuesday night, Whitehall council flowed through a raft of ordinances, including the Orton Davis-sponsored bill to clean up the city, sidetracked a measure for the disposal of sewage, and eased through a potentially queasy legal maneuver to have Solicitor James Maxwell defend Robert Garnon in an upcoming court case

The Davis bill, written to restrict "offensive" enterprises from being established in the city, came through free of any dissension. Nary a citizen appeared to protest, and council quickly endorsed the measure.

"For the good order and growth of the city," the bill disallows the erection of carry outs, nite clubs hamburger stands and drive ins along with such other enterprises as fertilizer manufacturing, animal slaughtering and trailer parks

The only exclusion of an article restricting construction of motels and hotels along E Broad st

On the sewage disposal matter solon Ray Shipley noted that "We may have a sewage plant of our own within 20 years but until then we will have to work out an agreement with Columbus

Garnon and Loren Mason, however vetoed any move to suspend the rules necessary for emergency legislation

Reacting to the action, Service Director Robert Mickey queried Mason as to when the bill would be ready, adding "You've had it a month"

Mason replied that the service committee would like to study the ordinance. Garnon stated that "there are things in here I don't like and won't vote for," but he did not enumerate his dislikes

The last contract with Columbus expired Dec 31, 1960. The new one if approved, provides a workable agreement "not to exceed 20 years."

Under questioning, Mickey admitted that the cost would be 50 per cent higher than the cost in Columbus, whether or not there is a rise or decline in rates during the ensuing years

The sewage squabble took place long after the start of the meeting

The first action came when Garnon requested council to direct Maxwell to represent him in the solicitor's case demanding removal of Garnon from public office

The move was Garnon's first to counteract the pending case Since Maxwell has been appointed special prosecutor to try the case, approval would have put the solicitor in an awkward spot. Garnon, in his request, stated that he had been served a summons by the Franklin County Sheriff's department.

The case revolves about the fact that last month Garnon served as deputy registrar of motor vehicles for the city, a post which Maxwell claims is in violation of state law since a public official cannot hold other public employment.

Before council acted along strict party lines to defeat the Garnon request, Maxwell questioned whether council had the authority or not to direct the solicitor to represent, "a usurper of public office"

He added that the suit was filed against Garnon as an

Meet Blossom Zitron

'Life Is Doing Things'

Wife, Mother, Actress

By John Poeppelmeyer

There she was!

Attired radiantly in a bright yellow dress, bouffant hairdo sparkling, dark eyes smoldering with intensity of concentration — down on her elbows and knees shooting marbles

This from a former Mrs America contestant who now resides at 4943 Justin-rd and who goes by the name of Blossom Zitron. 'Mama liked flowers'

And flowers too have a big niche in the life of Blossom as does homemaking, acting, flying, (in a plane) story writing and taking surveys

"Don't call me Bloss It reminds me of a story of a cow I read about in the third grade"

But she too has a "deep feeling" for flowers as she expressed it. "I have since I was a little girl. One of my ambitions is to have a home with a big green house in back."

She also has another ambition, to some day own two "tremendous ovens"

For possibly her greatest satisfaction comes from her cooking

"Mother wouldn't let me when I was little As a reward for cleaning house, she would let me bake cookies"

Her talents as a virtuoso of the kitchen earned her a spot in Cleveland in 1956 as a finalist in that city's Mrs America contest

"Many people," she said, "have the idea that the contest is one of beauty. Actually, more depends upon your abilities around the house" She finished between sixth and tenth out of 465 contestants

Blossom had to take tests written as well as demonstrative in laundering. "The test consisted of ironing a white shirt But the most difficult part of all was having to prepare an entire meal in 1½ hours with table setting in front of the judges on a strange stove"

For her laundering test, she washed a white shirt in a detergent and a soap combination. Judges checked for buttons, and wrinkles around the cuffs

For her meal, all contestants had to make a dish out of ground beef Blossom also used fresh vegetables of all kinds, made an Italian salad, placed mashed potato rosettes on top of a casserole and for dessert, a chocolate pie.

When she was notified that the judges were planning to visit her house, the first thing that came to mind was a "white glove" inspection.

"Overnight, I did my Spring Housecleaning. Then all they did was sit and talk."

Before she was married, she also took lessons in a Piper Cub "but I ended up getting my marriage license instead of my pilot's license and was grounded"

When it comes to plants Blossom calls herself a "flowerholic." "With some people it's drinking; with me, it's flowers"

She has 56 rose bushes did the landscaping around her home, has a number of plants in her living room and has two

St. Mary's Teacher Sees Demand For Foreign Languages

Strides there are to be made in the field of Foreign Language. So says Sister Amelia, head of the language department at St. Mary's of the Springs College

If anyone should know Sister Amelia should. She teaches French at the College, in addition she speaks, German, Spanish and Italian, and holds a Ph. D. in Romance Languages from Yale.

To find out what is right and what is wrong in the foreign language field, Sister Amelia tape recorded two sessions with students, one having trouble with French, the other an "A" student.

Sister Amelia contends that a lack of organization exists between high schools and colleges as far as foreign language development is concerned

"There is a need for foreign languages today," she says, "due to businesses involvement and to the movement of masses."

The first recorded session took place between Sister Amelia and a student who shall be named "Felicia."

Felicia had two years of private school training prior to entering St. Mary's. She had managed a squeeze through the entrance test and was placed in an intermediate French class "She washed out at the end of the year" Sister Amelia explained. "Felicia got progressively worse. This year she is back in an elementary section to acquire the knowledge she missed in high school"

Why did Felicia have trouble? Her first year in French went "fairly easily," she recalled, but she had trouble with grammar her second year. The "staggering" announcement as far as Sister Amelia was concerned came when Felicia stated she had "trouble translating from the French into the English"

"Usually,' the sister explained, "it is just the other way around.'

Felicia had trouble with written work, not oral The first three weeks in class, Felicia recalled, the teacher read from books to the class

Sister Amelia states that such a teaching method "can be either extremely good or extremely bad," depending upon the teacher.

THE FINE ART OF 'DROPPING'

A NEW CUSTOM is currently sweeping area high schools in the Romance Department, it's called "dropping" and the complete story is told inside by Hartley Newspapers writer John Auble, Jr. The custom involves the class keys and tells how some young ladies, as in the posed shot above, collect them like battle ribbons.

"King Of The Muskies" Takes Last Long Troll

A common sight each summer for the past 30 years or more up on the French River in Canada was Columbusite Roy Wolfe as he guided his outboard driven open boat around mile after mile of shore line trolling for muskies

Roy started his quest of this greate of fresh water game fish back when he hired Indians to help him set up camp on an island in White Pine Bay many years ago Since that time he has had a cottage on the French and had become perhaps the best known fisherman in those parts

His fame as a muskie fisherman is attested by the fact that his scoreboard tallied over 100 No season was complete without several more added to the score And if they were hitting at all you could well know that Roy would get his share.

GOLDEN LEAFERS
Doing Things . . .

AT ONCE A MONTH
For Themselves

GET TOGETHER
And For Others

OLDEST MEMBER IS 97

'Golden Leaf' Society Young Organization

It's impossible to set back the clock, but some 120 members of the "Golden Leaf" club are having fun winding things up at their monthly get-togethers.

"Actually," says Mrs Arthur L. Smith, "the club is open to all, regardless of age." Mrs. Smith, along with Lutrell Amrine, are two of the original founders of the organization.

The social group was first formed 12 years ago so although its members consist of elderly persons the club is really but a growing youngster. Its 12th birthday is dated in May.

The oldest "Golden Leafer", according to Mrs Smith, is Ethridge Helsel, who is 97 years old.

The "Leafers,", so named because one member was tired of hearing Senior Citizens spouted around, meet once a month at different churches, mainly on the east side, at the Bexley Library and at Jeffery Mansion

Mainly at their meetings they eat, hear talks or play cards

"We also do things for other people," Mrs. Smith noted, "such as once a month we visit nursing homes. We also support the downtown senior citizen center."

Membership in the Golden Leaf is but a dollar per year

Members come from 25 different church organizations in the city and at least six other organizations have been spawned from interest in the Leaf group.

The Hilltop EUB Church has one; there are two groups at Lancaster, Mrs. Smith said, and one at the Morgan Methodist Memorial Church.

Mrs. Smith also pointed out that "there has been some marriages within the group."

The idea developed a dozen years ago with the Deacons of the Brookwood Presbyterian Church and some 40 persons appeared at the first meeting.

The club keeps increasing in size each year, Mrs. Smith noted, even though she said, "we do have a great loss in membership."

Officers of the Golden Leafers are Grover Amrine, president; Dena Tullar, secretary; Mrs. Seth Dildine, treasurer, and Alfred Koch, vice president.

Appeal Out For Umpires

Damp weather failed to dampen the spirits of several hundred Whitehall boys Saturday for registration in the Whitehall Boys' Baseball Association.

Rain and snow cancelled scheduled tryouts but long lines of boys, fathers, and some mothers, shuffled around in the wet stuff for several hours to register and get a tryout.

The league still lacks enough umpires, and anyone interested in putting on the black suit of authority is asked to call chief umpire Dick Wells, BE. 5-0134, or league president Harold Fleck, BE. 1-7236

Success of the league is dependent on adult supervision and those wanting a job in the growing circle of organized baseball for youngsters are urged to consider the umpire's job. A school will be conducted so experience is not necessary.

There IS Something New Under the Sun

By JOHN AUBLE, JR.

Maybe it's just because it's Spring, but a comparatively new twist has been added to the Boy-Girl Department around area high schools.

It all revolves around a small, shiny gold class key, the latest romance symbol. This little emblem, which seems likely to become a custom, plays a major role in "dropping."

Upon interviewing several high school students in the area, it was discovered that dropping is closely related to the fraternity "pinning" or the class ring exchange.

In some areas, the practice of exchanging class keys is called "lavaliering" or "necklacing."

And, most students agree, the shapely coed can be dropped, pinned and "exchanged" all at the same time — depending, of course, on how her tastes in jewelry run.

The class keys are being distributed — free of charge — by some local jewelry stores to all students who can verify that they are graduating seniors.

To be "dropped" does not call for sympathy, as the word might imply. It generally indicates "going steady," as a Reynoldsburg High School lass pointed out.

Dropping is very similar to the class ring bit, but does not include such things as serenades. Even so, it is often greeted with the same delirium.

Like the class ring, the drop is usually returned to its owner should the couple split up, but not always. Sometimes a girl keeps it like a scalp tacked to her bedroom wall. A problem remains, however: How to say to others that she's been "undropped." (Dumped?).

The smitten male bestows his key upon his captor who displays it to indicate that her catch has taken the bait, played the line until exhausted, and is ready to be reeled in. The final step is netting.

In one school, dropping is considered the death knell of bachelorhood. While, in another school, it means little more than going steady. Some schools even considered the practice as childish.

These extremes in attitude, however, seldom cause misunderstanding. Both parties generally know the terms of their particular dropping and just how serious it actually is.

A few high school romanticists collect pins like battle ribbons but this practice is frowned upon by most of the high school students interviewed.

Her counterpart is the man with a satyr complex who keeps a pocket full of extra keys with which he spreads joy and happiness where'er he goes.

The obligations of dropping includes no other dating except by mutual agreement in special cases, such as when the couple attend schools in different cities.

The more serious the dropping, the more rigorous are its duties. Social obligations spiral — everything from nightly coke dates to whatever the weekend social calendar demands: dances, plays, parties, movies, Sunday dinner.

Two-Day Open House Set At East Recreation Center

A two-day open house program at East Columbus Recreation Center will include games, contests, recitals and displays to the theme of Outer Space.

The activities will begin on Thursday, Apr. 6, with a jump rope contest for girls in the elementary grades, from 3:15 to 4:30.

There will be a track meet for elementary and junior high boys and girls starting at 3:15 and lasting until 5:30.

The track meet and chess tournament will be held over the two-day period.

From 6:30 until 9:30 Thursday evening a model car, boat and airplane show will be held; 8 to 8:30 will see a ballet recital followed at 9 by a style show put on by members of the Self Improvement Club.

The first event on Friday, starting at 3:15 will be a marble tournament for elementary boys. The track and field meet will continue through the afternoon.

From 6 until 7 Friday evening there will be a potluck dinner for the families of the center members, followed by carnival type games in the gymnasium and a one-act play put on by members of the center to round out the program. The public is invited.

The recreation center is located at 734 Rarig.

Sertoma Club Names Prexy

Elected were Robert Stokes, president; Thomas Adshead, Joseph Rosali and Si Beals, vice-presidents; Woodrow Slatzer, treasurer, and Joseph J. Murphy, secretary.

The members were also indoctrinated as charter members by District Governor James Burchfield and Fred Wright, both of the Downtown Sertoma Club.

The Club made final plans for its charter party which will be an informal dinner dance for members and their wives and visiting Sertomans. In addition to dancing and other entertainment Sertoma International President Lyle Knoll will address the group, according to Joseph Murphy, publicity director of the club.

IT'S THE CUT

There just doesn't seem to be any one hairstyle that is flattering to virtually all women. A coiffure must be designed individually for the shape of a woman's face and her features. It must emphasize all your good points and diminish the unflattering ones. An ingenuous haircut is the first consideration for your new coif. It can defeat humidity, rain and even the steam from your bath The set may loosen but the cut will keep it flattering.

Let us cut and shape your tresses. We have the know-how to create your individual coif. Make an early appointment. Iva's Beauty Salon, 3978 E. Broad Street, Columbus. BE 5-5474

Buckeye Lake Has Trophy Sized Bass

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Fishin' Phil McGinnis, 640 S 18th-st, has started the year off right. On his third cast of the season he took a seven-pound, six-ounce bass at Buckeye Lake last week. He caught the big fish at the entrance to Maple Swamp, on an artificial lure of his own design.

"Buckeye Lake is the place to go in this part of the state if you want huge bass," McGinnis says. "I catch hundreds of bass in a year's time above the Griggs and O'Shaughnessy dams, but none have weighed more than three pounds. At Buckeye the catch is not as large, but there will be some trophy-sized fish."

Here then, is a tip from an expert fisherman—a member of the breed that is supposed to be tight-lipped and secretive about their fishing locations. It happens that McGinnis is just the opposit, and he will tell you where and when he makes all his catches. You don't have to ask the bait he used, for it's always the same home made plug

Buckeye Lake is easy to fish, for there are plenty of boat rental docks that are always sources of information. On weekends there will be a lot of fishermen afloat from now on, and you can get advice and directions from them

Trolling Is Popular

Good spots for large bass are Maple Swamp, Little Buckeye and Cranberry Island. One unusual fact about Buckeye fishing is that trolling for bass seems to be more popular than on other Ohio waters. Most of the bass fishermen who produce consistently, however, cast artificial lures near shoreline cover

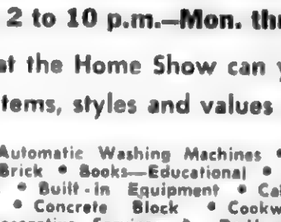
Fishing from a boat this time of year is not comfortable fishing, for usually the wind is chilly and the prospects for spring showers good. Also, you must fish slowly and patiently and this does not improve your circulation. Even though the sun may be out, dress warmly for a fishing excursion.

Lure "Nothing Special"

Getting back to McGinnis' special plug, it does not look like a fish-getter. The body is oblong and it wriggles in the water, is about all you can say to describe it. McGinnis says it imitates a crayfish. It looks something like a crayfish, and most of them are painted brown. He paints some a few other colors, but claims the brown ones catch as many fish as anything else.

Artificial lure companies would go out of business if everyone thought as Phil McGinnis. His main theory seems to be to fish with most any old plug, just keep it in the water.

He practices what he preaches, for many of his fishing days last 12 hours — some longer. Lunch is only a hasty sandwich eaten in the boat. It makes no difference if a chilly spring rain is falling in March or a 100-degree sun is cooking him in July, he fishes all day long. "Sometime during that period fish will feed," he explains, "and when they do I'll be there."



The Columbus Auto Club points out that expressway driving demands special techniques behind the wheel. Guard against highway hypnosis by stopping frequently for rest and refreshment. Before leaving on any trip, make certain your car is in top mechanical condition.

Fatigue is an enemy of driving safety, cautions the Columbus Auto Club. If you feel sleepy or tired when driving, stop for refreshments or pull off to the side of the road and rest.

BLOSSOM WITH ONE OF HER FAVORITES
A "Flower-holic" Yet

Blossom—

in her bathroom.

Her pride and joy is a "Fleur d' Amour, which was supposed to die some years ago, "according to the experts." She took constant care of it, revived it and today it still blossoms.

"When people come to visit, they exclaim 'My, how your flowers have grown,' instead of my children."

She has three youngsters: Eric, 12, March, 9; Marc, 6.

As for her acting ability, she recently appeared on Lex Mayers' live production, has had parts in the Gallery Players production at the Jewish Center and had a lead in the "Tender Trap" in Cleveland.

She claims she always has the "sexy" roles assigned to her.

Blossom has also appeared on the local traffic court program. One of the neighbors children, upon seeing her as a defendant, reproached one of her youngsters with the statement "your mother's a bad mommy."

Of her story writing attempts, she admits that the results have not been good. "I sent one off, and a slip came back saying 'keep trying'."

Some "Blossom-isms:"

"Housewives should take an interest in outside activities and still be able to run a smooth household, (Besides her other activities, Blossom finds time to work as a market survey researcher).

"A woman can have an adventure in the kitchen." ("I start from scratch, with yeast, then it's a blob of douge," then I'm ready to create).

"It's not what you serve, but how appealing and how attractive you make the dish."

"We have a job to do—as a housewife."

Oh, yes, her marble playing. When she was 12, she was "mibs" champ, and she still gets down to play with her children.

During the ensuing years Blossom Zitron has become a champion in a variety of fields—marbles and all. For to her, "life means doing things."

Teacher—

Felicia said that pronounciation was not stressed, that she had no comprehension of the words nor did she know what the sounds meant.

The sister said that grammar usually is a stumbling block, and added she feels phonetic symbols would help in high school.

The second interview came with a top student who shall be called Valerie. Valerie had not had any experience with foreign language in high school, but is currently coasting along with an A average in college.

She likes the idea of the language laboratory, which Sister Amelia highly endorses.

Only "A" and "B" students were tested in the language lab, "as C students or below could blame a failing mark on the use of the equipment," Sister Amelia said.

Valerie admitted that she would like to see grammar eliminated, but she is resolved "that it is necessary." "Once you get over it, grammar is actually pleasurable," she stated.

Valerie also thinks there should be more informal conversations in class.

To add to the students recommendations, Sister Amelia noted that "there is no set method of teaching foreign languages — it is necessary to experiment.

"The method of pure translation is dead." She suggests that the language laboratory should be tried in all schools.

"Also important," she added, "is more cooperation among English and Foreign Language teachers."

Apologies To L.A.

Melba Powell, who some 20 years ago, was my good gal Friday, dropped in this week just to remind me that she and other people of Los Angeles just didn't care at all for what I said in this column about their great metropolis some two years ago. And so publicly I offer my apology. But I still cast my vote for the more wide open spaces in Ohio!

Things Look Brighter

An upturn in business activity provides the best news we have had for many weeks. Pessimism that prevailed around the first of the year sems to be melting as warm rays of sunshine make our day to day lives a little brighter too.

More and more families have warmed up to the idea of going ahead with plans for remodeling, improvements and necessary purchases.

Which is proof again that one of our most dreaded diseases is the calamity howler.

Boston Store Is Doing Extensive Remodeling

"Fashion need not be expensive," is the theme of the Boston Store, which is in the midst of an extensive remodeling program at its Town and Country Shopping Center store.

"To prove this theme," says Asher Moser, store manager, "the Boston Store features budget priced merchandise. In addition, we offer charge account service, give Top Value trading stamps, have a layaway department and a gift wrapping service."

The store is one of four in the Columbus division of Kobacker Stores, under the supervision of George L. Rosenberger, division general manager. Kobacker Stores recently were purchased by Davidson Bros. to become part of a new 45-store organization.

The Town and Country store was opened in the fall of 1953 and has 35,000 square feet of floor space. The entire interior is being remodeled.

Well along in the remodeling program is the shoe department, now on the first floor. The store-wide remodeling includes new displays and rearrangement of departments to make shopping more convenient. Both the lamp and drapery departments are being enlarged and all fashion departments are being changed.

"The constant growth of the store has made remodeling necessary," said Moser, "to keep up with our constant desire to give customers the most in services and easy shopping."

PROVING THAT fashions need not be expensive, the Boston Store in the Town and Country Shopping Center is currently readying its new ready-to-wear department. Pictured is one of the 32 departments now being remodeled to prove the point.

67 Poison Cases Last Month

A total of 67 Eastside area families received help during a three-week period last month from the Children's Hospital Poison Control Center, a United Appeal service.

The breakdown of the cases of poison incidents in the area are: aspirin, 25; medicines, 21; household cleaners, nine; miscellaneous, 12.

Whenever a parent is not sure what to do in case of accidental poisoning, the family doctor should be called, or the Poison Control Center, CL. 8-9783.

Some of the vital information on accidental poisoning being released:

* Ninety percent of the reported cases of accidental poisoning happened to children under five years of age.
* Aspirin is the greatest cause of accidental poisoning among children.
* The kitchen is the scene of most poisoning accidents in the home.

individual and not as a public officer. Maxwell had previously claimed that the Garnon 2nd Ward slot on council is vacant.

Some time ago, council passed an ordinance to connect Whitehall to Columbus via Etna-rd. Mason, who is pursuing a plan to get improvements along the three "woods," Colling-, Robin-, and Maple-, inquired of Mickey as to how the Etna situation is progressing.

Mickey replied that he has had a "hard time" getting in touch with Columbus contacts. He added "it appears an underpass will have to be built under the railroad."

In other business council:

Okayed vacating a portion of Beechwood-rd from Mayflower-blvd, to English Village South for a 10-foot easement;

Approved changing the zoning map at the northeast corner of Hamilton-rd, and Fairway-blvd;

Tabled a resolution to hire a gas rate expert;

Sent to committee a bill authorizing a traffic signal at Robinwood and Etna;

Heard Safety Director J. Craig Wright state that police activity is up 40 per cent over a comparable period last year.

Bexley Delays Action

Plenty of "do's" are due for future Bexley council meetings.

Solons have yet to:

Boost the health commissioner's salary; hear about a proposed funeral home; pass a sidewalk rehabilitation program; make way for a tie-in with the Columbus Stelzer-rd water line.

Legislators were unable to foreclose on any of the matters this week. A quorum was missing.

The Stelzer-rd line, according to Mayor William Schneider, will tie in with Bexley at Gould and Maryland-avs with a 36-inch pipe.

Schneider related that Columbus is planning to "do away with the Nelson-rd station."

The elimination of the Nelson-rd station, Schneider said, means that Bexley's water pressure must be kept up and the Gould-rd tie-in, he asserts, will do this.

Schneider said that the line is slated to be constructed along Hampton-rd to Livingston-av.

Two weeks ago, council okayed a "fifth" zoning classification, paving the way, under their discretion, for the possible future location of a funeral home at the northeast corner of Francis and Livingston-avs. Tuesday night, council directed its clerk to notify O. R. Woodyard, Jr., to be present at the next meeting.

The move came following a letter from Lewis F. Vierick, stating that he had entered into a contract to sell the land he owns at that corner to Woodyard.

Council is under no obligation to approve any such request by Woodyard.

When council finally gets enough members present, the Bexley health commissioner is due for a boost in salary to $200 a month.

And residents south of E. Broad-st are due to repair their sidewalks when a proposed resolution is passed.

Schneider also reported that some $2,350 in traffic fines were tallied during March.

'Dogpatch Drag' Set

All it takes to bring Dogpatch closer to home are a pig, a gym transferred into a barn-like skunk hollow atmosphere (ugh!), a Marryin' Sam, a clod-hopping Li'l Abner and a polka dotted costumed Daisy Mae.

Eastmoor High School Warriorettes are doing everything hundreds of times better.

There will be plenty of Daisy Maes on hand, and Li'l Abners, too, when the "Dogpatch Drag" gets under way Saturday night. On hand will be Marryin' Sam, handing out tickets, at this "girl ask boy" affair, and hopes remain high to acquire a pig.

The boys, however, have an unreserved treat in store: the girls are taking special pains to make them corsages — out of vegetables.

Street Project May Take 18 Months

The E. Livingston-av improvement, from James to Hamilton-rd, will cost property owners some $229,925.89.

But the city will foot the biggest part of the bill: $470,000. The authorization or the issuance of notes received Columbus City Council endorsement this week.

The 18-month project, according to Howard R. Edwards, principal civil engineer, will be started as soon as bids are let Apr. 25. He expects the bids to be opened by the latter part of May.

The two-mile city project, made more complicated by the large amount of traffic along the route, will expand E. Livingston-av from its present 18½ foot width to a four-lane 52 foot pavement, according to Edwards.

He also related that plans are already on the drawing board for the extension of Livingston from its present termination point at Lattimer-dr to Noe-Bixby-rd.

This latter project is being worked out jointly by the city and county, Edwards said.

Two-way traffic will be maintained, Edwards said, although a lot of through traffic may be discouraged and re-routed to E. Main and E. Broad-sts.

A slight detour will take place during the re-construction of a bridge across Mason Run, near Courtright-rd.

The project will be started at James-rd, Edwards stated. Berms will be temporarily widened to provide for traffic. The improvement will consist of a concrete base with black top.

Edwards says he feels that traffic may not be such a problem, "if adequate warning to all" is given.

The engineer added that parking hours will probably remain the same, with "no-parking" maintained during the peak hours, upon completion of the improvement.

VFW May Move

$560,000 Store, New City Quarters Eyed

By John Poeppelemeyer

Events by the threes have taken place in Whitehall.

The VFW post is seeking a new home; plans for an unnamed $560,000 department store have been slightly unveiled; a new city municipal building is in the making.

Ralph Brown, commander of VFW Post 8794, revealed the veterans are hoping to have a building at 4100 E. Main-st rezoned for the post's future use. Brown said the matter was to have been taken up at this week's planning and zoning meeting, but the legislation arrived too late.

The VFW's present home, along E. Broad-st, is leased. Brown stated the post wants to own its own home. They are now paying $285 a month rent.

The commander hopes the post will be able to move into the new quarters within 90 days, providing the legislation is approved.

Very few facts on the proposed department store have been revealed by Max Graf, real estate broker, representing, as he called it, a "state-wide outfit."

The store is planned for a 70,000 square foot location at 4661 E. Main-st. Approval has been given to the rezoning by the planning commission.

Graf did say the cost of constructing the building will run approximately $8 per square foot. Parking facilities will be constructed, Graf stated, as well as a beautification project.

The municipal building plans were aired last week at a meeting with city officials and Kellam and Foley, architects.

Mayor Walter Moling has long been pushing for the new quarters.

The building will be constructed on a "block-T" type structure, due, said Service Director Robert Mickey, to a sewer line obstruction.

The administrative quarters would be in the front section, fronting on Yearling-rd, adjacent to the present municipal building. An enclosed passageway will connect to the council chambers. The basement will

Our Friends The Bees Want Warm Weather Too

If you have been a bit perturbed at the cool weather you are not alone.

This past week I walked up into the woods and stopped for a brief visit with my old friends, our bees. Now and then a brave soul would stick his head out rather shyly and take off but the air was still a bit too cool to get his motor in perfect running order and few went aloft, but they were trying hard to encourage warmer weather.

Nothing in nature is quite so intriguing as the bee. Personally I have a great admiration for them. You have to hand it to that old queen for the tremendous job she does in maintaining such loyalty and yet being able to perpetuate the race.

And the male is no dummy . . . what with the fact that he allows the females to do all the hard labor. Society could well take some lessons from the bee.

I've long been a firm believer that no food has a greater medicinal or nutritional value than honey. Honey has been used for medical purposes as well as antisep-

THRASHES ARRIVE—HEAD BACK FOR VENEZUELA

The Thrashes were back—and have gone again.

Two years ago, this adventuresome family, Robert, his wife and four children, left for Caracas, Venezuela, where he is employed as a management consultant for the J. L. Jacobs Company of Chicago.

The story of their excitement, their preparation for the trip, their anticipations, were featured on page 1 of the Eastern Review at that time.

But, as Thrash reported this week, they were ready to leave for Las Mercedes, the Caracas suburban community in which they live, on Wednesday, stopping off at Washington, D.C., for cherry blossom time, New York and a small island in the Dutch Antilles. "Sort of a vacation within a vacation," Thrash mused.

They have been back in the States since March 31. Why? "Mostly to do some clothes buying," Thrash reported. "We found it cheaper to make the trip here and buy clothes, than to stay in South America and buy.

"Clothes down there cost about three times as much as they do here."

Most other items they purchase, however, have comparable prices to those in the states. "Except gas. Down there it is only 10 cents a gallon."

The Thrashes find life in Caracas the same as they would here. "It is a big, modern city of some 2 million population."

The family lives in an apartment among others housed with North Americans. One of the unusual events to occur each year, Thrash said, is decorating a Christmas tree when it seems like the middle of summer."

The children all attend European schools, which are, their father said, a "little different, but not particularly harder, but plenty of homework.

This is not the Thrashes' first trip back. Last year, at this same time, they returned for a few weeks' vacation. Thrash said he does not know how much longer he will be in Caracas, at least until October, possibly longer.

One other thing, their son, who is a Venezuelan Cub Scout, brought back an authentic shrunken head, which he displayed last Friday to his former classmates at the James Road School.

TWO EAST SIDERS, Harry Wright III, right, 2509 Bexley Park-rd, and George W. Kauffman, center, 393 Brookside-dr, figured in bringing about the merger resulting in the new United Cerebral Palsy of Columbus and Franklin County. Wright was president of one of the merging groups. Kauffman is president of United Appeal, which will support the agency. Left is Charles L. Richards, president of the other merging Cerebral Palsy group.

Pair Of East Siders Aid In CP Merger

To East Siders figured prominently in bringing about the merger of two Cerebral Palsy organizations into a single more efficient unit.

The merged agencies will be known as United Cerebral Palsy of Columbus and Franklin County. It takes place of United Cerebral Palsy of Central Ohio and Cerebral Palsy of Columbus and Franklin County.

Harry Wright, III, 2509 Bexley Park-rd, president of Cerebral Palsy of Franklin County, was co-chairman of the joint committee representing the two agencies through which the merger was brought about.

The merged agency, as were the separate ones, will be United Appeal supported.

George W. Kauffman, 393 Brookside-dr, UA president, lauded the unification as "the ultimate efficiency in operation."

The merger had been recommended in a 1958 study by the Columbus Academy of Medicine.

It DOES Pay

"I didn't know a little two line ad could get so much response." These are the words of Mrs. Joseph Pinter, 119 Hinman, after she inserted a short ad for sewing work in the classified section of the Hartley Newspapers. Her success can also be yours by calling BR. 4-1155 for your advertising needs.

'CLEAN-UP' TIME SET FOR WHITEHALL

It's time to get rid of your junk and many of those other "hard-to-get-rid-of" articles that somehow or the other seem to accumulate but are of no use.

Mayor Walter B. Moling has proclaimed the week of Apr. 17 through 24 as "Clean Up" in Whitehall.

During the week of the 17th, the drive will be focused in the area West of Yearling-rd. The area East of Yearling-rd will take part the week of the 24th.

Any brush or tree limbs must be bundled not to exceed three feet. All trash, when possible, should be in closed containers.

Pick-ups will be made at regular locations.

'BEXLEY NEEDS NO CLEAN-UP DRIVE'

There will be no "clean-up the city" drive in Bexley.

"We do not need any," stated Mayor William Schneider. "We never have. We keep our city clean."

Schneider said that weekly checks are made and that property owners are notified immediately if regulations are being violated.

Reformation Lutheran To Install Rev. Peters

On Sunday, Apr. 16, at 9:30 a.m., a special service of installation will take place at Reformation Lutheran Church, 1355 S. Hamilton-rd.

At that hour, Rev. Olen A. Peters will be installed as pastor by Rev. Dr. Herbert Veler. There will be no 11 a.m. service.

Pastor Peters comes to Reformation Church from Bellefontaine, where he served as pastor of First Lutheran Church for 12 years.

'Cleaner Columbus' Is Launched

Now it's official:

Mayor W. Ralston Westlake has proclaimed the week of Apr. 17 through Apr. 22 as "Cleaner Columbus Week." In making the announcement, the mayor expressed the hope that every citizen and organization would get behind this all-out effort to make Columbus a cleaner, healthier city in which to live.

Said Mayor Westlake:

"The only way to get the job done is for each of us to take stock and make our part of the city . . . where we work as well as at home . . . cleaner and brighter. Everyone, young and old alike, can make a definite contribution."

As he signed the official proclamation the mayor said that he felt the campaign slogan, "For A Cleaner Columbus . . . Join Chris' Broom and Bucket Brigade," was especially appropriate to the problem and the need for everyone to take part.

Committee Commended

"Ben Collins and his committee are to be commended for their outstanding contribution to the welfare of Columbus," the mayor declared. "It's only through people like these, with a high sense of civic responsibility and a willingness to devote time and effort, that our city grows steadily in reputation among the great cities of this nation."

Mayor Westlake also pointed out that the "Cleaner Columbus" campaign afforded great opportunity for the city's active civic and service organizations to make a positive contribution through their leadership and personal efforts.

The "Cleaner Columbus Week" Committee, appointed by Council President William M. Hicks, consists of:

Chairman Ben Collins, district manager, White Castle systems; Fritz Bauman, contractor; Del Bodey, Linden News; Charles H. Campbell, Hilltop Businessmen's Association; Harold Carlisle, Columbus Dispatch; Joseph Davis, Jr., Davis' Department Store; Golda May Edmonston, councilwoman; Frank Fetch, South Side German Village; Stewart Gandolf, Gendolf Ford; William P. Hoermle, councilman; Rand P. Hollenback, Clintonville Booster; Mitch Kehetian, Columbus Citizen-Journal; Harold Kayne, Columbus Home Builders; Frederick H. Kelley, realtor; Tom Kohr, Columbus Realtors; Raylan Reid, attorney; Bernard Schottenstein, Steelton Furniture; Robert H. Smith, councilman; Jerry Spears, Jerry Spears Company, and Arch J. Warren, city treasurer.

Whitehall Named To North Central

Whitehall Superintendent Robert Crabbs has been notified that Whitehall High School has been named to the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges "without reservation."

Crabbs related that of 522 who could belong to the association, only 260 in Ohio are accredited and meet all standards.

IT'S A WINNING PROPOSITION

The mop, the bucket, and the scrub brush are as symbolic of this season as the crocus and the daffodil.

While you probably see the benefit of spring cleaning and renovating in your own home, perhaps you wonder about the effectiveness of the present "Cleaner Columbus" campaign, and similar efforts in neighboring communities.

It takes only one bad apple to spoil the barrel and one run-down home to ruin a neighborhood.

Which means it is everybody's job during the campaign to appoint himself a committee of one on civic beautification and improvement. Excuses like "I don't have the time," "It costs too much," and "maybe I'll get around to it later" only postpone the job until the day when it will be much harder and the expense much greater.

Provided everyone cooperates, what will we gain? This partial list may surprise you: development of community spirit; reduction of fire losses; instruction in good housekeeping; respect for property; vacant lot improvement; promotion of safety; discouragement of crime; a good citizenship lesson for children; improvement of employe morale. The "Cleaner Columbus" idea supports business and stabilizes, restores, and increases the value of real estate.

How do we win? In every way that will contribute to our safety, health, and general well-being.

Dem Recalls Bower Approval

I have been asked why I am supporting Lewis S. Bower for mayor of Whitehall.

Mr. Bower is a civic-minded individual interested in the good and welfare of all citizens in Whtiehall.

The Whitehall Democratic committee met at Mr. Bower's house Jan. 4, 1961. The purpose: to organize a strong Democratic party.

At this meeting Mr. Bower requested anybody planning to run for mayor to so state, and he would not oppose him, but would give that person his full support.

Nobody announced his intention to be a candidate, so Mr. Bower was given unanimous approval.

But that was in January.

LETTER TO EDITOR:

Director Of Gallery Players Says Actors Are Not Puppets

I wish to thank you for the very wonderful story that you printed recently about the Gallery Players of The Jewish Center and myself, as Director of the group. As the Jewish Center is a member agency of the United Community Council, we depend very much upon our local newspapers to publicize our activities. The Eastern Review has been most cooperative with us and we do hope we will have your continued cooperation in the future.

However, may I bring your attention to a few lines in your very complimentary article in which you referred to . . . "with actors and actresses clipping along with marionette quality by the unseen hands (of the director) that have pulled the strings week after week . . ." In your next paragraph you also make a reference to the actors as "stage puppets."

Without getting into a long dissertion as to whether the actor may be a creative or interpretive artist, I do wish to state that no performer moving along as a puppet (unless he were cast in the role of a puppet) could ever hope to evoke an emotional response from a viewing audience.

Various directors may use various techniques in trying to guide or help an actor's performance to bear fruit — and, incidentally, many times with varying success. They may possibly be content to discuss the role with the actor, or even torment him in order to bring out what he thinks is the playwright's intention.

I find personally that directing in the non-professional theatre requires a combination of techniques plus a few whispered prayers on the side. But in the final analysis, it is still the actor who remains alone upon the stage with the power to transmit an experience of some kind to the viewing audience. It is upon his shoulders alone that the believability of the situation rests. It cannot be done by a puppet.

Again, I want to thank you for your very flattering article and would also like to express my thanks to the fine, talented and cooperative members of the A View From The Bridge cast that helped bring to our community what Norman Nadel, in the Columbus Citizen-Journal, said was ". . . thunderous theatre."

Muskie Weighs More Than Reported

The weight of a large muskie taken from Rocky Fork Lake on Mar. 12, was inaccurately reported in a recent news release as being 20 pounds, 10 ounces.

The big muskie actually weighed 23 pounds, 5 ounces, according to a corrected report. V. D. Lanier, Kingston, the lucky angler, is anxious that the correct weight be given in order that he might qualify for a high place in the newly formed Ohio Muskie Club.

Any angler catching an Ohio muskie which weighs at least 20 pounds and measures at least 40 inches is eligible for membership in the organization.

Formation Of Conservancy District Is Good News

Progress toward the formation of a new five-county conservancy district with new and enlarged scope is welcome news to the area.

The fact that the old 17-county district accomplished absolutely nothing over a long period of time should serve only to inspire the new organization in the rapid development of a program aimed at the development of flood control, water supply and conservation as well as much needed recreation areas.

The five counties making up the new district have much at stake in the development of a strong organization, one that will roll up its sleeves and do something. Any time later than right now may be too late!

Jabberin' Jack:

Teepee Tidbits And Red Hot Flashes

By Jack Allen, Sports Editor

Things are about to pop loose in the senior circuits of baseball and I want to share some of the footnotes of spring training that have come across my desk . . . you'll find only notes of the Reds and Indians . . . out of loyalty to the Buckeye State's representatives.

When Cincinnati pitcher Jerry Zimmerman reported to the Reds' camp at Tampa, Fla., he was assigned to room with John Flavin . . . 18-year-old rookie hurler . . . the latter was held up by a commercial travel strike . . . and veteran third baseman Will Jones checked in and drew Flavin's sack . . . Zimmerman woke up the next morning and spying Jones thought "My gosh, this is the oldest looking 18-year-old I've ever seen."

The Reds' outfielder Vada Pinson became a father for the first time just before spring training . . . the poor guy didn't get to do the floor walking bit enough to appreciate the sudden separation . . . so he calls the BW in Oakland, Calif., and listens to the baby cry via Alexander's invention.

The Indians are expecting great things from their newly obtained right fielder Willie Kirkland . . . the Cleveland squad handed Kirkland the assignment of home run and RBI leader . . . the 27-year-old slugger hit 43 homers at Candlestick Park during the past two seasons . . . Kirkland's baseball idol was Luke Easter . . . and imitated the early 50's thriller even to the point of dragging his bat on the way to the plate . . . Kirkland was disappointed when no Cleveland scout signed him . . . but the slugger didn't forget the game . . . he hit 40 homers in Sioux City in '55 . . . 37 in Minneapolis the following year . . . and has performed similarly every season of his career . . . National league observers have reported they predict 30 homers and 100 RBI's this season . . . Kirkland is described as an effortless performer with the mannerisms of Al Smith . . . once with the Indians and now with the Chicago White Sox . . . looks like the break of a bright future for the Detroit reared guy.

You've heard of the mail order brides of old . . . the Reds have a mail order college graduate pumping for them . . . . Ray Rippelmeyer reported a few days late for training . . . with permission . . . so he could finish his schooling . . . the diploma will follow through the mail in June . . . a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture from Southern Illinois University.

Locally speaking . . . you no doubt read of TV Weatherman Stan Robinson's appointment as a public address announcer for the Jet home games . . . can't you imagine the color of his face when he predicts a nice warm fair evening at 6:25 p.m. over the picture tube and announces the game is cancelled due to rain at 7:30 p.m. over the PA . . . maybe Stan will do an advance on the woes of the weatherman in his weekly "Idle Hour Guide" which appears in this paper.

Speaking of college boys . . . and I was before the above item . . . the Indians had 14 of them around during spring training . . . 10 players from the regular roster plus two coaches and two farm club trainees . . . outfielder Ty Cline is an ex-Clemson College luminary . . . Al Luplow was a grid star at Michigan State . . . third sacker Bubba Phillips is an ex-Mississippi Southern athlete . . . pitcher Wynn Hawkins set a basketball scoring mark at Baldwin-Wallace . . . John Antonelli attended Bowling Green . . . Barry Latman and John McLane attended USC . . . and Frank Funk did the higher education bit at American University . . . Joe Morgan at Boston College . . . and John Temple at Catawba College . . . the farm kids . . . Jack Kubiszyn and Max Alvis . . . had outstanding athletic careers at the University of Alabama and Texas respectively.

Next time I happen I'll give you the inside story on the youthfulness of the Indians and how a bazooka was employed by the Reds during spring training . . . so as the man says . . . 10-4.

Jewish Center Plans Summer Sports Affair

Teen-agers of the Jewish Center will get a chance to spend a part of their summer sailboating and horse back riding through a special summer program titled "TOSS" (Teen Outdoor Summer Sports).

TOSS will offer the youths an organized schedule of sailing, tennis, riding, swimming and, biggest of all, a week long trip to Louisville and Cincinnati.

For four and one-half weeks, starting June 26, and running through July 25, TOSS will cover five days a week from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Under the direction of a trained professional staff, the individual sports will be instructed by highly qualified experts serving with the Center. The aim of each instructor will be to teach the basic skills so that at the end of TOSS the teens can continue to enjoy these things on their own.

All activities will be instructed at a teenage level of ability. Teens already skilled in any of the areas will receive advanced instruction to help improve their knowledge.

The emphasis is on fun and learning — therefore, the number that can be accepted is limited in order that every participant can receive individual attention and assistance. The cost for the entire four weeks, including all expenses for the final week of travel to Louisville and Cincinnati, and all costs for instruction, is $75 per person.

All teens or parents interested, should contact Mary Bienstock at The Jewish Center, BElmont 1-2731, immediately.

SWIRLING HAIRDOS

If your present hairstyle isn't in a swirl, then you don't get the drift of the new coifs. Everywhere there are new and different versions of the swirling trend that could be called "organized confusion." Much artistry goes into decisions about where to snip the hair, how it should be dipped, draped or dropped. The unusual, often casual and sometimes off-beat results, conceal the intricacies of each creation.

Swirling hairdos don't just happen. They must be arranged to suit the individual. Now is the time for your change of "do." Iva's Beauty Salon, 3978 E. Broad Street, Columbus. BE. 5-5474.

IDLE HOUR GUIDE . . .

Indians Baseball On WVKO, Jets Will Be In Action On '4'

By Stan Robinson

For the 12th consecutive year, WVKO radio is carrying the play-by-play action of the Cleveland Indians with Jimmy Dudley and Bob Neal teamed up on the broadcast. Dudley is again doing his pregame show, "Dugout Interviews," interviewing players and managers from both teams. Neal is again doing the "10th Inning, presenting scores and a wrap-up of the day's game. There will be 101 games on WVKO—50 in the daytime and 42 on FM.

JETS ON TELEVISION . . . WLF-C Channel 4 and the Columbus Jets Baseball Club have announced plans for 10 telecasts again this season commencing with the Toronto game of Apr. 25, Jet Stadium. Camera crews and the sports duo of Crum and Smith and Clark to be specific will work high above home plate for the play-by-play and the color on the 1st telecasts. The TV schedule includes the May 1 date with Buffalo, May 1 Rochester, May 31 Richmond, June 4 San Juan, June 8 Buffalo, June 10 Rochester, June 25 Syracuse, July 23 Richmond and Aug. 20 with Syracuse.

TB CONTEST JUDGES . . . Paula McGuire, the radio "Betty Newton," Dr. Richard M. Mall, associate professor of speech in radio-TV at Ohio State, now on leave as consultant assistant to People's Broadcasting Corp., and Duncan Thorp, public relations director of the Ohio Tuberculosis and Health Association have been named as judges by the TB Society and WBNS for Feature-TB," a radio writing competition for Franklin County 9th through 12th graders. The competition ends Apr. 15.

WBF—PAST PRESENT AND FUTURE . . . It is doubtful that any Central Ohio radio listeners have ever caught the sounds of WBFH radio, located at the Benjamin Franklin Tuberculosis Hospital, Alum Creek-dr in Columbus.

Some 15 years ago, an industrious hospital patient started the project as a form of rehabilitation with a staff composed of hospital patients. The station was silent between 1955 and 1959. The tubes and turntables came alive again in 1959 thanks to the interest and efforts of Dan Bergman, a young man in Columbus with both radio and TV background.

From the staff of one, today's basic operations staff numbers over 20 willing workers, several of whom are affiliated with commercial radio and TV in Columbus. It is a voluntary project every step of the way.

Hospital patients again work at this project as a part of their therapy and the results are gratifying. The station broadcasts with a transmitter signal that is fed into house current confined to the hospital grounds with an audience small in number but large in spirit for the work turned out.

Financial needs for equipment and other operational necessities comes strictly from interested friends and benefactors.

Remote broadcasts of major Columbus events including sports are always on the busy schedule at Ben Franklin.

At present, broadcast hours

Congressman Earl Merrow will be the main speaker at the Capital University Mock United Nations Assembly Saturday, Apr. 15.

The New Hampshire Republican, appointed a U.S. Representative of the Tenth Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, will address over 1,000 Ohio high school students at 6:30 p.m. in Mees Hall Auditorium.

Each of the 99 schools has been assigned a participating nation in the UN and will assume the customs and attire of that nation during the Mock Assembly. The session will use the same procedural rules of the actual UN and will include all of the various organs of the organization, featuring the Security Council and General Assembly.

The program is sponsored by the University's Political Science Club.

Swim-Land Club Plans New Pool

Plans have been completed for the addition of a new training pool on the present site of the Swim Land Club on Hamilton-rd. This new training pool will be 40x75 feet in size and will be used for teaching swim classes (both morning and afternoon sessions) extra adult recreation, swimming team practise, and swimming meets.

J. C. Case, Jr., manager, also added that on Monday night, a special swimming pool permit was issued to Swim Land, Inc., to build a swim club in Newark. The new pool, to be situated on seven acres of land, will feature, in addition to the large pool, a training pool, modern filtration plant, bath house, snack shack and additional recreational facilities. Final negotiations will be completed this week.

Whitehall-Yearling RAM-blings

By Jeanne Bleker

THE TWIRPS WERE AT IT LAST WEEK

Preparing for graduation, which is not too far in the future, the seniors were measured Mar. 20, for caps and gowns.

Then on the windy Wednesday of Mar. 29 the senior class marched to the football field to have the class picture made for the Dispatch.

The seniors are also busy making other preparations for graduation, such as ordering announcements, planning the senior party, and, of course, thinking about the gift they as a class should leave the school.

Activities seem to be piling up these last few months of school. While seniors prepare for graduation, the juniors prepare for the all-important prom.

The most recent project for the junior class is Twirp Week; beginning Apr. 4. Twirp Week enables the girls to escort the fellows of their choice to and from classes.

Then on Friday, Apr. 7, the junior class will sponsor a Twirp Dance to which the girls ask and treat the fellows. Proceeds of the dance will go into the junior class treasury.

Another queen for Whitehall is Florence Cotterman. On Thursday, Mar. 30, Florence was crowned queen of the High School Bands Military Ball. Miss Cotterman was chosen by the school band to be a candidate.

At the dance held at Valley Dale, Florence competed with candidates from other schools.

For the first time since Whitehall has had school publications, students working received pins for their work on the Aries or Ramble, yearbook and newspaper respectively. Inscribed on the pins is the position held by the staff member and the name of the publication on which he worked.

Those working on the Aries are Judy Yeakle, editor; Bobbie Patton, co-editor; and Phyllis Levine, Sue Barnhill, Carol Brenning, Patty Kover, Nita Williams, Sally Metcalf, Gloria Wilson, Sue Middleton, Don Justice, Tom Foster, Janice Heacox, Mike Short, and Pam Matchett. Those working on the Ramble Karen Sutphen, editor; Jeanne Bleker, co-editor; and Diane Huffman, Sandra Jett, Sandy Winfrey, Janice Greene, Sue Barnhill, Phyllis Levine, Judy Yeakle, Patty Kover, Bob Walker, Doug Trott, and Danny Latshaw.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

TOP TWO students for the month of March at Whitehall-Yearling High School were named last week. Honors went to Gloria Wilson, of 974 Exeter-dr, and Gene Broyles, of 412 Yearling-rd.

CRAZY DAYS BEGIN

A "CRAZY DAYS SALE" usually means that there will be more than just crazy prices in evidence. This weekend when the Town and Country Shopping Center stages its annual "Crazy Days Sale," there will be a full sized mirror in which to view yourself, and many of the salespeople will be wearing funny clothes. According to a shopping center spokesman, "Town and Country customers are in for a lot of fun and the chance to pick up all sorts of wonderful merchandise at ridiculously low prices."

Bass With $1,000 Price Tag Found Dead At Indian Lake

A largemouth bass with a price on its head was found dead near Pony Island in Indian Lake about the time the big thaw occurred, according to John Flinn, District 6 fish management agent, Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Released in June, 1958, as an 18½-inch fish, the bass had grown to 21½ inches at the time of its death. Cause of death is not known but there was a heavy winter kill of largemouth bass in Indian Lake.

The big bass bore a tag which was worth as much as $1,000 at one time to the angler who caught the fish by sporting means. This prize money was offered by the Lima Citizen and several merchant members of the Indian Lake Area Chamber of Commerce. The tag had been placed on the fish when originally released and was one of a series of numbers furnished by the division.

However, this bass successfully eluded all the fishermen at Indian Lake and finally "died of old age," according to some reports.

Camping Season Starts Saturday

The camping season is about to get under way in Ohio, according to V. W. Flickinger, Ohio Division of Parks chief. The official opening date is Apr. 15; 24 parks offering camping facilities.

"There are two parks with Class A campsites," said Flickinger, "East Harbor, Ottawa County, and Pymatuning, Ashtabula County. These areas have pressure water systems, flush toilets, slop drains, shower and laundry facilities, electricity, picnic tables and outdoor grills."

Class B areas provide approved water wells, pit-type latrines, slop drains, picnic tables and outdoor grills.

Parks with Class B facilities are: Blue Rock, Muskingum County; Clear Fork, Ashland; Guilford Lake, Columbiana; Harrison Lake, Fulton; Hueston Woods, Butler-Preble; Independence Dam, Defiance; Indian Lake, Logan; Jefferson Lake, Jefferson; John Bryan, Greene; Kiser Lake, Champaign; Lake Alma and Lake Hope, Vinton; Lake White, Pike; Loramie, Shelby-Auglaize; Mt. Gilead, Morrow; Pike Lake, Pike; Rocky Fork, Highland; Roosevelt, Scioto; Scioto Trail, Ross; South Camping area at Old Man's Cave, Hocking, and Van Buren, Hancock.

The camping area at Old Man's Cave, Hocking County, is closed for the 1961 season because of planned construction work.

Several of the parks have group campfacilities, and some offer Class C or primitive camping sites only to organized groups.

Charges for camping at state parks are: Class A, family, four or less persons seven and older, $1.50 a day; each person in excess of four, 25 cents. Class B, family, four or less persons seven and older, $1 a day; each person in excess of four, 25 cents.

Group camping rates, Class A and B, are the same as family rates. In Class C areas, group rates are 10 cents a day per person.

Tackle Makers Get Together To Whip Confusion In Lines

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

It'll soon be time to start fly casting rubber spiders for bluegills.

While fly fishing seems to be a calm sport—and it is except for a few beginners lashing the water to a froth—away from the scene of fishing is a seething controversy about line sizes and weight markings.

Many anglers have never understood the designation of fly lines, and those that do have never fully agreed about the system. It's almost like the weather, everybody complains but no one ever does anything about it.

However, a ray of hope is in the distance for the Associated Tackle Manufacturers Association has had a committee working on the problem for some time. A new plan has been set up and has been approved by line manufacturers and rod makers. It should not be too difficult to select a line in the near future that will balance any particular fly rod.

Plan Gradual Change

The association warns that the transition will be made gradually to avoid confusion, so don't look for a change overnight.

Here's the new plan in a nutshell: All line manufacturers have agreed to ignore diameters and to standardize by adopting a marking system which will divide fly lines into class by weight in grains. It is the weight of a fly line that is cast, and weight is therefore a critical factor to the angler. There will be 12 line classes, numbered 1 through 12. Here are the classes, with the weight in grains of a 30-foot section (on tapers, you start measuring the 30-foot from the uptaper, ignoring the tippet):

Line No.	Weight in Grains	Minus & Plus Tolerance, in Grains
1	60	54-66
2	80	74-86
3	100	94-106
4	120	114-126
5	140	134-146
6	160	152-168
7	185	177-193
8	210	202-218
9	240	230-250
10	280	270-290
12	380	368-392

Letter designations to be included in the new line classifications are "S" for sinking, "F" for floating, "I" for intermediate. The prefix "DT" will stand for double taper. For example, a line now esignated "HCH" could become a "DT9F", that is, a double taper, class 9, floating line.

Still confused? Well, as complicated as this is, it's simpler than the old system. But I have a hunch an awful lot of fly fishermen will leave line selection up to sporting goods dealers. This can be either very good or very bad—we can only hope that salespeople in the fly line department go fly fishing.

WITH HIM IT'S JUST A HOBBY

DICK GIEHL, 3480 Hamilton-rd, has turned a hobby into quite a profitable proposition. The 42-year-old man is shown displaying a piece of leatherwork which he estimates to be worth about $2,000. The project took about two and a half months to construct and is a series of three religious scenes entitled "Life Everlasting." The frame is of solid walnut, built by Bob Routt, and the mural is colored with alcohol dye. Giehl works as a PBX repairman with the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Eight County Scout-O-Rama Ready For Week-End Pow-wow

For the tenth consecutive year, Central Ohio's greatest all boy show — the Scout-O-Rama, will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 22 and 23.

The Buckeye Building on the Ohio State Fairgrounds will house this spectacular two-day event. Local boys will be joined by Scouts from seven other counties in Central Ohio, who will display more than 200 exhibits.

By popular demand, the midway again will be set up outside the Buckeye Building and will contain more than a dozen large displays too cumbersome to house inside. Inaugurated last year, this unique attraction, with its colorful decorations and carnival atmosphere was a huge success.

Inside the Buckeye Building small displays will be shown and manned by Scouts who will explain them and answer questions.

Throughout both days, Scout entertainers will feature special acts in the arena. Music will be furnished by five junior high school bands from Central Ohio.

Apr. 15 Is "T" Day

T-Day, kick-off of the Scout-O-Rama ticket sales drive will officially begin on Saturday, Apr. 15. From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. all Scouts will sell tickets from door-to-door in all neighborhoods. Tickets sell for 50 cents and will admit one adult or two children.

Clean restrooms, ample free parking, and refreshments are being provided for the convenience of visitors.

The Scout-O-Rama is sponsored by the Central Ohio Council of Boy Scouts of America and the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

Students To Be In Miami Show

The Marlin Club, women's swimming group at Miami University, has chosen the old-fashioned family reunion as the theme for its annual water show, "I Remember When," to be presented at the university Apr. 13, 14, and 15.

Participating will be Ina Sue Balcov, 235 S. Ardmore, and Peggy Ann O'Hara, 70 Lattimer-st. The water show, based on synchronized swimming, is planned and directed entirely by club members, including choreography and costuming.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Day Nursery Operators Say Proposed Bill Unreasonable

To the Editor.

House Bill No. 853, to amend section 5103.02 of the Revised Code relative to exempting day care centers from the provisions of Chapter 5103. of the Revised Code, is presently in the Health Committee of the Ohio Legislature and receiving full support of the Ohio Association of Day Nurseries.

Section 5103.02 delegates the responsibility of licensing and rule-making to the Division of Social Administration. Department of Public Welfare.

The Ohio Association feels it is important to have rules and regulations as a guide for a good operation, however, those promulgated by the Division of Social Administration (while somewhat feasible) are in most part arbitrary and unreasonable as applied to the privately owned day nursery.

The association feels the rules were designed primarily as a standard of operation for day care centers supported by the United Community Fund. The financial support these agencies are given by United Appeal is sufficient to meet their budgets but additional funds are received from parents of children enrolled in the center.

The private nursery program is financed from one course, parent's fees, and should the proposed rules become effective the parents of children in private nurseries would suffer an increase in cost of care to a prohibitive rate. This would virtually eliminate the parents' prerogative to place their child where they may choose.

It would appear the Division of Social Administration in the promulgation of these rules has ignored the fact that private capital is invested only in operations which have a reasonable expectation of profit. It would appear the word profit is an unsavory word insofar as the Division is concerned.

The fundamental fact is that if the state makes is impossible for private operators to conduct their business so as to cover their expenses and receive a reasonable return on their investment, time and effort, they will be unable to continue in business. If it is the purpose of the Division to push private nurseries completely out of business they have certainly taken a giant step in that direction.

The fact is that the Division has done a completely inadequate job with its present program over a period of years. The only way they could possibly take on more responsibilities in this field would be to receive a larger appropriation from the State Legislature. This of course, must come from the taxpayers.

It would appear that the interests of the tax-paying public would be better serviced if the Welfare department and its Division of Social Administration would concentrate its efforts in the charitable, benevolent, and correctional fields for which they were created and leave the regulation of private nurseries to the local authorities who are much better equipped, and familiar with local situations.

LETTER TO EDITOR:

Easter Seal Aid Appreciated

To The Publisher:

On behalf of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children may I thank you most sincerely for the wonderful assistance the Hartley newspapers gave to the 1961 Easter Seal campaign.

Your generous aid was of tremendous value in the continuation and expansion of our work for the physically handicapped.

We are indeed grateful to you and your staff as well as to the thousands of your subscribers who served as volunteer workers during our Easter Seal and Lily Parades.

And of course those persons who shared in fulfilling the hope of a happy, independent future for crippled youngsters by generous Easter Seal contributions, have our lasting gratitude.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ralph G. Bieber

Jobless Applications Are Now Being Filed

Applications of jobless Ohioans for extended unemployment benefits may now be filed at the after Monday, Apr. 10, at the local BUC office, 435 Cleveland-av, according to Ralph E. Gabele, local manager.

The temporary extended program applies to unemployed workers who drew their last checks since June 30, 1960 and to eligible workers who may exhaust their benefits before Apr. 1, 1962.

The approximately 2,000 persons expected to file claims in Franklin County will do so according to the last digit of their Social Security numbers. Claimants with numbers ending in 0 or 1 will report on Monday; 2 or 3, Tuesday; 4 or 5, Wednesday; 6 or 7, Thursday; 8 or 9 on Friday.

Those eligible for claims may draw compensation up to an additional 13 weeks. This will equal one-half the amount they received or were entitled to before they exhausted their benefits.

In addition to receiving his last benefit check since June 30, 1960, other requirements for eligibility stipulate that a claimant must be unemployed, not available for benefits in Ohio or any other state, able and available for work, reporting to the BUC office, and not disqualified on any grounds. Former members of the Armed Forces and Federal civilian workers are also covered under this extension

An Important Message:

Residents of Columbus and Franklin County who care about their neighbors, as well as their families, receive the opportunity this month to join more than 2,000,000 volunteers across the country in the greatest struggle ever recorded against a single disease.

April traditionally is Cancer Month. This is the time the American Cancer Research Society underscores its year-round program of RESEARCH, EDUCATION, and SERVICE. The American Cancer Society is the ONLY organization fighting cancer on all three fronts.

The Society's program goes on every day — just as cancer, every day, kills 725 people. In many areas Cancer Research has made great gains and many cancers can be cured IF the patient will go to the physician at the first sign of trouble. Knowledge of Cancer's Seven Danger Signals must become more widespread.

The CANCER CRUSADE which is now underway in Franklin County (as well as all 3000 counties in the nation) is a combination of Education and Fund-Raising. The Society has learned its message must be carried to people in their homes on a person-to-person approach. Homes will be visited in the evening of Tuesday, April 25th, with more than 9,000 Cancer Crusaders carrying a life-saving message to each home in our community.

This is the chance for each resident to hear a message, which might save a life. This is also your opportunity to provide financial support to Cancer Research — much of which is being carried on right here in our own community by some of the world's great scientists.

Leading this tremendous Crusade is Dr. Charles A. Doan, Medical Research Director at the Ohio State University Health Center. Volunteering with him in various aspects of the Crusade are James R. Riley, president of Suburban Motor Freight Co.; Frank R. Schwartz, president of Schwartz Showell Corporation; T. B. Handshey, personnel director for Beverage Management (7-Up); Mrs. Franklyn Eyerman; Mrs. W. F. Langley; Irwin Johnson of WBNS Radio; Jerry Spears, Jr., of the Spears Funeral Home; Mrs. Bernice Berclaw; "Mack" Pemberton, principal at Hilltonia Junior High; Albert Termeer of Westinghouse Corporation; and John Loehnert, vice-president of Dollar Federal Savings & Loan.

They are just a small group of your neighbors who are taking time to help you save your life — or perhaps the life of a friend or co-worker. You may be asked to serve in the Cancer Crusade, and when that time comes those who are interested in a healthier America will find it gratifying to join in a movement with 2,000,000 to Crusade against the most dreaded disease of all time. If you wish to serve your community, telephone the American Cancer Society, BR. 6-5134, or stop in at 2300 W. Mound Street.

'A Rose Is A Rose' Perhaps Even More

Home owners can be proud of their roses, which lend an aura all their own to the home property, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. Few flowers add so much as the rose in beautifying the property from spring to heavy frost.

In the "language of flowers" different types of roses symbolizes true love, freshness, beauty or virtue. In Christian symbolism, the rose is emblematic of "a person without peer."

Rose gardens or fences or specimen plants on the property add much to its attractiveness. The planting of a half-dozen rose plants each year, in time returns a lovely garden of all the newly developed varieties. Growers have gone to great pains and heavy expense to hybridize ever lovelier blooms.

A grower may gamble on growing 10,000 or more seedlings to find only one, or perhaps not even one improved variety. Once he does find a wonderful new rose, however, he has the thrill of a lifetime. His next step is to test it in all climatic areas of the country. On the basis of reports from these tests, he may gamble on producing many thousands of new plants, hoping that home owners will take to their beauty, as he did. It often takes up to 10 years or more in developing a new variety.

From his constant improvement and testing come new hybrid teas, floribunda, grandiflora, climbing or miniature roses to beautify home properties.

Grandiflora is a comparatively new classification of large growing rose plants with quality flowers used as specimen plants on the property, or in gardens. Floribundas are somewhat smaller, but covered with blooms, sometimes in clusters. Climbing roses offer cascades of flowers beside a porch, garage or over a trellis. Hundreds of blooms are produced.

SUMMERTIME IS COMING and scenes like this one of a family "cooking out" in a screened garage-patio promise to be popular. This garage was turned into a sheltered summer house with attached screend patio simply by removing the rear wall, installing an overhead door and building an aluminum screen patio enclosure.

Garage-Patio Is Novel Idea For Family Fun This Summer

Want more room this summer for comfortable play or relaxing at home?

Just leave the car outdoors and move the family into the garage!

Hundreds of home owners have converted their garages into screened recreation areas, often with extended screened patios for full indoor-outdoor summer living.

The unique garage-patio idea is not only practical, but is just about the least costly property improvement that permanently adds living area and makes a house more useable during "outdoor living weather."

Converting a garage into a screened-house or patio is accomplished by removing the rear wall and installing an overhead door. Individual plans differ from that point on, depending upon each home owner's personal wishes, the terrain, location of the house on the property, and other factors.

Home owners who lack ade-car by means of by-passing quate yard space for patio ex-screen panels at the front that tensions simply have both endscan be pushed aside to permit of the garage closed with fit-entry of the auto!

Consider Btu's In Playing It Cool

The easiest and surest way to obtain the right-sized room air conditioner for any room is to provide an appliance dealer with enough information to prescribe the "Btu" capacity needed for maximum comfort.

Btu's—British thermal units—are used today by manfacturers to describe the cooling capacity of modern air conditioners. Old "horsepower" and "ton" designation have been abandoned in favor of this more accurate method of measuring the amount of heat a cooling unit can handle.

One Btu per hour is roughly the amount of heat generated by a kitchen match if it were to burn an hour. An air conditioner labeled 12,000 Btu's, for example, would remove the heat of approximately 12,000 matches.

Here's the basic information the appliance dealer will need to help choose an air conditioner for a given room:

1. Size of room and what it's used for, such as living room, bedroom, dining room, or family room.
2. Exposure of its outside walls—south, north, east, or west,—and the number of windows facing south or west.
3. Its location in relation to other areas of the house: under roof, uninsulated attic, or occupied room.
4. Electric circuits available: 115, 230, or 208 volts.

A wide selection of room air conditioners now is available, including window units, models that install permanently through a wall, and units that provide year around comfort—cool in summer, heat in winter.

Standards of the National Electrical Manufacturers Association now provide that a room air conditioner's cooling capacity in Btu's per hour be imprinted on the data plate.

Make Plans, Then Get It In Black 'n White

Some practical advice to homeowners interested in home repairs recently was given at a meeting of the North Side Neighborhood Council. The council annually conducts one of the most ambitious clean-up campaigns in the Columbus area.

Three past presidents serving as a panel met with the Better Business Bureau and the Columbus Builders Exchange and prepared the following list of safeguards for those odrering home repairs.

Make Definite Plans First

Know what improvements you want to make and decide on plan with contractor or architect as to exact work to be done for the basis of competitive bids. Ask for competitive bids on identical specifications from at least three reliable contractors. Avoid changes after the contract is let. Check their reliability with such agencies as Better Business Bureau, City Building Department, etc. In planning stages check zoning and easement restrictions with the City Building Department. City Health Department can also be helpful. To protect yourself from liability make sure workers and contractors are covered by adequate insurance.

In shopping for credit be as careful of your financing as you are of your contractor. Shop for credit and financing with any bank, savings and loan, or any approved financial institution. Never sign a blank contract or note. This opens the door for fraud.

Don't be misled by the word "guarantee", a guarantee is only as good as the contractor behind it. Don't sign a contract before reading and understanding it. If you do not understand any paper consult a good lawyer. Don't sign a contract that will be filled in later. Don't sign a paper to get rid of a salesman. Be sure the contract is not binding until you get a signed copy. Don't consider verbal promises. These are not readily enforcible. Be sure the contract is specific and covers all phases of work. Apply this type of example to all phases of work to be done.

It's Time To Have Heating Equip Check

Make a note on your calendar to set up a date with your oil, gas or coal furnace man to check your heating equipment before you place it in operation next fall.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters points out that July and August are good months in which to get this work done, for servicemen at that time are the least busy. Studies show that nearly every tenth fire is caused by defective heating units.

By making sure your furnace is in tip-top shape, you have not only taken an important step in making your home fire safe, but have taken out good insurance against a furnace breakdown.

What To Plant Is BigQuestion

Is landscaping the home grounds one of your projects for 1961? If it is and you need to brush up on your knowledge of what to plant, Fred C. Snyder, chairman, Correspondence Courses, the Pennsylvania State University, suggests you enroll in a home study course.

The one he believes will be of the most help right now is Course 133, "Rhododendrons, Azaleas, and Related Plants." Improved varieties of these native Pennsylvania plants are suitable for home landscaping.

The four-lesson course describes the selection, planting, management, and disease control measures for these plants. It also gives the colors of flowers and the height to which the various plants grow.

You can obtain home study course 133 by sending $1 to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Make your check or money order payable to The Pennsylvania State University

Care Needed When Painting

Do-It Yourself home decorators around this time may be planning painting jobs in connection with Spring Clean-Up Week. The National Board of Fire Underwriters offers these suggestions to home painters:

1. Never smoke in a room in which paints are being mixed.
2. While you are painting, be sure and keep a window or two partly open to prevent paint fumes from accumulating
3. Always throw away rags soaked with oil or paint after the paint job is completed, or keep them in closed metal containers. Under certain conditions oily rags can heat up from chemical action and burst into flames.

Here's A Check List For Clean Up Projects

Some specific contributions you can make to the Cleaner Columbus effort by improving your own home are as follows:

1. Stairways—see to it that they are uncluttered and well lighted, with sturdy hand rails and sound treads. Paint cellar steps a light color so they'll be easily visible.
2. Old newspapers—these, old magazines, unused furniture, old clothing in good condition, should be removed from basement, attic and garage and be contributed to your favorite charity.
3. Electrical wiring—check that your wiring is adequate to do the job demanded by all your appliances. Overloading the circuits can cause sudden disastrous fires. At the same time replace frayed lamp cords.
4. Screens—be sure the mesh is intact so as to keep flies and mosquitoes out. Rub away any rust and repaint.
5. Heating plant—check and clean furnace, flues and chimney.
6. Oily rags—keep these and rags used in painting in tightly covered metal containers to avoid spontaneous combustion.
7. Siding—are there cracked or broken boards? Is the paint in good and clean condition?
8. Bricks—are there any cracked bricks, does mortar have to be replaced?
9. Roofs and flashing—are shingles and other roofing material in good condition? Is flashing intact and caulked to prevent water leakage? Do shingles have to be replaced or restained?
10. Floors—are they sound, varnished, painted or waxed? Are rugs and carpets free from rips and tears? Are scatter rugs well-anchored?
11. Lawns and gardens—have bare spots on lawns been reseeded, gardens made ready for planting? Hedges trimmed?
12. Garbage Cans—are they provided with covers to keep flies out and foraging animals from scattering contents?
13. Sidewalks and driveways—are there spots where concrete is broken and should be repaired?
14. Interior rooms—is the paint in good condition? Need new draperies? Does furniture need repair? Refinishing?
15. Garages—are they free from rubbish? Is any gasoline in tightly capped containers to prevent fires?
16. Lightning Rods—are they properly installed? Are conductors intact?

Clean Screens Are Mark Of Thorough Housekeeping

While regular soap and water will not harm them, aluminum screens can be kept clean simply by sweeping or brushing, plus an occasional going over with a moist cloth.

The Screen Manufacturers Association suggests that a regular house broom or a medium stiff brush used gently will suffice to remove dust and dirt that collects on aluminum or fibrous glass insect screening and aluminum screen frames.

Occasionally after brushing, and before over-winter storage, screens can be wiped clean with a moist cloth.

Gentleness is the order though, the S.M.A. cautions, so the screening will not be punctured, cut, or pulled from the spline that holds it to the frame.

With ordinary intelligent care, aluminum frame window screens or porch, patio and pool enclosure panels should last indefinitely. They can not rust, warp or rot and are inherently resistant to weathering. A gentle brushing cleans them. They can be stored flat or on edge leaning against a wall.

Traditional Welcome of Hula Girls Hawaiian Leis, Aloha Kiss Await

"I've been doing this for 20 years, and my blood pressure still jumps when we come in," said the silver-haired purser.

You're aboard the SS Lurline, flagship of the Matson Lines, gliding into Honolulu harbor. All about you, passengers are being hugged, kissed and almost smothered in flower leis.

What is amazing — as those taking the Suburbia Sea Party being sponsored by the Eastern Review aboard Lurline or her companion ship, the Matsonia, will discover — is it all happens so fast.

The sea is inky black and the moon high in the sky when you come abeam the coast of Molokai, first island sighted on the way in from California. Regardless of the early hour, most passengers are up on deck, sipping pineapple juice.

On the port side loom the mossy volcanic hills of Oahu. The ship is so close that for a few moments you can actually see the surf break. You cruise a little farther, camera fans take the opportunity to take shots of the Makapuu Lighthouse,once the world's strongest light. Then the ship stops.

Apparently from out of nowhere, the sea is a-bob with boats. Squat black tugs come first. Over their sides sarong-clad boys dive for coins, and up the ship's Jacob's ladder clamber hula girls and other greeters laden with flowers.

Then the big liner is underway again, the small boats leading the way past brooding Diamond Head and the row of beach-front hotels.

Ahead stands the Aloha Tower, and you hear the spirited strains of the Royal Hawaiian Band, playing marches until the ship sidles very close. Then the bandsmen are off into a full-blaring "Hukilau." The ship virtually rocks with laughter, for the "Hukilau" was the theme song of the trip — memorized enroute by everybody in the hula class.

Gala welcomes to ships, complete with band, have been a Honolulu tradition ever since the whaling and the gold rush days.

Even older is the traditional aloha kiss. Hawaiians originally rubbed noses, but a United States admiral reportedly was responsible for the more personal type of welcome extended today. It all started in February, 1891.

Given the sad task of taking the body of King Kalakaua, Hawaii's "merry monarch," who died on a state visit to California, back to the islands on the U. S. S. Charleston, Admiral George Brown waited in dignity on arrival at the Honolulu pier as sorrowful islanders filed past, bearing gifts of beautiful leis. One pretty girl impulsively flung her arms around the handsome admiral and kissed him soundly.

Touched and charmed, the admiral proceeded to kiss every other flower-bearing girl who approached him. And it's been the custom ever since.

GOING TO HAWAII?

Here's Some Handy Facts For Conversation Starters On 'Suburbia Sea Party'

Seagoing travelers being seen off, who'd like to be kept in sight as long as possible after the liner pulls out, should have something large handy to wave. A white handkerchief or colorful kerchief will serve a man well; a chiffon scarf (the brighter the better) is fine for a woman.

Lady cruise passengers, who wear false eyelashes, should stay away from the windward side of the ship when out strolling on deck. And both men and women whose feet swell in warm weather, should take along shoes a size wider and longer than they usually wear.

Part of the fun of traveling on luxury liners is the people you meet. Here are a few tips from Matson cruise directors on "how to be the belle of the ship;" be a little silent and mysterious . . . don't tell all your funny stories the first day out . . . turn up on time for your deck sport match . . . and let somebody else win now and then.

Romance runs rampant on many an ocean trip, and one of the most common requests to a sea captain by suddenly-inspired single travelers is "Can you marry us?" Although ships' captains have the authority to marry, as well as to bury, today's legal technicalities make the romantic notion of a marriage at sea too risky to do, "except in emergency." If a ship is bound for a foreign port, rulings are a little more relaxed, although the legality of such marriage is sure to be questioned in the event of problems like the settlement of estates.

Many a tourist, arriving in Hawaii by ship and anxious to plunge into the warm waters, disembarks — bathing suit in and hustles right to his beach hotel without waiting for his luggage. Waikiki Beach is only a ten-minute ride from where the ships come in, and many hotels take the transference of luggage off the passengers' hands.

One of the most outstanding characters in Hawaiian history was Queen Emma, the wife of King Kamehameha the IV. Her summer home is now a museum: the founded Honolulu's Queen's Hospital. She was 250 pounds of woman, and just as "George Washington Slept Here" is a proud claim of many an inn in the U.S.A., so do many old homes in Hawaii like to boast that "Queen Emma sat here."

The SS Lurline, flagship of the Matson Lines, carries 44,000 barrels oil in her fuel tanks—enough for her to cruise 21,000 nautical miles, or to circumnavigate once around the world without refueling.

Ever have an urge, at dishwashing time at home, to toss those dirty dishes out the window? That's exactly what happens after every luncheon buffet served on deck during Matson cruises to Hawaii and the South Pacific. The plates and cups are plastic, and, once used, overboard they go!

Parks, Forestry Division Eyes Site Near Big Walnut For Lake

BOND ISSUE DIFFICULTIES NEED CLEANING UP FIRST

By John Auble, Jr.

There is a rumor going around that the far east side of Columbus is the fastest growing and most progressive area in the city.

There is a second rumor that East Columbus residents started the first one.

Nevertheless, Parks and Forestry Superintendent Ray Dietz revealed some interesting plans recently to make the area a prime candidate for the "Most Unusual" title.

According to Dietz, his department is planning to build a lake near Big Walnut Creek, between Main-st and Livingston-av.

It's all in connection with the recreation center in that area, expected to be developed after Walnut Ridge High School is constructed.

"A lot of people must okay the project," Dietz said. "The final answer will come from county and state engineers after studying the possibilities."

Dietz plans to stock the lake with fish for the pleasure of Sunday anglers. The man-made lake will have both an inlet and outlet from Big Walnut.

"That's fairly good park land," Dietz added, "and we'd like to develop it as much as we can." He said most of the planning hinges on the future extension of Livingston-av.

"We have no idea when Livingston-av will be put through," he said.

Dietz reported that the city now has 120 acres in the Big Walnut vicinity. Eighty of the acres were bought by the Parks Department, and 40 were purchased by the school board.

"We thought about widening Big Walnut for use by fishermen," Dietz said, "but gave up on the idea when we found out the trees along the bank would have to be cut down.

"So, we happened on the lake idea."

The lake itself — according to sketchily proposed plans —will cover an eight-acre area. It is expected to be six to eight feet deep.

Dietz's office started on the Big Walnut project last year and, if present bond issue difficulties clear up, real progress will be made this year.

These "difficulties" were brought to light over the past week end when City Attorney Russell Leach planned to file, what he termed, a "friendly lawsuit" with the $1,040,000 bond issue approved by voters last November.

The issue is whether the bonds will meet the single purpose clause required by state law.

Meanwhile, the city will be delayed in obtaining land for additional parks and developing

Shorthand Observations

Fundamentals Come First At Eastmoor In Math, In Science

Yurgi Gagarin, Harold Shurlow and Dean Lewis are miles apart, physically. But all have an interest in a common denominator that goes by the name of science.

Yuri, of course, is the first man in space, as reported last week by the Kremlin.

Shurlow and Lewis are teachers at Eastmoor High School.

Shurlow's field is directly related with science. He is a math instructor. Shurlow is taking a year's leave of absence to work toward a doctorate at Ohio State University.

At the same time, however, under authorization granted by the Columbus Board of Education, he will conduct a series of lectures via TV to elementary teachers as part of their in-service training program.

Lewis, an instructor in physics, has been employing a "new" method to the teaching of the science — using simplified kits in the classroom.

Over the channel, teaching teachers math, Shurlow said his aim is to place a new emphasis on the content of the subject, on understanding the "why" and the "what." He plans, he says, to go deeper into the meanings of elementary mathematics.

"For instance, so often in elementary classes a rule is taught and memorized, not why the rule is, nor what is behind it."

Shurlow also pointed out that until five years ago, the only way to teach math was determined by how it was going to be used. "Now, however, it is becoming more and more to be taught as itself."

He believes that the emphasis of the newer trend of teaching the subject is due to the advent of electronic computors.

The new approach in the teaching of physics is stressed along the lines of fundamentals using simple devices.

But as Lewis stipulated, "simple, yes, but it covers all ranges." In some aspects, calculus is introduced along with the equipment.

"We strive not to be concerned, at the outset, with the memorization of formulas, but more toward where the formulas come from. In other words, what causes a certain phenomenon to occur.

"The students are taught to

Whitehall Endorses Gas Rate Measure

Whitehall's gas troubles ballooned into the open this week as legislators quickly passed a "Columbus" type rate bill, leaving the next step up to the Ohio Fuel Gas Company.

Solons also ran into some stiff opposition from City Attorney James Maxwell on the delaying of a public hearing to allow for the rezoning of 10 acres of land at E. Main and Hamilton for the establishment of a reported $560,000 unnamed department store.

The lawmakers unanimously agreed to table "indefinitely" a previous ordinance calling for Maxwell to negotiate for the services of a gas rate expert, and, instead, rammed through a measure fixing rates at $1.40 for the first 1000 cubic feet.

Both actions were made upon recommendation of Ray Shipley's finance committee, and were in full accord with a proposal made a fortnight ago by Loren Mason's service committee.

Shipley criticized the gas company for not showing council "any concrete figures as to why Whitehall's gas should cost more than that which is being serviced to Columbus, east of Whitehall.

Under the old rate system, the cost of residents was $2.55 for the first thousand cubic feet with a 65½ cent charge per following thousand cubic feet. The gas company has been seeking a penny and a half raise in August.

The ordinance passed Tuesday night calls for a charge of $1.40 per 100 cubic feet, with a rate of 67 cents for each 1000 following cubic feet.

Richard C. Harder, representing the gas company, criticized council for not questioning him on the subject last month. "We have never met with any committee," he asserted, adding "I cannot imagine the thinking that would permit anyone to feel that with the economy the way it is at present, the rate should be reduced."

Maxwell asked for and received Harder's assurance that city officials would be given reports concerning the gas company's reasoning behind its rate plan for Whitehall.

The argument over the department store rezoning proposal came when Maxwell suggested that legislators set a public hearing on the matter for June 6.

Councilmen Shipley and Ken McIntosh retorted that the Planning and Zoning commission had yet to give their approval.

Maxwell contended that by the time the commission approval is given, possibly at its May meeting, legal steps could already be underway to have the hearing. Otherwise, he noted, council would not be able to set the hearing until its mid-

Less Room For Kids If Bond Issue Fails

Like the old woman who lived in a shoe, the Whitehall School District will soon have too many children.

But unlike the old woman, the Whitehall School Board is aiming to do something — only it needs the help of the citizens.

The board is asking for $1,100,000 to construct a 16 to 18 room elementary building north of Rosemore Junior High.

Superintendent Robert Crabbs, has stated he believes the building would be ready for occupancy by September of 1962—if the bond issue is approved May 2, and that takes the doing of at least 60 per cent of the electorate.

The reason for the necessary funds? At the present time, some 250 kindergarten youngsters are housed in churches.

By next September, according to the board's reckoning, that figure will be upped to 500. And, if no school is awaiting the youngsters by the following September, that number will be increased by a conservative 200 more estimate.

Even then, Crabbs, stated, it is doubtful if classroom space could be found for all of them.

The alternatives? Either half-day sessions or a curtainment of kindergarten education. "None of the alternatives are pleasant," Crabbs said.

Between now and the start of the 1964 school year, the board has estimated that an additional 650 youngsters will be enrolling "and those are minimum figures."

At present, the pupils teacher ratio is 30 to 1 throughout the district. In order to main-

First Gong Sounds In Republican Battle

The opening gong in the Whitehall Republican May Primary has been sounded by the Kenneth McDougal slate. McDougal is an aspirant for the office of mayor.

Calling for a program stressing storm sewage drainage, street improvements and a budget "within the limits of city income," the McDougal group has outlined a 10-point plank.

In addition, McDougal followers opened fire on the proposed city park program, stating that the "proposed 210 acres of parks for the city is far in excess of what is necessary" and continued by calling the 24-acre plot currently under consideration "undesirable." The reason: part of the land is improved and the price would be exorbitant.

Other items on the political agenda include: curtailing additions of beer joints, carryouts, multiple dwellings, et al;

Recommending a "comfortable, permanent type city office building, but not so elaborate that tax money is used unnecessarily;

Careful scrutiny of legislation so as to avoid passage of bills on an emergency basis that would be unnecessary;

Quoting "the freedom of no man shall be abridged," the group feels that civil service employes should be able to exercise their constitutional rights to attend public meetings and to vote in primary elections;

Area Teacher Wins $500 Project Grant

A teacher at Leawood Elementary is one of 10 in the Columbus School System to receive a $500 grant for projects to improve education.

Mrs. Gladys Newell, 2428 E. Livingston-av, will join with Mrs. Esther Lee, teacher at Smith Road Elementary, in conducting a conservation workshop at Camp Muskingum on Leesville Lake, June 18 through 25.

Awards, announced at Tuesday's school board meeting, are made possible through an anonymous gift of $5,000.

Teachers apply for grants to conduct projects that will improve education.

The board also approved plans for a student accident insurance policy, to be available next fall.

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company's plan for offering parents a student accident insurance policy were approved by the Board.

The policy, with portal-to-portal coverage, would include accidents to and from school as well as at school and during school activities. Certain sports are exempted.

Parents may buy the policy if they choose. Premiums will be $2 for elementary pupils and $3 a school year for those in the secondary grades.

Maybe An Opportunity Corps Is In Order

There is no argument with the fact that people who are out of work and on the verge of being destitute, homeless and hungry, do need assistance.

And we do feel that self respecting citizens do not want something-for-nothing. Many worthwhile cases do not get the proper attention they need due to the pride people have in not wanting to accept charity.

On the other hand there are many ills in the present system of handing out unemployment insurance, city, county and federal aids of all kinds.

Many an indolent husband may find it easier to desert his family and collect aid rather than to allow himself to be channeled into a position where he is working to assist them.

It would seem that while Kennedy's "Peace Corps" may have some possibilities there are likewise many possibilities on a local level for an "Opportunity Corps" to assist in providing opportunities for those who may have legitimate hard luck and would rather accept an opportunity than be forced to accept charity.

On Going Fishing

If the weather just won't change, maybe a word about going fishing will do the trick.

I'm reminded that a startling discovery has been made by a scientist and printed in a book entitled "Fish and Be Damned."

Quote: "X-ray pictures of 6000 average fishermen revealed the startling fact that 5999 of them had fish on their mind all the time. The lone exception was a 15-year-old boy who admitted liking girls, too."

If you are in the category of the 6000 above you surely are getting mighty fidgety about now. Even if you are just an Entered Apprentice in the Brotherhood of Peter you are beginning to get the urge.

And there is no need to be reminded at this time of the year that "Allah does not deduct from the allotted time of man those hours spent in fishing."

Come on sun . . . let's shine . . . and we'll go fishin'.

Other officers for the coming year are: Thomas A. Cahill, 1526 Fairwood-av, president; William P. Downey, 275 Blenheim-rd, vice-president; Edward M. Dempsey, 1114 S. Ohio-av, treasurer, and the Rt. Rev. Joseph E. McGlynn, St. Joseph Cathedral, chaplain.

Outgoing president is Frank M. Strapp, 815 Sullivant-av.

Officers named by the Shamrock Glee Club were: Pete Shanahan, 2966 Indianola-av, president; Rudy Hooffstetter, Jr., 2423 E. Broad-st, vice-president; Mike Murphy, 1699 Northridge-rd, treasurer; Gilbert H. O'Shaughnessy, 746 Yearling-rd, secretary and historian, and Eberly, director.

Various parts of the physics kit consist of a ripple tank, whereby students are able to observe various types of wave patterns, that, analagously, can be applied to electricity, heat, light and sound.

Another part of the kit, named "inertial balance," provides students the opportunity to plot electrical patterns about a conductor.

Still another is used for simple harmonic motion, comparing masses with time. All are part of the PSSC—the Physical Science Study committee program.

Lewis' class has not been working with the apparatus for any length of time, thus he has not been able to determine if any improvement has been made. He reports, however, that results from other schools note that students have a better understanding of the physics involved than in previous courses.

Apparently, Shurlow and Lewis as well as Yuri, all think along the same lines: first, learn the fundamentals: then, apply them.

Jewish Center Announces Music Night On Apr. 29

Mrs. Melville Frank, cultural arts chairman of The Jewish Center, announces that Cantor Irving Schrier, of Temple Tifereth Israel, is serving as chairman for the Jewish Music Evening scheduled in the auditorium Saturday night, Apr. 29.

Appearing on the program will be the Jewish Center Orchestra under the leadership of Floyd Elliott.

Also featured in the show will be an instrumental chamber group ensemble under the guidance of Sheldon Sanov of the Music Department of Ohio Wesleyan University.

tain this ratio, additional classrooms must be constructed to accommodate the anticipated increased enrollment.

In addition to the new building the bond issue will pay for additions to Rosemore, Beechwood and Etna Road Schools, plus providing more shop facilities and vocational areas in the hgh school.

The County Auditor has estimated that the $1,100,000 bond issue will require an average of 1.65 mills for each one dollar of valuation. This amounts to 16½ cents per $100 of valuation or $1.65 for each $1,000 of valuation.

Property in Whitehall is appraised at approximately 40 per cent of its true value. Therefore, a house worth $15,000 will be listed on the tax books at approximately $6,000. Thus, the bond issue would cost $1.65 for 6, or $9.90 per year payable in two installments of $4.45 per tax payment.

The average cost of the bond issue to the average taxpayer in Whitehall is less than .3 cents per day.

The city had planed to spend between $500,000 and $600,000 this year on new park sites.

The ordinance placing the bond issue on the ballot last November, was written by bond counsel, called for parks, playgrounds and recreation centers.

Councilman Robert L. Van Heyde insisted, on the floor of council, on adding swimming pools. This was done and now the legality of the swimming pool provision is being questioned.

A special assembly was held Friday, Apr. 14, to honor the members of the swimming, basketball and wrestling teams. 'H' monograms were warded to the players who merited them by Rev. Robert G. White, principal, and John Murphy, member of the faculty and football coach.

Swimming letter winners were given to Leland Dlacich, Jeff Nelson, Jim Heiser, Bill Heiser, Bob Cromwell, Dan Anverse, Bill Poast, Jeff Britton, John Nemeth, Ron Fairbanks, Jim Fairbanks and newly elected captain Ronnie Palumbo.

The basketball letter winners were Bob Burman, Steve Warren, Jim Harkless, Bill Mackin, Ronnie Matlock, Bob Gantner, Dan Hoffman, Walter Teeters and Bob Whitman.

Those who received letters for wrestling were Ron Glass, Tom Cahill and Dave Erwin.

Managers Jim Aneshansley and Bill Leib also received letters.

The members of the Sophomore Glee Club presented the third annual Sophomore Operetta Sunday evening in the school auditorium. This song show was directed by Sister Ann Christopher, S.N.D., and Sister Mary Lucille, S.N.D., vice-principal.

Plans are being made for the Junior-Senior Prom, to be held on May 10. The committee chairmen are Bob Albrecht, tickets; Tony Acquista, refreshments; Harry Hoskins, decorations; Mike Bruno, entertainment.

The Hartley thinclads open their 1961 track season with an afternoon meet against Rosary on Friday, Apr. 21. The team is coached by former Ohio State grid star Tom Matte.

The baseball team bowed in its first two varsity tries.

AT LIVINGSTON

New Traffic System Goes Into Effect

The revamped traffic system at the E. Livingston-College-av intersection has gone into effect, according to Otto L. Meier, former chairman of the Columbus Traffic Commission, who originally requested the change.

Berwick-blvd is now one-way Eastbound to Castlegate-av; the traffic signal timing has been revised to adjust to current traffic flow, Meier said.

The signals at this intersection, he stated, are automatically actuated by the density of traffic movement and should reduce congestion to a minimum.

After contacting the traffic engineer, Meier noted that if additional measures are necessary to further improve conditions in the area, a survey will be made to determine the feasibility of banning left turns at Nelson-rd and E. Livingston-av.

The revisions were given approval by the Columbus Traffic Commission last month, due to traffic at times being stalled along Livingston-av, back to Fairwood-av during rush hours.

Suburban Swim League Expands

The Suburban Swim League held its annual organization meeting at the Jewish Center recently.

Former members of the League present were Aquamarine Cabana Club, Hilltop Swim Pool, Jewish Center, Swimland and Twin Towers Swim Club of Grove City. Admitted to membership in the League was the new Holiday Swim Club, making a full six team League.

Robert Garnon said he felt a council committee should be set up to keep abreast of zoning changes and hearings, then move to hold the measure until the next meeting.

In other action, solons okayed a supplemental appropriation of $1,628 for the Civil Defense program.

Ken McIntosh was named president pro-tem, succeeding Garnon who recently resigned from the post.

One call from you and he's on the job

IT'S LATE at night and the one thing you need most in this world is a prescription filled for someone you love. You make a phone call and a friend answers—your druggist. Within minutes after your call, he's on the job.

It takes a time like this to make you realize how much you depend on this man, yet how much you take him for granted. Your pharmacist means medicine when you need it—skillfully prepared. He means service—regardless of time. His concern is for you, not only as a customer, but as a friend.

And what a valuable "extra" for you if your neighborhood drug store gives you S&H Green Stamps. You know, of course, today half the families in America save them.

Your S&H Green Stamps make it possible for you to choose from over 1,500 top-quality, famous brand-name items at your S&H Green Stamp Redemption Store.

AN OPEN BOWLING TOURNAMENT will be held at the Acro Lanes on E. Fifth-av under the sponsorship of the Gahanna Kiwanis Club on three successive weekends for men, women and children. On hand to open the tourney this weekend will be Kiwanians Bob Hammond, Ralph Hedrick, Al Parks and club vice-president, Mike Green, left to right.

Gahanna Kiwanis Club To Sponsor Six-Day Bowling Tournament

The new Gahanna Kiwanis Club will sponsor a three division open bowling tournament beginning Saturday and Sunday, Apr 22 and 23, and continuing for two successive weekends at Acro Lanes on E Fifth-av.

The tournament will be open to men, women and children, with a one-dollar entry fee required. Dates for the tournament are Apr. 22, 23, 29 and 30, and May 6 and 7. The time will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays, and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sundays.

Funds raised by the Kiwanis Club will be used to finance the club's program of aid and assistance to members of the community.

Chartered Nov. 15, 1960, the club has already given temporary relief to several area families until county relief could be obtained. Several hundred pounds of Christmas candy were passed out to local children and the club is paying the expenses of a village resident in a rest home.

The club has also purchased baseballs for the entire season for the Little League teams and are investigating the possibility of purchasing hats and are presently considering the construction of a library in Gahanna.

LeTourneau To Speak Here Sunday

A huge rally at Central High School Sunday, 2:30 p.m. will climax the two-day visit here of R. G. LeTourneau of Texas, the man who gives millions to the work of the church.

Admission is free and the public is invited.

He will also speak at Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church, 61 S. Powell-av, Sunday morning at 10. The pastor, Rev. Harold Dutt, invites everyone to hear him.

LeTourneau will address a dinner meeting at Trautman Hall, Capital University Campus, Saturday, 6:30 p.m. Reservations must be made with Arthur Steppert, 23 Rose-av, Grove City.

The inventor and manufacturer of earth-moving machinery and his wife endowed the LeTourneau Foundation in 1935, and contribute through the foundation, 90 per cent of their worldly goods, including more than half of his company's outstanding stock.

R. G. LeTourneau, Inc., is the leader in the industry of building giant earth-moving machinery and supplied, during the last war, the majority of earth-moving equipment used by Armed Forces throughout the world.

LeTourneau's appearance in Columbus is sponsored by the Christian Business Men's Committee of Columbus. Jack Hughes, 3493 Kenlawn, is president of the organization and Harry M. Stultz, 576 Binns-blvd, vice-president.

Durthaler Again Provides Organs For Minstrel

As has been the case for the past several years, part of the music for the Reynoldsburg Minstrel Memories has been performed on Estey organs, furnished to the group by the Durthaler Organ Studios.

The first established over 27 years ago by Henry Durthaler, is now staffed by his son, Dale, who along with his father, is a pipe organ builder and a musician.

During the last year the appearance of the organ and piano studios at 1967 Lockbourne-rd, was changed to give a better showing of the lines of Estey and Kimball organs and the Stark pianos.

LETTER TO EDITOR:

Likes Blackburn As Candidate

This letter of recommendation is for Paul Blackburn who is running for city council. He is well-liked, civic minded and dependable. He was secretary of the East Columbus Civic Association for two years.

I feel that he would be a good choice as a candidate and our loss is Reynoldsburg's gain.

State Offers $40 Million For Streets

Local governments throughout Ohio will receive a "spring tonic" this week and next from an April shower of dollars from the statehouse that is expected to be in excess of 43 million dollars, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

About $40 million will go to the street and road funds of cities, villages, counties and townships, many of which are badly depleted as a result of heavy snow-removal expense and ice treatment during the winter.

The balance of more than $3 million will be the quarterly distribution of liquor license money to municipalities and townships. This goes into the general fund of the local governments.

Insect Damage Causes 'Warts'

If the leaves on your shade trees have "warts," blame it on insects.

Those "warts" probably are insect galls, says Dr. R. P. Holdsworth, Ohio State University Extension entomologist. They are caused by such insects as aphids, midges, mites, or small wasps which hatch out this time of year and feed on tender leaves and twigs.

In this case you can prevent gall formation by spraying the tree with a wettable powder form of malathion at the rate of two tablespoons of chemical to each gallon of water. Dr. Holdsworth suggests you apply this spray while the leaves are expanding.

REVIVAL OF THE 20's

Many of the current hair fashions are reminiscent of the 20's. There are variations of course. They all seem to have three features in common: a close to - the - head - halmet shape, a short and shaped back line that's not quite a shingle, and single long-line curls at the earline. These long, graceful curls can swirl in front of the ear like a curled sideburn or curve behind the ear and finish on the cheek.

Why not have one of the newer hair styles adapted to suit you. For satisfactory results, make an oppointment with us now; Iva's Beauty Salon, 3978 E .Broad Street, Columbus, BE. 5-5474.

'B' DAY IS MAY 3

This Is The Story Of Marcia And Of Help When Needed

Marcia.

Perhaps you remember. It wasn't too long ago. The name, the age are fictitious—the facts are true.

Marcia was only four. She was playing on the sidewalk in front of her home with her little friends. A ball slipped from her grasp and rolled into the street.

Marcia had been warned, repeatedly, about wandering into the street or onto driveways, but Marcia forgot. A shriek of brakes, a loud thud, a still louder scream — then silence.

Sirens, voices, tender hands, speed — all played such an important role in getting Marcia to the nearest hospital. Blood was lost—so much from such a little girl.

Surgery was imperative and surgery was performed. Tranfusions were given, six pints to be exact. And more had to be given during the post-operative period.

Marcia lived — for many reasons. She lived because she was sped to the necessary medical facilties. She lived because her surgeons labored hard for six hours. She lived because blood was there to be given at the moment it was needed and not some hours later.

That blood was there because you, and me, and our neighbors were present on "B" Day to give. The needs are still great and still must be met.

"B" Day, Wednesday, May 3, from 12 to 6 p.m., at the Bloodmobile at the Jewish Center.

Eastmoor High School's

BY SHARON WILSON

Grads, Now At OSU, Call For 'More Work'

Mr. Mayer and Miss Miller, senior counselor, attended the 11th Anual OSU Principal-Freshman Conference, Apr. 13. The purpose of the conference was to give Eastmoor graduates, now freshmen in the university, a chance to express their opinions as to whether Eastmoor's program had adequately prepared them for their college freshman courses. The need for more homework, book reports, and essay questions on tests was stressed by students.

Mr. Shurlow traveled to Athens last Friday and Saturday to attend a meeting of the Ohio Council of Teachers of Mathematics, of which he is vice-president. The topic was "The Change in Secondary School Mathematics."

Don Will, a student teacher from Ohio State University, is instructing the boys in the fundamentals of softball in Coach Stuart's gym classes.

Drum major and majorettes for the 1961-62 school year have been announced. Selections were based on ability, personality and interest. The following were chosen to lead the Warrior Band: Roy Arnett, drum major; Sue Huffman, Sharon Pierce, Bonnie Shoults, and Pam Smyser, majorettes. Barbara Dearth and Janice Moltenberry are alternates.

Several unusual events were featured in "Dogpatch Drag," sponsored by the Warriorettes Saturday at Eastmoor. A hog-calling contest, held in connection with the appearance of extraordinary guest, "Wilbur the Pig," was won by Kay Thompson. The next event was a costume contest. The winning couples were Bev Reynolds and Tim Doughty as "Mammy" and "Pappy" Yokem; Janice Youkin and Bob Benjamin as "Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner."

The Tim Boyles' Combo: Roy Arnett, guitar; Mike Diehl, drums; Tim Boyles, piano; and Bob Moreen, bass, played for the dancing. The Boys' Ensemble sang in costume. To round off the evening everyone joined in an old-fashioned square dance.

Marsha Feuer and Kathie Kelley were chosen to represent Eastmoor in the interviewing of three actors from the play "Five Finger Exercise" which opened Wednesday at the Hartman Theater.

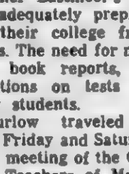
All members of the music department who received a rating of I in the district contests competed in the statewide contest Apr. 15. They were: Bary Hilton, clarinet; Steve Stellman, piano; Ann Goldthwaite, piano; the Girls' Ensemble, consisting of Carole Brown, Donna Brown, Bev Finke, Mary Jo Flowers, Karen Foreman, Carol Heizer, Bobbie Kall, Carol Peterson, and Darla Schafer; woodwind trio, consisting of Mary Heffron, Bary Hilton, and Mary Beth Thompson; Mary Beth Thompson, flute; and Bob Lewis, clarinet.

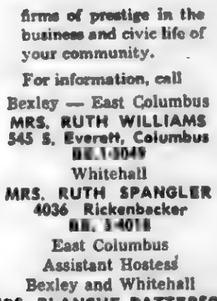
Eastmoor will welcome back two 1960 graduates to participate with the orchestra in the musical comedy, "Bells are Ringing." They are, Jim Wright who plays sax and clarinet and Sid Townsend who plays bass.

The 1961 tennis team with Mr. Barr as coach held its first practice Apr. 4. Composed of many new members it is anticipating future games to be played with Academy, Bexley and St. Charles.

A judo exhibition sponsored by the GAA was presented during club period Wednesday by experts from Lockbourne Air Force Base.

Sixty seniors of Mr. Heintz's Problems of Democracy classes plan to attend a lecture given by Dr. Fred C. Schwartz, executive director of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, Inc. The lecture will be held at the Ohio State Fairgrounds on Thursday, May 4, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Schwartz will explain in simple language the basic Communist idealogy.





Kay Gearhart In Sing Club

Kay E. Gearhart, 708 Chelsea-av, has been named a member of the Ohio State University Women's Glee Club, according to Prof. John H. Muschick, director.

The group will appear in its annual spring concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, Apr. 23, in Mershon Auditorium, on the campus.

IDLE HOUR GUIDE

'My Brother's Keeper,' Study Of Relief Problems, On Probe

By Stan Robinson

WTVN-TV will begin programming news at 11 p.m. Sunday, Apr. 30, which as it stands at our press time would take the time slot of "Lex's Theater."

PEOPLE ARE HUNGRY in Franklin County — every night in the papers, we read something about the relief situation in our area.

How serious is this problem?

How many of our citizens does it affect?

On Friday night at 7:30, "Probe", will present "My Brother's Keeper" a depth study of the problems connected with the current general relief crisis in our county.

In an effort to "Probe" the situation, channel 4 has interviewed several of the affected families and officials of the Welfare Department.

The general relief grants were reduced 50 percent on Feb. 1. Since that time the grants have been raised to 60 percent of the need . . . but what do these percentages mean? Who is eligible for relief? Can those families eligible, live on their relief checks?

"My Brother's Keeper" was written by Mrs. Betty Shepherd, produced by Jack Carroll, filmed by Bob Livingston and will be narrated by News Director, Hugh De Moss, Friday night, 7:30 p.m.

GEORGE GOBEL MEETS UNCLE ELROY . . .

For the first time in his TV career, George Gobel is going to play somebody else. For years the slow-talking Gobel has been himself, a character that millions of Americans found to their liking.

Robinson

George has a new series called "My Uncle Elroy," in which he plays "all things to all men," as the saying goes. This actually turns into a problem since George is so busy trying to be "fixer" for hapless friends, he constantly ends up in the soup.

Goble, appearing without his TV wife, Alice, for the first time in seven years, plays "Uncle Elroy" in the new show. He lives with a widowed sister and her two children and as George says, Uncle Elroy will do things that George Gobel would never do . . .

ADVENTURE THEATER PROVES POPULAR ON 10 . . .

In a positive move to provide quality programming for youthful viewers, channel 10 now is presenting the popular "Adventure Theater" program, formerly seen on Thursday evenings, in half hour form each Wednesday and Thursday at 6:30 p.m.

Past shows in this series have presented films showing pearl divers at work, visited a huge aircraft carrier, hunted tiger in Siberia and undertaken many thrilling adventures. The "Adventure Theatre" time change was prompted by the numerous viewer comments requesting an earlier time slot so that the children could view the program.

IN VIEW FOR THE FUTURE

Sportscasters Lindsey Nelson and Jim Simpson will be the commentators for the NBC-TV coverage of the final three holes of the 9th annual Tournament of Champions, Golf Classic at the Desert Inn Country

Plain City Craftsmen Maintain Flourishing Boat Factory

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Boat enthusiasts in this area are fortunate in that one of the very best plywood strip boats to be had is manufactured near by. In Plain City, in a converted canning plant, is the birthplace of Henry Boats.

You are fortunate because George Morelock, Marysville, president of the company, is usually available to chat with you about boats and boating. If you pay a visit before 3:30 in the afternoon on weekdays, you can watch the interesting process of boat building.

The boats I ride in are fishing craft and usually not large. The trend in these boats I've noticed has been to glass and aluminum. George verified this, and told me that in the 14 to 15-foot class only 10 per cent of the boats sold are wood. More than 50 per cent are glass. He also showed me national statistics indicating that in the 16-foot and larger classes of boats about 50 per cent are wood.

"Regardless of the newer materials which have definite advantages for certain purposes," he said, "the future looks brighter all the time for Henry Boats, Inc. People are wanting larger boats that look like a boat and handle like a boat. We couldn't have been more pleased with the reception of our line at the boat shows this year at Cleveland, Chicago and elsewhere."

The company has been located at Plain City under new management for a little over a year. A work force of 21 skilled boat builders turns out about 10 boats a week. The work is not seasonal for a steady demand for boats continues throughout the year. Some dealers sell more boats during September and October than any other month.

The wooden boat business has not been standing still in recent years I learned. Henry boats get white epoxy paint on marine plywood. This is the same paint that is used on most glass boats, Morelock told me. The mahogany is sprayed with polyurethane, a clear plastic material rather than varnish.

Handling Characteristics Good

The real beauty of a wooden boat, in addition to appearance, comes from handling ease and a comfortable ride, according to Morelock. It is generally conceded that lapstrake construction has never been improved upon, and some glass boats have "strips" molded into them for better handling. The old bugaboo of maintenance on wooden boats has been diminished by the use of new paints and plastics.

Henry boats comes in three sizes—16, 18 and 21 feet. All are outboards or can be fitted out for the new inboard-outboard combinations. The 21-footer comes with or without a cabin. The boats are roomy and make efficient use of the space available.

The people at Henry Boats are enthusiastic boaters, and are always looking for excuses to try out new outfits at Griggs Dam. They seem to be in the enviable position of talking boating and going boating nearly all the time. Whether you're in the market for a boat or not, they will enjoy chatting with you and you will get an interesting tour of the plant.

GEORGE MORELOCK, president of Henry Boats, Inc., inspects completed boat as it leaves the factory in Plain City.

Kresge Stores Extending From Ocean To Ocean

The Kresge Company recently released some significant figures about the size of the organization's operations. As an illustration, company officials said that if all the counters in Kresge stores were placed end-to-end, they would stretch over 300 miles. They state that their territory is bounded by the Atlantic, Pacific, Northern Canada, and the Gulf of Mexico.

Plans have been made for the opening of some 60 additional stores, most of which will open in shopping centers now under construction.

There are now 659 Kresge stores in the U.S., 98 in Canada, and two in Puerto Rico, making a total of 759. Total sales for 1960 were reported at $415,653,755.

LESS THAN THIRD HAVE CARD

Citizens Fortunate To Have Extensive Libraries At Hand

By GALVY GORDON
Public Relations Director,
Columbus Public Library

For a richer, fuller life—Read!

That's the theme and the promise held out to you by the fourth annual observance of National Library Week, April 16-22, sponsored by the National Book Committee, Inc., in cooperation with the American Library Association.

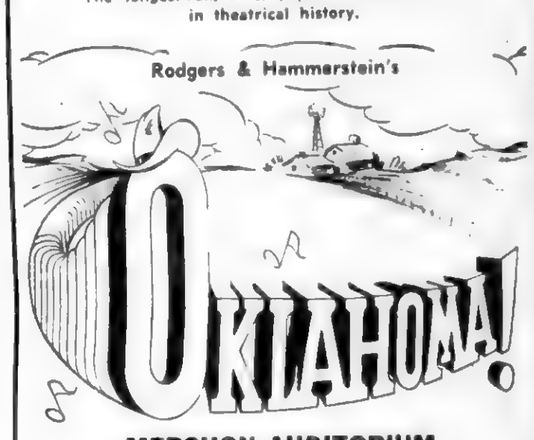
One of its chief purposes is to make you pause and ask yourself, "How long has it been since I've read and enjoyed a good book?" and "How long has it been since I've availed myself of the opportunities provided me by that uniquely American institution—the free public library?"

Within Franklin County we have the giant Columbus Public Library serving the central core area with 14 buildings, five bookmobiles and a collection of some 600,000 books, 9,000 recordings, and nearly a 1000 circulating sound-movie films. Every resident of Franklin County is also entitled, under the law, to use the full facilities of five other public library systems within the county that stand ready to serve him. The resources of the State Library in downtown Columbus are available to all Ohio residents.

Why is it, then, that less than one-third of our citizens do not have and use library membership cards? Is it because of the scarcity of libraries? Obviously not. Is it because of lack of time? How can this be in an age when leisure time was never more plentiful?

Nature fixes our lifespans and, to a certain extent, our talents and aptitudes. Knowledge is man's one unlimited opportunity to grow. And his public library is his open door to wisdom and experience of all mankind—the greatest gift democracy can bestow — for each individual regardless of race, religion, wealth or social status.

Since ours is a society based on the choices of many, rather than the few, its greatest concern must be the development of every individual to his highest capacity. The public library is a vital tool for this process and for the raising of horizons.



Why not set aside a half hour or so next week to visit your nearest public library? Discover for yourself the truth of National Library Week's theme:

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE IN HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Hawaii is many places, as tourists flocking here on this spring's Eastern Review "Suburbia Sea Parties" will discover.

Kalakaua-av at Waikiki, America's newest main street, 2,220 miles off the California coast, is an elegant boulevard, gleaming with luxury hotels, smart shops and gourmet restaurants.

At Waikiki Beach, day, by day, you can take ukelele lessons, learn how to weave a palm frond hat, or thrill to an outrigger ride or a catamaran sail. By night, you can dine outdoors by the light of flickering torches, or go dancing — barefoot, if you like — at any of the resorts.

Or you can watch elaborate floor shows ranging from flame-tossing Samoan dancers and demonstrations of the cross-eyed New Zeland "haka" to spirited comparisons between the stately Hawaiian hula and the mad-twitching Tahitian kind.

There's always something doing at Waikiki. Spring is especially colorful. The Japanese community sponsors a brilliant Cherry Blossom Festival through mid-April. Easter is very festively celebrated, with an Easter Egg Show (with many eggs colored in tapa design) running for a whole week, starting Palm Sunday, at the Ala Moana Park.

Then, too, there is Lei Day, May 1 — a tribute to Hawaii's traditional floral necklace welcome to visitors; the Fiesta Filipina, May 15-June 19, a carnival centering around the folk dances and pagentry of the Philippines; and Kamehameha Day, June 10, with a huge parade with flower-trimmed floats through the downtown streets of Honolulu in honor of the islands' greatest king, Kamehameha I.

A splendid panorama of Honolulu's buzzing downtown area, and surrounding valleys and hills, can be seen from the 280-foot-high Aloha Tower at Pier 10 where the Matson liners dock. Here is the Honolulu harbor-master's office and lookout, from where he communicates by radio-phone with ships still many miles off port. The tower stood firm throughout the 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor, but has a souvenir bullet hole in one of its windows to show for it.

Arrival days of Matson ships from California are extremely colorful with the Royal Hawaiian Band playing with spirited aplomb, hula dancers doing their stuff, and muu-muu-clad Hawaiian lei sellers shouting their wares. Tourists can arrange through the Hawaii Visitors Bureau to take the "greeters' tug" out to meet the liners off Diamond Head, board them, and have the thrill of steaming into port. Tug tickets are $2.75.

It's fun, too, to make a round-the-island tour by bus, U-drive car, or fringed-top jeep. The island of Oahu offers much variety, from Oriental temples to sweeping seascapes.

And if you really like to go off-the-beaten track, a group called the Hawaiian Trail Rangers offers frequent trips in jeep-like station wagons to ancient royal sites and tropical beauty spots.

Up on old Laie Bay, in the northeast corner of the island, (an hour's drive from Waikiki), they have a hukilau every month. "Hukilau" mean fishing festival, and the huts of the same name is taught to Matson passengers on the cruise over, making this event particularly meaningful.

Samoans and Hawaiians who live at Laie give visitors at their monthly festivals not only a feast from the sea, but a feast from the past, too, reliving the old customs and exhibiting the old skills, crafts and ancient dances, including the Samoan siva, with dancers cleaving the air with wild leaps and jumps, all the while slapping themselves and letting out steam-vent shrieks.

Back in Honolulu, Tuesday mornings, you can join a walk-about tour of Chinatown, where incense smoke from burning joss sticks mingles curiously with odors from the lei stands and fish market. And twice a month, the Soto Zen Buddhist Museum holds an "Evening in Japan" program, where Buddhist rites and Japanese and Okinawan dances are demonstrated.

Another top tourist attraction, only three years old, is the outdoor International Market Place, smack in the center of Waikiki. It's a miniature Pacific, offering brocades from China, cottons and silks from Japan, Bangkok and India; ceremonial festival masks from Tonga; Tahitian grass skirts; batiks from Bali, and a Korean Village where classical dancers entertain you while you munch such delicacies as "naing myun kooki" (noodles).

GIVEN TIPS ON RADIO WRITING

GETTING TIPS on how to compose one-and-a-half-minute radio features for the new "Feature: TB" writing competition, sponsored by WBNS and the Tuberculosis Society, are, left to right, Bexley High Schoolers Debbie Siegel, 2414 Fair-av, Linda Rogers, 452 Northview-dr, Barry Thall, 46 S. Roosevelt-av, and David Shultz, 2265 Astor-av. The new competition is open to ninth through 12th graders. Ten grand prize winners will receive transistor radios and Golden Michrophone trophies for their schools, and will be Les Spencer's guests on his "Open House" program. Fifteen runners-up will receive engraved trophy key rings or bracelets. More information is available at the TB Society, CA. 8-6704.

Trio Seeks Republican Top Spot

A three-way battle for mayor tops the Republican Primary slate for next Tuesday.

In all, some 21 seek office under the GOP banner. Only two slots, solicitor and Ward 4, Council, are under no pressure.

Incumbent Walter B. Moling is being challenged by Kenneth A. McDougal andtAlfred E. Molnar in the mayoralty.

Battles loom for the council presidency, in each of the wards with the Ward 4 exception, and six are taking a shot at the three at-large vacancies.

A husband-wife team is on the docket. Mayor aspirant Molnar's wife, Esther, is seeking to gain an at-large seat.

In the presidency race, incumbent Walter Siemer is being challenged by Donald G. Waddel.

Lester K. Ballenger and Ralph H. Prout are vying for the Ward 1 council post.

In Ward 2, Roy E. Upperman and Charles R. Kibler hope to gain the Republican nod.

Incumbent Donald B. Gorrell, just recently appointed to council, is having opposition from Harold E. Wood.

At-large posts are being sought by Mrs. Molnar, Robert H. Spicer, Raymond Shipley, Kenneth E. McIntosh, Orton L. Davis and Harold S. Maggied.

Shipley and McIntosh presently occupy at-large seats. Davis is the 4th ward councilman.

The Republican lineup:

The Democrats, some 14 of them, will be vying for office next Tuesday in the Whitehall primary.

Since the last election, the Dems have come down a long way.

At the start of 1960, Dems controlled five council votes and the council presidency. Since then, the majority has turned, due to resignations, to the Republicans by a 4 to 3 margin along with the president slot.

The Mayor battle Tuesday on the Democratic ticket, shapes up between Robert Garnon, incumbent 2nd Ward councilman and Lewis Bower, who, in 1959 lost out to Mayor Walter Moling by 26 votes.

Garnon turned down a chance at the council presidency to tangle with Bower, head of the Whitehall Democratic party. The Dems have no one running for the council president slot.

Since Garnon's decision to try for the top spot on the ticket, factions have sprung up within the party.

This week 4th Ward Committeeman Gilbert O'Shaughnessy, who is also in the race for a council seat, declared that if Garnon were nominated over Bower he would resign his committeeman's post.

Of the 14 seeking office, eight are already assured of being in the pay-off election in November.

Running unopposed are: Paul Haytcher, solicitor; John Ramsey, treasurer; Walter Helber, auditor; Henry Maxfield, Ward 2; Gilbert O'Shaughnessy, Ward 4; and all three vying for the YOU'D BETTER THINK twice before honking your horn at the pretty Miss pictured above. You might end up with a stiff fine and, perhaps, even a jail sentence if someone decides you are disturbing the peace. Read the following story on horn-honking in the City of Columbus. Chances are you'll be surprised. Incidentally, the young lady is Jackie Downs, a 17-year-old Whitehall girl.

Don't Be A Goose By Honking At Everything; You May Be Arrested

By JOHN AUBLE, JR.

Even though the adage says that a young man's fancy turns lightly to thoughts of love—you'd better watch out.

Spring, pretty girls and heavy traffic all add up to causes for violating another of Columbus' little-known ordinances.

It's illegal to honk the horn of your automobile excessively except to prevent an accident. Your fingertips automatically reach for the shiny ring on the steering wheel when a pretty girl is sighted, when you're stuck behind a long line of automobiles or when an acquaintance is spotted walking down the sidewalk.

But, it's illegal. Even more so if you happen to be in a hospital zone.

City Hall's chief counsel, Frank Reda, wasn't too sure when first asked about a Co-

There Is a Time to Deal With Billy Goats!

Some years ago I had trouble on the farm. Dogs were getting into my sheep and killing them. Someone said, "Get a goat. He'll keep the dogs out."

This I did, but a Billy Goat is a most unpredictable guy. This one chose to stay unto himself and the only things he seemed to dislike were people.

Many a time I found myself facing a pair of crooked horns, lowered for action. And an unsuspecting attack from the rear was his favorite approach.

One day we tangled in what might have been a life or death struggle except that maybe I had better sense than he and so I found my opportunity to get over the fence before he gained enough strength to fall back for another attack.

By this time it was evident that any animal so treacherous and so useless had no earthly value, and so I disposed of Mr. Billy Goat.

The whole story was brought to mind by what is happening down in Cuba.

Seems that maybe we all sat by and thought that Mr. Castro had a part to play for the benefit of a great body of depressed Cubans. But now after realizing that within 90 miles of home we have a bastion of strength for Communism, isn't it about time we get realistic and face up to facts?

Certainly we have had a weak foreign policy that has

QUESTIONS NEED FOR HIGHER RATES

Shipley Seeks Endorsement Of Assembly Probe Of Utilities Rate Base 'Inflating'

By John Poeppelmeyer

Whitehall's battle with the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. over a proposed boost in gas rates received added aid this week from some goings on in the state legislature.

Councilman Ray Shipley said he will seek to notify local, state and national legislators via a resolution at next Tuesday night's council session of a move by State Representative Richard M. Christiansen, D-Mansfield, to investigate "inflating" of utilities rate base and rate requests.

Christiansen requested the inquiry in a resolution containing a letter, he said, signed by George B. Quatman, president of Telephone Services, Inc., of Lima, controller of 16 Ohio telephone firms.

Shipley said he plans to have a Whitehall resolution sent to the house investigating committee, to Columbus, to "every municipality" in Franklin County and to Congressman Sam Devine.

Shipley said he has the backing of a number of his fellow councilmen on the proposal.

Ohio Fuel Gas Co. is seeking a penny and a half hike in August in Whitehall. Council, however, has thrown away a bill asking for the services of a rate consultant and instead passed their own measure placing rates at the same level as that of Columbus and Bexley.

Under the new ordinance, the rate is fixed at $1.40 for the first 1000 cubic feet as against the old rate of $2.55.

According to Christiansen, Quatman's letter said that "utilities instead of being honest, inflate their base rate and rate requests. Recent court decisions show that the ratemaking formula works to the advantage of the utilities."

The letter to a New York investment securities firm opines

Bexley Checks Into 'First One Side, Then The Other' Park Ban

Bexley solons batted through a short line-up of legislative duties Tuesday night in the span of 25 minutes with a nearly 1.000 performance.

Legislative runs were scored on two ordinances: okaying of sidewalk repairs between Broad and Main, and raising the health fund appropriation from $1500 to $2300, thereby elevating the health commissioner's salary to $200 per month.

The solving of the city's parking problem, however, was postponed.

Since the defeat of a 24-hour ban last month, a committee captained by J. Roth Crabbe has been digging into possible alternatives.

The previous 24-hour bill was based upon an Oshkosh ordinance. Crabbe reported to teammates Tuesday that the committee is scouting an Ann Arbor ordinance with a vice-versa clause, i.e., permits parking on one side of the street certain days, then on the other side.

Crabbe admitted that his committee had reached no conclusions, although "they agreed a parking problem is still with us and feel some ordinance is needed to correct the situation."

Another matter, that of rezoning of a tract at Livingston and Francis-av for a funeral parlor was handed a rain-check until the Planning Commission viewed the statistics.

Indications were good, however, for O. R. Woodyard, Jr., who plans to develop the site.

Whitehall Schools Seek $1,100,000

. . . At All Levels Of Program

If 60 per cent of the voters cast their ballots in favor of the $1,100,000 school bond issue Tuesday in the primary election, the Whitehall City Board of Education can proceed with plans that will improve the educational opportunity of all of the children in the school district.

Incorporated in the bond issue are the following items:

A New 16-18 Room Elementary Building —

This building, to be located just north of the Rosemore Junior High School, should be ready for occupancy by September of 1962 in order to provide rooms so some of the children residing in this general area and who now attend the Etna Road and East Main Street Schools may be assigned to the new building.

This would enable the Etna and Main Street Schools to house their sixth grade classes presently attending the Rosemore School, and it would also require somewhat less transportation.

Addition to the Rosemore Building —

By September of 1962, it should be necessary for the Rosemore building to become a two-year junior high school containing the seventh and eighth grades for the district. Thus, the sixth grade now housed at the Rosemore building will be returned to their respective elementary schools.

In order to meet the State recommended standards for a junior high school, it will be necessary to add industrial arts and home economics areas, as well as additional classrooms and special areas.

Addition to the Whitehall-Yearling High School —

By September of 1962, the enrollment in grades 9 through 12 will be in excess of 1,200 children. The present high school building was constructed to house approximately 1,300 children.

However, in 1962 the eighth grade will total more than 350 children, and when this number is added to the more than 1,200 pupils in grades 9 through 12, it will not be possible to house nearly 1,600 children in grades 8 through 12 in the high school. Therefore, the eighth grade must be transferred to Rosemore and the high school will require additional shop facilities and vocational education areas for its increased enrollment.

Addition to the Beechwold School—

When the eighth grade is transferred to the Rosemore School, it will be necessary to return the sixth grade classes now housed in the Rose-

School For Blind First To 'See' League's Nature Education Series

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Ted Lee, 986 Wilson-av, who has worked diligently for some years bringing the outdoors into the schools of this area, has now embarked on a state-wide conservation education project sponsored by the League of Ohio Sportsmen. This undertaking will provide complete presentations of outdoor subjects on tape and color slides. Interestingly, the first showing of the first production took place in the State Blind School.

Another presentation will be made to the elementary grades at the blind school this week, and will consist of recorded calls of birds inhabiting central Ohio. Six wooden scale models of birds were supplied by Burt Carroll, Department of Natural Resources exhibits director, for the blind children to feel while the call of each model is played. After the tape of identified calls is played, 26 unidentified bird songs will be heard. The children will raise their hands as they recognize different birds.

When the bird presentations are given in regular schools, color slides will depict each bird as the call is heard. Printed forms will be given students to match up names of birds as the unidentified tape is played.

Clubs Will Distribute Shows

As these "packages" of tapes and slides are put together they will be made available to schools throughout the state by sponsorship of a local sportsmen's club. "There will be some expense connected to these showings," says Lee, "and we will depend on clubs to make them available free to schools in their areas. Costs have been kept to a minimum, however, for several public agencies, including the Department of Natural Resources, are giving assistance and advice to the project."

Future plans of Lee and the League of Ohio Sportsmen include a series of outdoor presentations. Already scheduled are shows on minerals, gem stones, wild flowers (two shows), mammals, fish and trees. The show on trees promises to be especially interesting, for certain trees will be shown in all four seasons of the year. A background recording will be played of bird calls likely to be heard around such trees during different seasons.

The education committee of the league, which Lee heads, is to be complimented on this project which will have wide appeal among school children of the area and the state. Valuable "outdoor lessons" will be learned by tomorrow's citizens. Whether they become hunters and fishermen is not certain, but surely they will know something of conservation.

New Books

Two fine new books have just come to my attention, one for hunters and one for amateur naturalists. "The Upland Game Hunter's Bible" by Dan Holland gives gunners instructions on everything from pheasants to mountain quail. Chapters are included on game birds not found in the continental United States, such as guinea hen, tinamou and chachalaca. The book is illustrated by artist Bob Hines, formerly of Columbus and now of Washington, D.C. Valuable information is given on hunting equipment, shotgun ballistics, shotgun shooting and care of game.

Holland is a nationally-known outdoor writer and the book is authentic. It is one of a series of sportsmen's "bibles" published by Doubleday.

"The Fern Guide" is number nine in Doubleday's nature series and is by Dr. Edgar T. Wherry, a fern specialist. The guide takes in northeastern and midland United States and adjacent Canada. Excellent pen and ink sketches occur throughout the book.

YOU CAN BE ONE of these happy travelers relaxing on the club deck of the fabulous S.S. Aquarama Sunday, July 16, as the Hartley Newspapers offers a wonderful one-day Great Lakes pleasure cruise from Cleveland to Detroit and return. Make your reservations now. See story for details.

Remember – Sunday, July 16 Is Big Day!

Sunday, July 16, is the big day to circle on your summer calendar as the Hartley Newspapers offer their readers a fun-filled, full-day Great Lakes pleasure cruise aboard the fabulous S.S. Aquarama.

Hundreds of calls have been received at the Hartley offices in response to the announcement of this wonderful opportunity which appeared in last week's papers.

Many already have made reservations for the one-day cruise which will take readers from Cleveland to Detroit and back aboard the multi-million dollar, nine-deck luxury liner.

Because of the great number of responses during the first week, it has become apparent that space aboard the chartered Greyhound Highway Travelers will soon be filled. As a result, the Hartley papers have made arrangements for those people who might desire to drive their own cars to Cleveland and back, rather than traveling by chartered bus.

Adult fare for the cruise is $18.50, while full child's fare is $12.50. These prices include round trip transportation to Cleveland by chartered bus. For those who desire to drive, there is a reduction to $12.50 and $7.50 for adults and children, respectively.

Parking space is available for your automobile at the ship's landing at a cost of $1 for the entire day.

This is a trip you won't want to miss. The S.S. Aquarama features movies and bingo, comfortable deck chairs for lounging in the warm sun, a ship's library, clean restroom facilities and a large ballroom with an evening show.

For the kiddies, there's the glass-enclosed playroom under constant supervision of trained persons. Children must be old enough to play by themselves, however, as there are no nursery facilities.

Both Protestant and Catholic Church services are available Sunday morning.

Other features of the beautiful liner include four restaurants and two cocktail lounges, checkroom service and elevator service to all nine of her decks.

Indications are that the quota will be filled quickly, so make your reservations now. Simply fill out the coupon and mail, including check or money order for the full amount, to: CRUISE, Hartley Newspapers, 2465 W. Broad-st, Columbus 4, Ohio. Reservations may also be made at the front counter of the Hartley Newspapers office.

Bexley Two Teachers Shy Of Capacity

Teacher troubles—the hiring kind—that beset a number of school districts at this time of year, have reached an impasse of sorts in Bexley.

Only two vacancies, both in the high school, exist at the present time, according to Superintendent Emerson Jarvis. Slots still remain open for a high school English instructor and for a combination social studies-guidance teacher.

Last week the board hired a dozen teachers and accepted the resignation of six.

Six committees reported on recommendations of 16 different text books which the board okayed for purchasing.

Two bids were received on contracts for replacing chemistry laboratory equipment, Jarvis reported.

There are mighty few people these days who would get dizzy doing good turns for folks.

Moody Is Candidate In Primary

An East Side man, Tom Moody of 4704 Janis-dr, will carry the Republican banner into the May 2 City Council primary.

The 31-year-old attorney is one of seven candidates in the race for six places on the ballot for the 1961 Municipal election.

Along with his Republican runningmates, William Fornof and Robert T. Southwick, he is opposing Democrats Russell Jones, Robert Smith, Robert Van Heyde and Independent-Republican, Donald Gilmore.

During the campaign, Moody has called for:

A larger police force to stem the rising crime rate.

Further efforts to reduce the number of people who require relief assistance.

A program to prevent deterioration of the downtown business district.

And inauguration of a system of snow removal to prevent traffic congestion.

In addition, he has stressed that "all problems must be dealt with on a fiscally sound basis."

Moody has received the endorsement of Mayor Ralston Westlake, who noted that "he is an able young attorney and will serve the city's best interest."

Besides serving as 28th Ward committeeman, Moody has been active in the Young Republican Club, Buckeye Republican Club and Franklin County War Veterans Republican Clu.

He is an elder of the Broadst Presbyterian Church, a board member of Muscular Distrophy in Columbus, and past-president of the Y's Men's Club of the YMCA and the Amerigo Juniors Club of the South Side YMCA.

Until recently, he was a lecturer for two years in the Law School at Franklin University.

Moody is married and the father of one son, Todd, 17 months; and a member of the law firm of Farmer, Rownd, Williams, Moody and Diamond.

He was educated in Columbus public schools, graduating from South High School in 1947 and the OSU College of Commerce in 1954. In 1956, he earned a degree from the Franklin University Law School.

FIRE CHIEF REDDY HONORED

LETTER TO EDITOR:

Committeeman Will Resign If Garnon Gets Election Nod

To the Democrats of Whitehall:

I review the events of 1960 and 1961.

The Democrats went into office Jan. 1, 1960 with economy and planning in mind. They appointed a council clerk at $100 per month, combined the office of service director and safety director, thereby saving money; employed an engineer to develop a plan of the city for future citizens and officials to be governed by, and free garbage collections.

Robert F. Garnon was appointed to council July 5, 1960. These council actions followed: Re-established position of service director, $6000 per month; re-established position of safety director, $300 per month; created position of council clerk, $325 per month; appointed a Republican, who was not a resident of Whitehall, and not one Democrat objected.

The Master Plan said reduce motel and trailer camps on Main-st, one motel wanted to build 16 units, planning and zoning turned them down, Feb. 7, 1961 council directed Mr. Maxwell, city attorney, to prepare an ordinance to permit the motel to build its 16 units.

Always, I have carried out the duties of my office in an honest and above-board manner, never have I resorted to trickery, nor will I ever be a party to such.

Therefore I make this statement, that if the Democrats of Whitehall wish to and do nominate Robert F. Garnon to be their candidate for mayor this fall, in fairness to all, I will resign as Democratic committeeman, Fourth Ward, City of Whitehall the day after the primary, which would be May 3, 1961.

LETTER TO EDITOR

CommitteeSpeaks Up For Garnon

We wish to bring a matter of importance to the attention of all Whitehall residents.

A progressive and dynamic Whitehall citizen has entered the primary election in an effort to be nominated for election to the position of mayor.

We speak of Mr. Robert F. Garnon who was elected and served as Second Ward committeeman and presently is Second Ward councilman. Mr. Garnon has been actively following the course of Whitehall city government for the past several years. He has had almost perfect attendance at council meetings for two years prior to being appointed to his present council seat.

Mr. Garnon is a graduate of Kent State University where he obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education; he served in the U.S. Army with a tour of duty in the European theatre; he is married and has four children; he and his wife are both active in PTA, Cub Scouts and Whitehall Boys Baseball Association.

Mr. Garnon has studied organization and functions of city government quite thoroughly and can give to the citizens the type of administration which is needed—"Firm yet flexible." We strongly urge the support of Mr. Garnon.

Thank you.
